Bayard

- Current frequencies: GB 26, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 27
- Main GB location 1881: Warwicks; Norfolk; Middx and Surrey

Norman, English: (i) nickname from Bayard (Old French baiart, baiard ‘bay-coloured’), the name of the bright bay magic horse given by Charlemagne to Renaud in a 12th-century chanson de geste. It was subsequently used as a mock-heroic name for any horse, particularly for a blindly reckless or foolish one. Applied as a human nickname it probably denoted someone with a proud, haughty, or reckless disposition, rather than someone with reddish brown hair (as is often supposed from the original sense of baiart). Compare Chaucer’s ‘proud Bayard’ and ‘Bayard the blynde’; ‘þay blustered as blynde as bayard’ (about 1325 in OED); ‘But as Bayard the blinde sted [steed] . . . He goth there no man will him bidde’ (1393 in OED). (ii) nickname perhaps occasionally from Old French bayard, baiart ‘hand barrow used for heavy loads’, used possibly to denote a mason’s labourer. Compare Old French, Anglo-Norman French baiardeur; bayardours is found in 1359 in (Salzman, Building, p. 439) and baiard ‘hand barrow’ in 1278 in (p. 243). In the Vale Royal accounts of 1278 the bayarders or bairdores are described as ‘men carrying with barrows large stones to be carved into the workshop and out’ (Salzman, Building, p. 353). This is a less likely origin than (i). Early bearers: Ralph baird (baiart), 1086 in Ely Inquisition (Herts); Godfrey Baiart, Baiard, 1161–2 in Pipe Rolls (Yorks); Simon Bai(h)ard, 1203, 1206 in Curia Regis Rolls (Herts); Willelmus Bayard, 1377 in Poll Tax (Worcester, Worcs); Ricardo Bayarde, 1379 in Poll Tax (East Norton, Leics); Agnes Bayard, 1379 in Poll Tax (Salthouse, Norfolk); Johanne Baiard, 1379 in Poll Tax (Baydon, Wilts); Ricardus Bayard, 1379 in Poll Tax (Cudworth, WR Yorks); Henricus Bayard, 1381 in Poll Tax (Ashford, Derbys); Wilm. 1 English: (i) occupational name for a maker of baize cloth, from an agent derivative of Old French baies, Middle English bayes (from the adjective bai ‘reddish-brown, bay’), probably so called because of its original colour. Originally a coarse woollen material with a long nap, it was said to have been introduced into Britain by immigrants from France and the Netherlands in the 16th century, but the word certainly appears much earlier in English. (ii) locative name for a 'dweller by the bend', from an agent derivative of Old English bēag 'bend'.

Early bearers: John Beyer, 1262 in Feet of Fines (Warwick); William le Beier, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Alice Bayer, 1351 in Colchester Court Rolls; John Bayer, 1566 in IGI (Saint Augustine Watling Street, London); Jeremy Bayer, 1627 in IGI (Borden, Kent); Daniel Bayer, 1649 in IGI (Bacton, Suffolk); John Bayer, 1657 in IGI (Kings Lynn, Norfolk); Thomas Bayer, 1672 in IGI (Fowlmere, Cambs).

2 German, Jewish (Ashkenazic): locative name from German Beier 'Bavarian', denoting a person from Bavaria.

Early bearers: Charles Bayer, stay manufacturer, born in Germany, in Census 1881 (Marylebone, Middx); Frederick Bayer, pork butcher, born in Germany, in Census 1891 (Southwark, Surrey); Israel Bayer, carman, born in Russia, in Census 1901 (Stepney, Middx); August Bayer, pork butcher, born in Germany, in Census 1901 (Kirkdale, Lancs); Jacob Bayer, grocer and provisions dealer, born in Germany, in Census 1911 (Lambeth, Surrey); Christian Bayer, tailor, born in Germany, in Census 1911 (Shoreditch, Middx); Reinhold Beyer, professor of music, born in Zwebendorf, Prussia, in Census 1911 (Liverpool, Lancs).

English: from Middle English bailli, baillif 'manager, administrator' (Old French bailli(s), baillif). The term could denote the king's officer in a county, hundred, town, castle, or forest, or an elected town officer, a magistrate, an officer of a court, serving warrants and enforcing judgments. In Middle English, a bailiff often denoted the agent of a lord in managing a manor, collecting rents, etc., but in the early modern period the term gradually became specialized as denoting an officer of justice under a sheriff, who executes writs and processes, distrains, and arrests. Compare Bailey.

Early bearers: Richard le Baillif, 1242 in Book of Fees (Herefs); Gilbert le Balif, 1280 in Assize Rolls (Somerset); John Bayllif, Baylly, 1296 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Johannes Balis, 1377 in Poll Tax (Little Casterton, Rutland); Robertus Baillif, 1379 in Poll Tax (Pennington, Hants); Henrico le Balif, 1379 in Poll Tax (Blackburn, Lancs); Waltero Bayleffe, 1379 in

- Main Irish location 1847–64: scattered

1 English: (i) nickname from Middle English bene ‘pleasant, genial, kindly’. Some of the following early bearers may alternatively belong with (2). (ii) nickname from Middle English bene ‘bean’. The word was commonly used to denote something of little worth, as in the phrase ‘Al nas wurth a bene’ (MED, about 1325). It may have been used to nickname someone who habitually used the term or who was thought to merit it. Alternatively it may have been a name for a grower or seller of beans. Compare Pease. (iii) locative name; it may also be from a location. Redmonds, Dictionary of Yorks Surnames cites Adam del Bene of Harrogate (1351) as evidence to suggest that in the Harrogate area, where the Yorks name later proliferated, it may have been derived from a place where beans grew.

Further information: The broad bean, Vicia faba, was a staple food in Europe in the Middle Ages. The green bean, Phaseolus vulgaris, came from South America and was not introduced to Europe until the late 16th century. Compare the now extinct surnames Beaner and Beancod: John le Bener, 1282 in London Letter Books A; Adam Benecod, 1221 in Cotton Tiberius B ii. Early bearers: Gerard Bene, 1166 in Pipe Rolls (Norfolk); Ailwardus Bene, 1180 in Pipe Rolls (London); Juliana Bean, 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Aislaby, NR Yorks); Jone Bean, 1556 in IGI (Aldborough, Norfolk); Abraham Bean, 1574 in IGI (Penshurst, Kent); Gabrielis Bean, 1592 in IGI (Ryther, WR Yorks); Richard Bean, 1603 in IGI (Marwood, Devon); Geoffrey Bean, 1605 in IGI (Stillingfleet, ER Yorks); Robert Bean, 1622 in IGI (Egton, NR Yorks); Bryan Bean, 1708 in IGI (Knaresborough, WR Yorks).

2 English: perhaps a variant of Benn. Compare Benney.

Early bearers: Robertus filius Biene, 1168 in Pipe Rolls (Cumb); Ricardus filius Bene, 1278 in Assize Rolls (Lancs).

3 Irish, Scottish: in Scotland and Ireland this is a reduced form of Mac B(h)eathain, see McBain.

Norman, English, Huguenot: locative name from one or other of the numerous places in France called Beaufort, notably in Nord, Somme, and Pas-de-Calais. Further information: This surname was borne in the 14th century by the illegitimate children of John of Gaunt and his mistress Catherine Swinford. Their name was derived from their father's castle, Beaufort, in Champagne. Henry Beaufort (c.1377–1447) became a cardinal and papal legate; his brother Thomas (died 1427) became Duke of Exeter; a third brother, John (died 1407), became Earl of Somerset. The latter's granddaughter, Margaret Beaufort (1443–1509) married Edmund Tudor, half-brother of Henry VI, and was the mother of Henry VII. The English admiral Sir Francis Beaufort (1774–1857), who devised the Beaufort scale (used for measuring wind velocity), was a descendant of a French Huguenot refugee, Daniel de Beaufort, who became pastor of a church in Spitalfields, London.

1 Norman, English: (i) locative name from any of the five places in Normandy named Beaumont (Old French 'beautiful hill or mound'). The Domesday Book family came from Beaumont-le-Roger (Eure). (ii) locative name; the Suffolk name may alternatively derive from Beaumont cum Moze (Essex), a Norman re-naming of a place formerly known as Fulepet 'foul hollow', in imitation of one of the places mentioned in (i). It is recorded as Bealmont (1175–80) and Beumund (1328) in Place-Names of Essex.

Further information: Most English bearers of the surname are probably descended from Henry de Beaumont (died 1340), who came to England from France as a soldier, serving Edward I, II, and III of England. He acquired the earldom of Buchan in Scotland by marriage.

Beech

Variants: Beach, Bech

- Current frequencies: GB 7193, Ireland 44
- GB frequency 1881: 4412
- Main GB location 1881: Staffs, Cheshire, and Shrops
- Main Irish location 1847–64: Limerick

English: locative name from Middle English beche 'beech-tree' (Old English bēce) or Middle English beche 'stream' (Old English bæce).

Further information: Beche may be from Old English bēce 'beech' or bæce 'stream', and without further evidence it is impossible to distinguish these in Middle English. In Worcs and Staffs, where bæce normally survives as bach(e), Beche is probably a variant of this. Robert de Beche, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Cams), came from either Landbeach or Waterbeach, both earlier Beche 'stream, valley'. Elias ater Beche, 1296 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex), probably lived at Beech Farm (Battle Abbey Customals).

- Current frequencies: GB 268, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 186
- Main GB location 1881: Sussex, Surrey, and Kent

English: locative name, occupational name presumably for the keeper of a bellchamber, the room where bells were hung in a bell tower or in a belfry, from Middle English (Old English) belle 'bell' + Middle English (Old French) chambre 'room'. However, the compound is not recorded in OED before 1848. A keeper of a bellchamber may also have been the bell ringer.

Further information: Reaney points out that the 1369 example was earlier atte Belchambre, and that there is no evidence to support Bardsley's view that Belchamber was a variant of Bellencombe. The family of William Belencumbre (1235 in Assize Rolls) originated in Bellencombe (Seine-Maritime, Normandy) and settled in Essex. It has long been extinct, their name surviving in Belcumber Hall in Finchingfield. According to McKinley, the surname Bellchamber is first recorded in Sussex in the late 13th century. Richard Belechambr or Belechombre was tenant of a virgate in Slindon before 1285, and Walter Belechambre possessed land in Kirdford before 1334.

Early bearers: Thomas Belchambre, 1369 in London Letter Books G; Robertus Belchambr', 1379 in Poll Tax (Bury, Sussex); William Belchamber, 1543 in IGI (Worthing, Sussex); Jone Bellchamber, 1566 in IGI (Angmering, Sussex); Wm Belchamber, 1603 in IGI (Reading, Berks); George Belchamber, 1608 in IGI (Norton, Kent); Willa Bellchamber, 1622 in IGI (Stratford Saint Mary, Suffolk); Thomas Bellchamber, 1638 in IGI (Cliddesden, Hants); John Bellchamber, 1657 in IGI (Holborn, Middx). References: Surnames of Sussex, p. 186.

- 1 Norman, English: nickname from Old French bel ch(i)ere or beu ch(i)ere, which had various senses, including ‘fair face or looks’, ‘fine manners’, ‘good company’, ‘good cheer, food and drink, hospitality’. Compare Goacher. In N England the ending of the name was sometimes reinterpreted as -shaw and -shea as though it were a locative surname. Some of the following early bearers may alternatively belong under (2).

Early bearers: W England: Richard Belecher, 1274 in Hundred Rolls (Gloucs); Alexander Belsier, Belshyre, 1542 in Oseney Cartulary (Oxon); William Belcher, 1548 in IGI (Denchworth, Berks); Walterus Belcher, 1552 in IGI (Burton upon Trent, Staffs); John Belcher, 1565 in IGI (Deerhurst, Gloucs); Robert Belsher, 1566 in IGI (Frampton Cotterell, Gloucs); Henry Bowschere, 1575 in Oxford University Register; William Belsheer, 1587 in IGI (Bath, Somerset); Richarde Belshyre, 1596, Richard Bousher, 1691 in IGI (Bristol, Gloucs); William Bowsher, 1603, Francis Bowshire, 1641 in IGI (Marlborough, Wilts); Robert Belsire, 1617, William Belshire, 1710 in IGI (Yate, Gloucs); Mary Belsheare, 1641 in IGI (Westbury, Wilts); John Bowsier, 1686 in IGI (East Challow, Berks). 2 Norman, English: nickname from Old French bel, beu + sire ‘fair sir’, a term of address (compare Goodsir, Sweetser). From at least the 15th century this name was probably confused with (1) above, owing to the pronunciation of Middle English beu sire and bel sire as ‘bewcher’ and ‘belsher’. In the York Plays Herod sarcastically addresses a messenger, ‘Bewcher! wele ye be’, and, when Annas orders a boy who has been bound to be brought in, the soldier mockingly announces, ‘London, here is the belschere brought that ye bad bring’.

Early bearers: Geoffrey Beusire, 1226 in Curia Regis Rolls (Essex); John Belsire, 1274 in Hundred Rolls (Kent); Ricardus Beuser, 1297 in Subsidy Rolls (Crigglestone, WR Yorks); Walter Beusire, 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Thornaby, NR Yorks); Gregory Bousyre, 1314–16 in Subsidy Rolls (Staffs); Andrew Beausire, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Combe Raleigh, Devon).

1 English, Scottish: (i) occupational name from Middle English bel(le)man, a term known to have been used in York and Scotland, and probably elsewhere, for a town crier. (ii) occupational name, status name; the medieval form Beleman may denote 'servant of Bele' (see Beale). (iii) nickname; in the Denham Parish Register (Suffolk) the surname appears as Beleman, Belleman, Belliman (1585–1606), Billeman (1776), Billyman (1784) and in that of Rushbrook as Billeman and Billerman (1760, 1791). The persistent medial vowel suggests that this is for Middle English beli-man 'bellows blower', from Middle English beli 'bellows'. Compare Bellow.

Early bearers: England: William Belman, 1300 in Crowland Abbey Estates (Cambs); Katerina Beleman, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Cambs); Lawrence Bellman, 1562 in IGI (Lowestoft, Suffolk); Robart Bellman, 1582 in IGI (Salisbury, Wilts); Matthew Bellman, 1602 in IGI (Kingston upon Thames, Surrey); Richard Bellman, 1618 in IGI (Plymouth, Devon); Robert Bellman, 1624 in IGI (Piddlehinton, Dorset). Scotland: Gilbert Belman, 1398 in Aberdeen Register (Footdee, Aberdeens).

2 Norman, English: perhaps also a variant of Bellmaine.

English: relationship name from the Middle English personal name Ben(ne). This is usually a pet form of Benet (Benedict). See Bennett and compare

Benson.

Further information: Benne is found as a native English name in Domesday Book (e. g. Leuunus Benne (Suffolk)), but this is probably unrelated to the later surname. Tengvik explains it as either a nickname meaning ‘the plump, lumpish one’ or as an Old English personal name, Bynna or Beonna, for the post-Conquest use of which there is no clear evidence. However, see Binney
Early bearers: given names: Benne de Ecclesille, 1246 in Assize Rolls (Lancs).

Bensley

Variants: Bensly

- Current frequencies: GB 743, Ireland 1
- GB frequency 1881: 510
- Main GB location 1881: Norfolk and Suffolk

English: possibly an altered form of Bendelows, a variant of Bindloss. The same development occurs in Binsley.

Further information: For the development of Bindlow(s) to Bensley see Redmonds, Dictionary of Yorks Surnames, at Bendelow, Bensley. Wilson in Reaney and Wilson derives the name from Middle English benes + lei(e) (Old English bēan + lēah) 'clearing where beans are grown'. This is formally possible but in the absence of any Middle English evidence for the compound in minor or lost place-names, it is best left in doubt.

English: locative name, status name from either of two places called Benthall in Shrops.

Further information: A family called Benthall have been living at Benthall near Broseley, Shrops, from the 12th century to the present. Anfrid de Benthall signed a charter in 1120; his descendant Philip de Benedhal claimed land there in 1255. Benthall Hall was rebuilt in 1535, but passed out of the hands of the family in the first half of the 18th century with the extinction of the direct male line. John Benthall (died about 1590), a member of another branch of the family, married the daughter of a clothier from Halstead, Essex, and established a branch of the family in that county. A descendant, Frank Bentall (1843–1923), began his working life in his father's shop in Maldon, but in 1867 moved to Kingston upon Thames, Surrey, and opened a draper's shop there, which later turned into a large department store. Another branch of the same family migrated from Essex to Devon. In 1843 they changed the spelling of their name back to Benthall, and in 1934 Mrs Clementina Benthall repurchased the ancestral estate in Shrops.

- GB frequency 1881: 21
- Main GB location 1881: London

1 German, Jewish (Ashkenazic): locative name from Berlin, generally the capital city, but in some cases from a village of the same name in the Hamburg area. As a Jewish name it may have been acquired as a handout name in some instances.

Further information: The German capital takes its name from a West Slavic word meaning ‘river rake’, a scaffold of beams built over a river to prevent logs from jamming; the river in question is the Spree. Folk etymology, however, has put a bear into the arms of the city, as if the name were derived from *Bär*lin, a diminutive of Bär ‘bear’.

Bernstein

- Current frequencies: GB 663, Ireland 11
- GB frequency 1881: 287
- Main GB location 1881: London; Lancs

Jewish (Ashkenazic): (i) ornamental name from the German word Bernstein 'amber'. It may also have been used to denote a craftsman who worked in or a dealer in amber. (ii) locative name; as a German name, it is from a place called Bernstein, of which there is one example in Bavaria and another in what used to be East Prussia (now Pelczyce in north-western Poland). Both places probably get their German names from the notion of 'burnt stone', for example in brick making, rather than from the usual modern meaning, 'amber'. The family name may also be from Bärenstein, a common field and place name, especially in Bavaria and Austria.

Further information: The etymology of the German vocabulary word Bernstein (from Middle Low German bernen 'to burn' + stēn 'stone') indicates that it was believed to be created by burning, although it is in fact fossilized pine resin.

Early bearers: Jewish: Solomon Bernstein, in Census 1841 (Middx); Levi Bernstein, in Census 1861 (Staffs); Bernard Bernstein, born in Russia, in Census 1871 (Durham); Barnett Bernstein, 1872 in IGI (Leeds, WR Yorks); Isaac Bernstein, born in Poland, in Census 1881 (Birmingham, Warwicks); Abraham Bernstein, born in Poland, in Census 1881 (Liverpool, Lancs); Youdel Bernstein, born in Russia, in Census 1881 (Stranton, Durham); Simon Bernstien, tailor, born in Poland, in Census 1881 (Lancs); Mendel Bernstein, born in Russia, in Census 1891 (Durham); Barnet Bernstein, born in Poland, in Census 1901 (Leeds, WR Yorks); Aaron Bernstein, glazier, born in Russia, in Census 1911 (Liverpool, Lancs).

German: Carl John Henry Bernstein, 1850 in IGI (Bethnal Green, Middx); Phillip Bernstein, born in Germany, in Census 1881 (Islington, Middx); Adolph Bernstein, born in Germany, in Census 1891 (London); William Bernstein, born in Germany, in Census 1891 (Lancs); Hans Bernstein, coal merchant, born in Germany, in Census 1911 (Cardiff, Glamorgan).

- Current frequencies: GB 21, Ireland 0
  - GB frequency 1881: 42
  - Main GB location 1881: London
- English: relationship name from the Middle English personal name Berenger (Old French Berengier, from Continental Germanic Beringar, composed of **ber(n)-* ‘bear’ + **gair-* ‘spear’). The variety of forms is due to the common Anglo-Norman interchange (and loss) of liquids in names containing -l-, -n-, and -r-. Thus, Berenger became Belenger or Benenger, and in the latter case the second n was lost, giving Beneger, later shortened to Benger.
- Further information: The given name was fairly common in England in the 12th and 13th centuries, having been borne by one of the paladins in the widely popular Charlemagne romances.

Early bearers: given names: Berengerus, 1086 in Domesday Book (Norfolk); Bengerus, 1203 in Curia Regis Rolls (Beds); Belingar’, 1207 in Charter Rolls (Dorset); Berenger faber, 1219 in Assize Rolls (Yorks). surnames: Robertus filius Berengarii, about 1150 in Stenton, Feudalism (Lincs); Hugo Berengeri 1189–99 in Danelaw Documents (Lincs); Walter Beneger, 1208 in Curia Regis Rolls (Gloucs); Reginald Beringer, about 1260 in Lewes Chartulary (Cambs); John Berenger alias Beniger, 1271 in Inquisitiones post Mortem (Wilts); John Belinger, 1275 in Subsidy Rolls (Worcs); Willelmus Belynger, 1379 in Poll Tax (Tunstead, Norfolk); John Bellinger, 1564 in IGI (Canterbury, Kent); Agnis Ballinger, 1565 in IGI (Manuden, Essex); Henry Barringer, 1608, Mary Barrenger, 1625 in IGI (Iver, Bucks); William Beringer, 1696 in IGI (Whitechapel, Middx); Phillip Berringer, 1711 in IGI (Westminster, Middx).

Best*Variants: Beste, Beast

- Current frequencies: GB 10786, Ireland 908
  - GB frequency 1881: 8048
  - Main GB location 1881: widespread in N England, W Midlands, and S England
  - Main Irish location 1847–64: Ulster: esp. Armagh
- 1 English: nickname from Middle English best(e) (Old English best) ‘best, finest (person)’ or from Middle English best(e) (Old French beste) ‘beast, animal’ (especially those used for food or work).
 With the second meaning compare Bester ‘herdsman’, but the rarity of Best as a modern surname (representing the usual phonetic development of beste ‘animal’) suggests that ‘(the) best (person)’ may have been the more common meaning. Either of these senses is implied by the definite article in the medieval forms, but some forms without the article could alternatively belong with (2).

Early bearers: William Best, 1201 in Assize Rolls (Somerset); Wilkin le Best, 1260 in Assize Rolls (Cheshire); John le Beste, 1297 in Wakefield Court Rolls (Wakefield, WR Yorks); Johanne le Beste, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Little Bredy, Dorset); Walter le Beste, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Great Paxton, Hunts); William Best, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Aldingbourne, Sussex); Richard Beste, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Chudleigh, Devon); Henry le Beste, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Bretforton, Worcs); Thomas le Beste, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Broadway, Worcs); Johannes Best, 1377 in Poll Tax (Knapwell, Cambs); Willelmus Best, 1377 in Poll Tax (Trippett, ER Yorks); Willelmus Best, 1379 in Poll Tax (Wootton Wawen, Warwicks); Johannes Best, 1379 in Poll Tax (Draycot Foliat, Wilts); Johannes Best, 1379 in Poll Tax (Thorner, WR Yorks); Henricus le Best, 1381 in Poll Tax (Castleton, Derbys); Thomas Best, 1381 in Poll Tax (West Ham, Essex); Thome Best, 1381 in Poll Tax (West Barkwith, Lincs); Elyzabeth Best, 1538 in IGI (Sandwich, Kent); Johes. Beswetherick

- Current frequencies: GB 116, Ireland 0
  - GB frequency 1881: 122
  - Main GB location 1881: Cornwall
- Cornish: locative name seemingly originating as a variant of a surname Bos-, Beswarthack, from the place-name Bosvathick in Constantine (Cornwall). The surname is found in the Falmouth area in the mid-17th century and in mid-Cornwall (especially Luxulyan and Lostwithiel) in the 18th century. Beswetherick is a late and irregular variant of Beswarthack, perhaps partly under the influence of the unrelated surname Petherick.
Early bearers: Peter Bosvothek, 1522 in Cornwall Military Survey (Constantine, Cornwall); William Boswethake, c.1535 in Cornwall Military Survey (Wendron, Cornwall); Martyn Boswathack, 1569 in Cornwall Muster (Helston, Cornwall); Marten Boswarthack, 1641 in Protestation Returns (Saint Gluvas including Penryn, Cornwall); Mary Beswarthack, 1660 in Cornwall Hearth and Poll Taxes (Penryn, Cornwall); Henry Beswarthick, 1673 in IGI (Luxulyan, Cornwall); Thomas Beswarick, 1768 in IGI (Lostwithiel, Cornwall); Thomas Boswarthick, 1773, Boswarrick, 1774 in IGI (Luxulyan, Cornwall), probably the same person; William Beswetherick, 1802 in Cornwall Record Office (Luxulyan); Ann Beswethrick, 1835 in IGI (Luxulyan, Cornwall).

English: relationship name from the Middle English personal name Bett(e). When female it was usually a pet form of Beatrice but possibly also Elizabeth. When male it was a pet form of Bertram or Bertelmew (Bartholomew): compare Bettinus Beaumont and Bette his brother, 1289 in London Letter Books A; Bette the bocher in Piers Plowman (late 14th century) was also, presumably, a man. In the case of Robert Bet son of Bartholomew Bette, 1312 in London Letter Books D, the surname may be due to a family partiality for the personal name Bertelmew. Emma Bettis, 1279 in Hundred Rolls (Oxon) was probably the wife or widow of a man named Bette. Compare Bate, Batt, and Beet.

surnames: Reginald filius Bette, 1197 in Feet of Fines (Bucks); Terri Bette, 1154–89 in Saint Bartholomew's Hospital Cartulary (London); Richard Bette, 1175 in Pipe Rolls (Notts); John Bett, 1540 in IGI (Burton Latimer, Northants); Thomas Bett, 1540 in IGI (Stanford Rivers, Essex); Alys Bett, 1545 in IGI (Rye, Sussex); Mrs. Chrysham Bett, 1545 in IGI (Dover, Kent); Henrici Bett, 1547 in IGI (Melton Mowbray, Leics).

English: variant of Betteley (in the W Midlands) and Beatley (in E England) with /n/ substituted for /l/. Tooth notes that in the parish registers for Seighford (Staffs) Joseph Betteteley (1762) is buried as Joseph Bettany (1806). Compare Margret Bettony, 1596, Thomas Betley, 1612 in IGI (Chester, Cheshire); Johanes Betteny, 1675, Anna Betteley, 1709, Daniel Bettany, 1796 in IGI (Stone, Staffs); Stephen Beatley, 1696, Charles Bettany, 1715 in IGI (Norwich, Norfolk). Further information: The change in pronunciation may have been influenced by false association with the plant name betony, or, in the case of the W Midlands name, there may have been a reduction of Middle English Betunlegh (1289 in Staffs Place-Names, at Betley) to **Betony*. Wilson's derivation of the Suffolk, Cambs, and Essex name from betony (Middle English betonike, Old English betonice) is not supported by any medieval evidence, and is unlikely.

Early bearers: William Betany, 1524 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); Ales Betney, 1566, Chrstr. Bettney, 1571 in IGI (Laxton, Notts); John Bettany, 1586 in IGI (Worksop, Notts); Gilbert Beteny, 1598 in The Essex Review 62 (Essex); Thomas Bettany, 1627 in IGI (Thorpe Salvin, WR Yorks); Roger Bettoney, 1666 in IGI (Wolverhampton, Staffs); Charles Betteny, 1669 in IGI (Hope, Derbys); Hellina Bettney, 1685 in IGI (Longstone, Derbys); Thomas Betteny, 1706 in IGI (Cambridge, Cambs); Margrett Bettaney, 1713 in IGI (Chester, Cheshire); Francis Bettaney, 1721 in IGI (Shawbury, Shrops); Susan Beteny, 1734 in Parish Registers (Rampton, Cambs); James Bethany, 1757 in IGI (Wrockwardine, Shrops); John Bettoney, 1790 in IGI (Oadby, Leics).

Scottish: nickname from Middle English beuerage, beuerich, Old French beverage 'drink, liquor', in particular 'a drink that seals a bargain', also denoting the bargain itself. The consonant -v- was often lost between vowels in Middle and early Modern English, hence spellings such as Berridge. The custom of sealing a bargain with a drink was widespread in medieval society. In Whitby in 1199, one purchaser of land paid by custom 4 pence for possession and another penny to the burgesses as beuerage (Charter Rolls i, 14). The surname may have denoted someone to whom such a payment was customarily made. In his poem Piers Plowman (composed before 1376) William Langland depicts dodgy deals in alehouses, when 'Bargeyns and beuerages bi-gonne to aryse'. Modern Beveridge is chiefly found in Scotland, where Black says it is pronounced 'Berridge' or 'Berritch'. The main English form is Berridge. Belfrage is a common variant in Fife and Kinross, with intrusive l, as in Scottish Chalmers for Chambers.

Early bearers: England: Wido Beverage, 1212 in Curia Regis Rolls (Bucks); William Beverage, 1230 in Pipe Rolls (Surrey); Richard Beverече, about 1240 in Ramsey Cartulary (Hunts); Walter Berich, 1279 in Hundred Rolls (Hunts); William Bauerich, 1280 in Assize Rolls (Somerset); William Beueerge, 1297 in Earldom of Cornwall Accounts (Devon); Robert Beuerich, 1315 in Feet of Fines (Hunts); Hug. Beuerych, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Kineton, Warwicks); John Berage, 1427, Richard Beryge, 1482 in York Freeman's Register (York); Richard Berridge, 1590 in IGI (Dingley, Northants); Elnathan Beridge, 1594, Gooditha Beridge, 1606, Fardynando Beredg, 1608 in IGI (Kibworth Beauchamp, Leics); Richard Berridge, 1601 in Feet of Fines (Hunts); Henerie Berridge, 1623, Henry Beridge, 1782 in IGI (Tur Langton, Leics); Eleanor Beveridge, 1716 in IGI (Alnwick, Northumb); George Beveredge, 1734 in IGI (East Boldon, Durham).

1 English: (i) relationship name from the Middle English personal name Bille or **Bile*, either a pet form of the female names Amabil and Sybil or a survival of Old English Bil or Old Scandinavian Bildr. It is attested in Willelmus filius Bille, 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Marton in Cleveland, NR Yorks). See also Amable and Sibley, and compare Billson. (ii) nickname from Middle English (Old English) bile 'bill, beak (of a bird)', perhaps used contemptuously of a person's nose or mouth. (iii) nickname alternatively from Middle English (Old English) bil(l) 'bill(hook), pruning hook, halberd', given perhaps to a user or maker of billhooks, etc. Compare Billor and Thomas Bilhouk, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Somerset). Some of the following post-medieval bearers may alternatively belong under (2). Further information: Bill does not occur as a pet form of William in the medieval period.

Early bearers: Nicholas Bile, 1176 in Pipe Rolls (Staffs); Walter Bile, 1185 in Templars Records (Gloucs); Griffin and William Bil, 1188 in Pipe Rolls (Warwicks); William Bil, 1194 in Pipe Rolls (Norfolk); Sewinus Bille, 1221 in Assize Rolls (Warwicks); Radulphus Bylle de Lyndeby, 1287 in Sherwood Forest Eyre (Linby, Notts); Thomas Byle, 1377 in Poll Tax (Upper Halliford, Middx); Johannes Bile, 1379 in Poll Tax (Alton Pancras, Dorset); Alicia Byl, 1379 in Poll Tax (Barrow upon Soar, Leics); Hugo Byle, 1379 in Poll Tax (Barton Seagrave, Northants); Thomas Byle, 1379 in Poll Tax (Oxhill, Warwicks); Johanne Byl, 1379 in Poll Tax (Devizes, Wilts); Johannes Byll', 1379 in Poll Tax (Gomersal, WR Yorks); Petro Byl, 1381 in Poll Tax (Stowmarket, Suffolk); James Bill, 1557 in IGI (Gnossall, Staffs); John Bill, 1565 in IGI (Much Wenlock, Shrops); Henry Bile, 1615 in IGI (Salisbury, Wilts); Sarah Bill, 1648 in IGI (Bradford, WR Yorks); John Bill, 1677 in IGI (Newbold, Warwicks).

2 English: locative name for someone who lived on or by a promontory or headland (Middle English bile, bille 'beak'), as in Bilheath in Brewood, Staffs (the Byll, 1567 in Place-Names of Staffs, 1). The examples without atte may alternatively belong under (1).

Billeter

Variants: Billiter

- Current frequencies: GB 10, Ireland o
- GB frequency 1881: 4
- Main GB location 1881: London

English: occupational name from Old English belle + gēotere 'bell-founder'.

Further information: The corresponding French term survives as Senter, which Stahlschmidt confuses with ceinturier 'girdler'. Salzman, however, notes a 13th-century Worcester family referred to both as Ceynturer and Belleyeter. 'The demand for bells could hardly have been large enough to enable a craftsman to specialize entirely in that branch; a bell maker would always have been primarily a founder, and according as the main portion of his trade lay in casting buckles and other fittings for belts, or pots, or bells, he would be known as a girdler, a potter, or a bell-founder.' Most of the known London bell-founders used the designation 'potter'. Ekwall notes that Ædmund Seintier, 1168, is called a moneyer. Most moneyers were goldsmiths, but occasionally other metalworkers had a die in the mint, and in some cases a bell-founder may have acted as a moneyer. Several bells were cast for Westminster Abbey by Edward FitzOdo, the famous goldsmith of Henry III. William Founder cast both bells and cannon. His trade stamp, bearing his name and a representation of two birds and a conventionalized tree, appears on a number of bells and hints at his real surname—clearly Woodward. In two successive entries in 1385 he is called William the founder and William Wodeward and in 1417 cannon were supplied by William Wodeward, founder. At Exeter, about 1285, Bishop Peter de Quivil assured the proper care of the bells of the cathedral by granting a small property in Paignton to Robert le Bellyeter as a retaining fee, Robert and his heirs being bound to make or repair, when necessary, the bells, organ and clock of the cathedral, the chapter paying all expenses, including the food and drink of the workmen, and these obligations were duly fulfilled for at least three generations. In 1454 a Norwich bell-founder was called Richard Brasier. See Salzman, Industries, pp. 145–54.

- Main GB location 1881: Westm and Lancs

English: nickname, occupational name perhaps for a wolf hunter, from Middle English binden 'bind' + Middle English (Old French) loues 'wolves'. Plurals are most unusual in phrasal nicknames. The more regular singular form occurs in the name of John Byndeloue, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk), for which see Bensley, and is synonymous with Truslove (see Trussler). The preposition in the 1302–3 example could alternatively point to a lost place-name but it is more likely to be a scribal error. The earliest examples are from the NR Yorks and WR Yorks border (Ripon, Sharow, and Langthorpe are almost neighbouring settlements), and the surname persisted in NR Yorks until the late 17th century, but its subsequent history belongs mainly to NW England, where it first appears in the previous century.

Early bearers: John Byndelows, 1221 in Ripon Memorials (Ripon, WR Yorks); Rob. Byndelowys, 1290 in Inquisitiones post Mortem (Yorks); Alan and John Byndlouies (printed as Byndlomes), 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Langthorpe in Kirby Hill, NR Yorks); Robert Byndlosse, 1303 in Yorks Survey (Ripon, WR Yorks); Joh. de Byndelays, 1302–3 in Register of Archbishop Corbridge; Johannes, Robertus Byndlowys, 1379 in Poll Tax (Sharow, WR Yorks); Willi. Binlowes, 1588 in IGI (Pickhill, NR Yorks); Robart Byndlos, 1593, Peter Byndlosse, 1596 in IGI (Kendal, Westm); Francis Byndlosse, 1623 in IGI (Warton near Lancaster, Lancs); Peter Bindloss, 1664, Christopher Bindless, 1696 in IGI (Heversham, Westm); George Binless, 1738 in IGI (Sedbergh, WR Yorks); George Binless, 1781 in IGI (Cockerham, Lancs).

Blaber

- Current frequencies: GB 377, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 281
- Main GB location 1881: Sussex

English: nickname probably for a gossip, from Middle English blabber 'a teller of secrets', or possibly for someone who mumbled or talked nonsense, from Middle English blaberer (shortened to blaber) 'one who speaks incoherently or foolishly'. Further information: McKinley suggests that the Sussex name somehow became confused with Blaker in the 16th century, but the names are quite separate in origin. It is not unusual for families to be known by more than one surname at that time, as may be the case here.

Early bearers: England: Walter Blaber, 1230 in Pipe Rolls (Yorks); Roger Blaber, 1233 in Charter Rolls; Will' Blabir, 1304, Ric' Blaber, 1316, Nich' Blaber, 1321 in Nottingham Borough Court Rolls; Willelmus Blaber, 1310 in Subsidy Rolls (Beds); Johannes Blabour, 1379 in Poll Tax (Swillington, WR Yorks); Johannes Blabour, 1379 in Poll Tax (Lancing, Sussex); John Blaber, 1576 in IGI (Billingshurst, Sussex); Susan Blaber, 1625 in IGI (Cuckfield, Sussex).

Scotland: David Blaber, 1408 in Aberdeen Charters (Aberdeen, Aberdeens); Elspett Blaber, 1616 in IGI (Kinneff and Catterline, Kincardines); Isabel Blaber, 1747 in IGI (Old Machar, Aberdeens).

2 Scottish: in Gaelic-speaking areas this was adopted as a translation of the epithet dubh 'dark, black-(haired)', or of various other names based on Gaelic dubh 'black', see Duff.

Early bearers: Scotland: Donald Black, 1671 in IGI (Inveraray, Argyll); Alexander Black, 1704 in IGI (Cromdale, Inverness); Neill Black, 1708 in IGI (Jura, Argyll).

3 Jewish: probably adopted as a translation of a like-meaning or for a like-sounding name in some other European language.

Early bearers: Israel Black, born in 'foreign parts', in Census 1841 (Kings Lynn, Norfolk); Barnett Black, commercial traveller, born in Russia, in Census 1881 (Poplar, Middx); Hyman Black, draughtsman born in London, in Census 1891 (Westminster, Middx); Isaac Black, cabinetmaker, 1893 in Directory of UK Jews (Bootle, Lancs); Isaac Black, tailor, 1895 in Preston Jewish Community (Preston, Lancs); Israel Isaac Black, printing canvasser, born in Russia, in Census 1911.

Blackaby

- Current frequencies: GB 329, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 125
- Main GB location 1881: Herts

English: unexplained; it appears to be from Middle English blak 'black' + abbeie 'abbey', perhaps in allusion to a Dominican friary, for which compare the Black Abbey in Kilkenny, Ireland, founded by the Earl of Pembroke in 1225.

Early bearers: Henry Blackabie, 1561, Thomas Blackabye, 1562, Agnes Blackabey, 1584 in IGI (Great Hormead, Herts); Agneta Blackaby, 1604 in IGI (Longstow, Cambs); John Blackerby, 1623 in PROB 11 (Wilton, Norfolk); Pernell Blackabe, 1674, Daniell Blackabee, 1677 in IGI (Hatley Saint George, Cambs); Daniel Blackaby, 1694 in IGI (Hinxworth, Herts); William Blackeby, 1709 in IGI (Braughing, Herts).

1 English: locative name from Blacker, a minor place-name in Crigglestone in Sandal (WR Yorks), recorded as Blackerre in 1306.

Further information: There are two other minor place-names called Blacker in WR Yorks, one in Worsbrough (recorded as Blakeker in 1199), and the other in Northowram (lost, recorded as Blacker in 1307), but there is no evidence that either of these gave rise to surnames.

Early bearers: Matthew de Blacker, 1326 in Wakefield Court Rolls (Sandal, WR Yorks); Robert Blakker, 1458 in York Registry Wills (Sandal, WR Yorks); Agnes Blaccar, 1548, Katheren Blacker, 1563 in IGI (Rotherham, WR Yorks); Thomas Blacker, 1567 in IGI (Royston, WR Yorks); Issabella Blacker, 1617 in IGI (Huddersfield, WR Yorks).

References: Redmonds, Dictionary of Yorks Surnames.

2 English: occupational name from Middle English blakere, blakkere, the meaning of which is disputed. Fransson explained it as a derivative of Middle English blaken 'to blacken' (from Old English blæc 'black'). The nature of the occupation is unclear, but it may have involved making black ink or dyeing cloth black. Reaney, however, noting that the same Wilts man in 1313 was called le Blakkere and le Blecchere, argued that Blakkere meant 'bleacher' (see Bletcher) and that the source is an unrecorded

Middle English **blaken*, a hypothetical side form of blechen, from Old English blæcan 'to whiten'. Reaney may be right but the evidence remains ambiguous, since Blecchere could alternatively represent a SW dialect pronunciation of blachere 'one who makes things black' or 'one who makes ink'. See Blatcher and compare Blaxter. For a comparable formal and semantic ambiguity see Blake.

Early bearers: Ralph le blaker', 1291 in Gaol Delivery Rolls (Essex); Roger le Blackere, 1312, le Blakkere, le Blecchere, 1313 in Parliamentary Writs (Wilts); William Blaker, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Walter le Blacker, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Somerset); Walterus Blakere, 1379 in Poll Tax (Cuckfield, Sussex); Agnes Blaker, 1553 in IGI (Hove, Sussex); Thomas Blacker, 1583 in PROB 11 (Compton Bishop, Somerset).

English: locative name from Blacko in Whalley (Lancs), which is recorded as Blacho in the 12th century.

Early bearers: John Blakow, 1542 in Preston Guild Rolls (Lancs); John Blacoll, 1562 in Preston Guild Rolls (Lancs); George Blackoe, 1674 in IGI (Samlesbury, Lancs); Allis Blacow, 1681 in IGI (Brindle, Lancs).

English: (i) nickname from Middle English blade ‘blade’ (Old English blæd), possibly used of someone who habitually wore a knife or sword or who plied the craft of a bladesmith; compare Johannes Bladsmyth, 1381 in Poll Tax (Boston, Lincs).
However, the word is recorded in OED from the 16th century onwards (and could be earlier) in the slang sense ‘a gallant, a free-and-easy fellow, a good fellow’. OED adds, ‘The original sense is difficult to seize.’ (ii) relationship name; the medieval WR Yorks name could alternatively be from either of two unrecorded Middle English personal names of Scandinavian origin. Old Scandinavian **Bleyði* may have originated as a nickname from the Scandinavian word for ‘cowardice’. Compare the related Old Icelandic name Blauði, literally ‘the timid (one)’, from a Scandinavian cognate of Middle English bleth, Old English bleap ‘timid(ity)’. Old Scandinavian **Blað* has been proposed as the first element of the place-name Blaston (Leics), and would derive from the Scandinavian cognate of Old English blæd ‘blade (of a sword or knife)’. (iii) variant of Blades with loss of final -s.

Further information: The family name of Jacke Blade of Hipperholme may be commemorated in the first element of the minor place-name Blaithroyd in the neighbouring settlement of Southowram, recorded as Bladeroides (‘Blade clearings’), along with Bladehey (‘Blade enclosure’) and Bladehous (‘Blade house’), 1409 in Place-Names of WR Yorks, 3, 90–1.

Early bearers: Jacke Blade, 1297 in Wakefield Court Rolls (Hipperholme, WR Yorks); Willus Blade, 1556, John Blade, 1659, Henry Blade, 1793, William Blades, 1797, Elizabeth Blade, 1825 in IGI (Norwich, Norfolk); Sibell Blade, 1579 in IGI (Lincoln, Lincs); John Blaid, 1648 in IGI (Wallasey, Cheshire); Thomas Blade, 1738 in IGI (Chester, Cheshire).

- English: (i) occupational name for a cormonger, Middle English **blader*, Old French blad(i)er. (ii) an alternative sense ‘blade maker’, Middle English blad(e) ‘blade’ (Old English blæd) + -er, is also possible in some instances; compare Nicholas Bladsmith, 1357 in York Freeman’s Register.
Early bearers: Andrew le Blader, 1305 in London Court Rolls; Roberte Blader, 1644 in IGI (Worplesdon, Surrey); George Blader, 1653 in IGI (Worplesdon, Surrey); Ann Blader, 1765 in IGI (Yoxall, Staffs); John Blader, 1767 in IGI (Great Smeaton, NR Yorks); John Blader, 1791 in IGI (Kendal, Westm).

- Main GB location 1881: Lincs; also NR Yorks and WR Yorks

1 English: locative name alluding to a topographical feature recorded in the parish of Reeth in Swaledale (NR Yorks), the name of which is derived from Middle English blade, Old English blæd ‘blade, leaf’ in some transferred sense. The reference might be to blade-shaped pieces of ground, ledges, or terraces, as suggested in *Ekwall, DEP*N for the second element of the place-name Chesterblade (Somerset). However, Redmonds, Dictionary of Yorks Surnames notes that in the 13th century Blades in Swaledale was a vaccary, more likely it denoted (an area of) ‘grassland’, as suggested in Place-Names of Lincs, III, 137 and 140, to explain the lost minor place-name Gibbon’s Blades in Tealby, recorded as the Blades, 1630, and Close of pasture called the Blades, 1706. The medieval and post-medieval surname sometimes occurs in the singular form.

Early bearers: William de Blades, 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Reeth, NR Yorks); Roger del Blad, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (NR Yorks); Robert Blades, 1460 in York Freeman’s Register; James Blaydes, 1506 in York Freeman’s Register; Edy Blades, 1608 in IGI (York); Margaret Blades, 1647 in IGI (Crackpot, Grinton, NR Yorks); Adam Blaydes, 1671 in IGI (Otley, WR Yorks); Joseph Blades, 1677 in IGI (Drypool, ER Yorks); Richard Blades, 1728 in IGI (Sedburgh, NR Yorks); Elizabeth Blades, 1769 in IGI (Richmond, NR Yorks); Joshua Blades, 1828 in IGI (Dent, NR Yorks).
References: Kristensson, Topographical, p. 21; Lay Subsidy Roll 1332 for NR Yorks, TNA, MS E179/211/7a, m. 6.

2 English: variant of Blade with post-medieval excrescent -s. Hipperholme (WR Yorks), the earliest known location of the medieval Yorks surname Blade, is not far from Leeds, where Bla(i)des is recorded in the post-medieval period.

Early bearers: John Blades, 1609, Susanna Blades, 1701 in IGI (Leeds, WR Yorks).

3 English: locative name of uncertain origin. The Lincs name may belong here or with (1) or (2) above.
Further information: The 1230 Pipe Roll example could be a copyist’s error for Bladiston, a possible 13th-century form for Blaston (Leics); see Place-Names of Leics, 4, 13. It would then be irrelevant to the history of Blades.

Early bearers: Alan de Bladis, 1230 in Pipe Rolls (Leics); Hugh de Bladis, 1258 in Assize Rolls (Staffs); Willmus Blade, 1540 in IGI (Pickworth, Lincs); John Blaydes, 1571 in IGI (Whaplode, Lincs); Georg Blades, 1586, Mary Blades, 1759 in IGI (Mavis Enderby, Lincs); Henrie Blades, 1603, Elizabeth Blades, 1766, William Blades, 1816 in IGI (Boston, Lincs); Edward Blades, 1676, Catherine Blades, 1775 in IGI (Stamford, Lincs).

1 English: (i) nickname from Middle English blake (Old English blaca, from the definite (weak) form of blæc ‘black’), i. e. dark complexioned. See Black. Black- and Blake- frequently interchange in surnames. (ii) nickname from northern Middle English blak(e) (Old English blāc) ‘pale, wan’, but it was often confused with Old English blaca ‘black’, so that even in central and southern England the meaning of Blake is doubtful. (iii) the English name was taken to Ireland at an early date and established there in particular by Richard Caddell, nicknamed le blac, sheriff of Connacht in the early 14th century. It has been gaelicized as de Bláca.

Early bearers: England: Walter le Blake, 1167 in Pipe Rolls (Devon); Adam Blake, 1219 in Assize Rolls (Yorks); John Blake, 1539 in IGI (Barnstaple, Devon); Radulphus Blake, 1539 in IGI (Severn Stoke, Worcs); Thomas Blake, 1541 in IGI (Westminster, Middx); Wylliam Blake, 1541 in IGI (Rye, Sussex); Willm Blake, 1542 in IGI (Carshalton, Surrey).

1 English, Scottish: locative name from Blackley, north of Manchester (Lancs), or possibly in some instances from Blackley, in Elland (WR Yorks). The earliest spelling of the Lancs place-name is Blakeley (1282, 1322), apparently a compound of Old English blæc + leah ‘black clearing’ but the surname forms suggest either that there was an unrecorded place in Bury or Prestwich called Blakelaw ‘black hill’ (Old English hlāw) or that Blackley was also known as Blakelaw. Confusion between -law and -ley is not uncommon. The surname was confused with (and may also be a source of) Blakey.

Early bearers: England: Henricus Blacklegh’, 1381 in Poll Tax (Liverpool, Lancs); Alexander de Blaklaw, 1381 in Poll Tax (Tottington, in Bury, Lancs); Ricardus Blacolaw, 1381 in Poll Tax (Pilkington, in Prestwich with Oldham, Lancs); Willelmus de Blacolau, 1381 in Poll Tax (Prestwich, Lancs); John Blaklay, 1543 in York Freeman’s Register (York); Alys Blakeley, 1560 in IGI (Radcliffe, Lancs); Nicholas Blackley, 1566 in IGI (Oldham, Lancs); Margret Blakelawe, 1597 in IGI (Bury, Lancs); Johes. ## Blood

- Current frequencies: GB 1473, Ireland 92
- GB frequency 1881: 1188
- Main GB location 1881: Derbys, Staffs, and Leics
- Main Irish location 1847–64: Clare

English, Irish: (i) nickname for a blood-letter, based on the Middle English verb bloden 'to let blood'. The usual Middle English terms for this occupation were bloodletter or blooder, as in Uluric Blodleter, about 1095 in Bury Saint Edmunds Documents (Suffolk); Walter Blodleter, 1221 in Cotton Tiberius B ii (Norfolk); and Adam Blodyr, 1441 in York Guild Register. (ii) possibly also a nickname from Middle English blode 'blood', used as an oath (short for God's blood) but also as a term of address for a blood relative, as in: 'Now beth nought wroth, my blode, my nece' (Chaucer). It could also mean 'child, near relative' and 'someone as dear to one as one's own offspring'.

Further information: According to MacLysaght, the Irish family of this name came to Ireland (Clare) in the 16th century from Derbys, where they were originally ap Llwyd, but the Welsh origin is dubious because ap 'son (of)' does not generally appear before an adjectival form such as llwyd 'grey' (Lloyd). Early bearers: William Blod, 1256 in Assize Rolls (Northumb); John Blod, 1328 in London Letter Books E; Johanne Blod, 1379 in Poll Tax (Ledbury foreign, Herefs); William Blood, 1563, William Blud, 1624 in IGI (Dalbury, Derbys); Richard Bludd or Bloud, 1603 in PROB 11 (Newport Pagnell, Bucks).

Bluff

- Current frequencies: GB 292, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 89
- Main GB location 1881: scattered

English: (i) unexplained; possibly from the adjective bluff, which appears in English in the 17th cent. and may be of Dutch origin. (ii) possibly in some cases it represents Plough in a regional pronunciation /plʊf/, influenced by the adjective bluff.

Further information: Theoretically it might be a variant of Plow or Plough in a regional pronunciation /plʊf/, /plʌf/, or of Brough, with r/l interchange, either of which may have been influenced by the adjective bluff, but supportive evidence is lacking. The name is unlikely to have any etymological connection with bluff, which is probably a post-medieval loan word into English from Dutch.

Early bearers: John Bluff, 1739 in IGI (Gravesend, Kent); Arnald Bluff, 1744 in IGI (Mumby, Lincs); Benjamin Bluff, 1757 in IGI (Alveley, Shrops).

Bolter

Variants: Boulter, Bult, Bold

- Current frequencies: GB 2407, Ireland 28
- GB frequency 1881: 2151
- Main GB location 1881: Devon; also Shetland

English, Scottish: (i) nickname from Middle English, Old English bolt, ‘a bolt, bar’, also ‘a bundle’. One of the most common senses of this word was ‘the blunt-headed bolt of a crossbow’, so it could have been given to an archer or to a maker of iron bars or bolts. Compare John Boltsmith, 1346 in Fransson and the surname Bolter, although any connection of this last name with bolts is debatable; see Boulter. (ii) locative name, variant of Bold ‘dwelling-house’. This probably accounts for the strong presence of Bolt in post-medieval Lancs, Warwicks, and Devon. In Devon, Bold is well evidenced in the 1332 subsidy roll but Bolt not at all. Alternatively some or all of the Devon Bolts may be migrants from Dorset, where Bolt, but not Bold, is recorded in the medieval subsidy rolls. (iii) nickname; Bolt was also used metaphorically for a short, thickset, or tubby person and for someone who was physically upright as a bolt, i. e. ‘as straight as an arrow’. Compare the medieval surname Boltupright (e. g. Walter Boltuprith, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Warwicks); Henry Boltupryht, 1377 in Ancient Deeds, vol 2, p. 422). The surname may sometimes have developed to Bold, Bould.

Further information: A Middle English nickname from the sense ‘bundle’ may have been reinforced by Viking usage. Compare the Shetland dialect word bolt ‘fat, lumpy figure’. An Old Scandinavian nickname Boltr, presumably with the same sense, is attested in the NR Yorks place-name Boltby.

Early bearers: medieval: Godinc Bolt, 1086 in Cambs Inquisition (Cambs); Walter Bolt, 1202 in Curia Regis Rolls (Surrey); Roger Bolt, about 1248 in Bec Abbey Documents (Wilts); Willelmo Bolt, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Moreton, Dorset); Ricardo Bolt, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Milborne Saint Andrew, Dorset). post-medieval, SW England: Lawrance Bolt, 1589 in IGI (Antony, Cornwall); Rychard Boulter, 1591, George Bolt, 1685, in IGI (Bere Regis, Dorset); Elisabeth Bolt, 1593, Roger Bolte, 1623, Henry Bolt, 1701, 1835 in IGI (Exeter, Devon); William Boolt, 1774 in IGI (Falmouth, Cornwall).

post-medieval, W Midlands: Elizabetha Bolt, 1584, Jane Bolt, 1833 in IGI (Tanworth, Warwicks); Alexander Bolt, 1589 in IGI (Stone, Staffs); John Bolt, 1691, 1761 in IGI (Hattton, Warwicks); John Bolt, 1699 in IGI (Burton upon Trent, Staffs).

Variants: Bonde, Bound, Bound, Band, Bundy, Bonds

- Current frequencies: GB 20792, Ireland 624
  - GB frequency 1881: 15714
  - Main GB location 1881: widespread; esp. Lancs; Devon; Norfolk
  - Main Irish location 1847–64: Longford; Derry
- 1 English: status name from Middle English bond(e), bounde, occasionally bande 'bondman, customary tenant, serf' (from Old Scandinavian bóndi). Compare Newbon. This is the usual source of the modern surname but some of the following examples with no definite article may belong with (2).

Further information: This English surname has been established in Ireland since the early 14th century.

Early bearers: Norman le Bonde, 1180 in Pipe Rolls (Warwicks); William Bonde, 1185 in Templars Records (Warwicks); Robert Bunde, 1198 in Pipe Rolls (Beds); Henry le Bounde, 1297 in Earldom of Cornwall Accounts (Herts); Joh'e le Bonde, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Keyworth, Notts); William Bonde, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Bishop's Tawton, Devon); Johannes le Bonde, 1379 in Poll Tax (Lodsworth, Sussex); Willm Bond, 1538 in IGI (Laceby, Lincs); Joan Bond, 1539 in IGI (Great Waldingfield, Suffolk); Nicholas Bond, 1540 in IGI (Kenn, Devon); Thomas Bond, 1546 in IGI (Calne, Wilts); Jo. Bond, 1559 in IGI (Tatham, Lancs).

2 English: relationship name from the Middle English personal name Bonde (from Old Scandinavian Bóndi, Bóndi, Bundi, Bonde, from the word in (1), borrowed as late Old English Bonda). Although the name is distributed fairly widely in England in 1086, it often refers to a small number of high-ranking men. Only in medieval Norfolk and Suffolk does it seem to have been at all frequent amongst ordinary folk. The 1554 bearer below may alternatively belong with (1).

Early bearers: given names: Bundi, Bondi, Bunde, Bonde, 1086 in Domesday Book (Beds, Berks, Bucks, Gloucs, all referring to the same man, and Cambs, Dorset, Essex, Hants, Kent, Norfolk, Northants, Oxon, Somerset, Suffolk, Warwicks, Wilts, Yorks); Bonde mercer, about 1175 in Newark Documents (Notts); Bonde Brit, 1275 in Hundred Rolls (Norfolk).
surnames: Albertus filius Bund', 1199, filius Bonde, 1202 in Feet of Fines (Norfolk); Micael filius Bunde, 1203 in Pipe Rolls (Lancs); Henricus filius Bonde, 1210 in Curia Regis Rolls (Tatterset, Norfolk); Johannes Bond, 1554 in IGI (Bale, Norfolk).

References: Insley, Scand. Personal Names, pp. 98–107.
3 English: see Band, but Band may also be a variant of the name in (1).

Early bearers: Roberti Band, 1541, Johnes Bond, 1566 in IGI (Burton upon Trent, Staffs); Johna Bande, 1544, Thomas Bond, 1546 in IGI (Calne, Wilts); John Bond, 1547, Hugh Bande, 1557 in IGI (Barnstaple, Devon).

Further information: Reaney's derivation of the surname from Middle English bones 'bones' (interpreted as a nickname for an emaciated person) is erroneous. It relies on a single example, Alicia Bones, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk), where the final -s is genitival and means that Alice was the wife or widow of a man surnamed Bone. Such women's names did not generally become hereditary.

Boniface

Variants: Boniface, Bonifas

- Current frequencies: GB 1514, Ireland 5
- GB frequency 1881: 1069

- Main GB location 1881: Sussex
- English: (i) relationship name from the Middle English personal name Boniface (from Latin Bonifatius, a compound of bonum 'good' + fatum 'fate, destiny'). Confusion with Bonifacius ('well-doer') was due to the identical pronunciation in Late Latin of -ti- and -ci-. Bonifatius is frequent in Latin inscriptions, while Bonifacius is late and found only twice. In Latin the name was given chiefly to ecclesiastics, rarely to men of the lower orders, and Boniface was never very popular in England. In the IoW, its use was possibly encouraged by a cult of Saint Boniface at Bonchurch. (ii) perhaps sometimes a nickname from Anglo-Norman French bon enfas 'good child', with enfas as occasional nominative case for enfant, understood by clerks as if the saint's name. Compare Goodchild and Goodban.
Early bearers: given names: Bonifacius uinitor, 1193 in Pipe Rolls (Yorks); Bonifacius, 1208 in Curia Regis Rolls (Hants); Master Boniface de Saluciis, archdeacon of Buckingham, 1310 in Patent Rolls.

- GB frequency 1881: 32
- Main GB location 1881: Beds; Berks

English: locative name from Bottesford (Leics, Lincs).

Early bearers: John Botesforth, 1465 in Paston Letters.

Bott

Variants: Botts

- Current frequencies: GB 2665, Ireland 9

- GB frequency 1881: 2350
  - Main GB location 1881: Leics, Staffs, and Warwick; also Alderney
- English: (i) nickname from Old French bot 'toad'. (ii) relationship name from the Middle English personal name Botte (a survival of Old English Botta). Compare Botting and Boddison.

Further information: Tengvik, pp. 295–6, takes the Domesday Book name to represent an Old English **butt* 'butt, stump', but it is best interpreted in line with the other forms. The word bot(s) for a type of parasite does not appear in English till the 16th century and cannot be responsible for the surname. Early bearers: given names: Botte Buny, 1222 in Assize Rolls (Warwicks). surnames: Aldred, Ealdraed Bot, Alrebot [sic], 1086 in Domesday Book (Kent); Walter Botte, 1189 in Pipe Rolls (Oxon); Richard Bot, 1212 in Book of Fees (Hants); William Botte, 1214 in Curia Regis Rolls (Warwicks); Richard Botte, 1225 in Lewes Chartulary (Norfolk); Walter le Botte, 1279 in Hundred Rolls (Oxon); Alicia Botte, 1377 in Poll Tax (Northampton, Northants); Laurencius Bot, 1377 in Poll Tax (Harford, Devon); Willelmo Botte, 1379 in Poll Tax (Asfordby, Leics); Ricardus Botte, 1379 in Poll Tax (Shapwick, Somerset); Thomas Bott, 1379 in Poll Tax (Pollington, WR Yorks); Johannes Bot, 1379 in Poll Tax (Thurlaston, Warwicks); Roberto Bot, 1381 in Poll Tax (Cirencester, Gloucs); Johannes Botte, 1438 in Tutbury Cartulary (Osmaston by Ashbourne, Derbys); William Bott, 1558 in IGI (Birmingham, Warwicks); Dennis Bott, 1565 in IGI (Bromley, Kent); John Bott, 1568 in IGI (Rocester, Staffs); Ann Bott, 1578 in IGI (Boxgrove, Sussex); Willimi Bott, 1579 in IGI (Severn Stoke, Worcs); Frances Bot, 1584 in IGI (Milwich, Staffs).

  - Main GB location 1881: Yorks: esp. ER Yorks; Northants and Leics

1 Norman, English: locative name from Les Bottereaux (Eure, Normandy), a place-name which apparently meant 'the toads'. The surname is found in both a singular form Boterel and a plural form Boterels, Botereaus, which has developed to Buttress. Some of the post-medieval bearers may belong under (2).

Further information: The singular form could theoretically be a personal nickname from Old French boterel 'toad' but the genealogical evidence suggests that the true source of both singular and plural forms is the place-name. William Boterel of Boscastle (Cornwall) obtained Longden (Shrops) through marriage to Alice Corbet, aunt of Rainald earl of Cornwall, in the early 1100s. Their son William married Isabella de Say, lady of Clun (Shrops). Boscastle is called Boterelescastel in 1302. Aston Botterell (Shrops) was held in 1203 by William Boterell.

Early bearers: William boterel, de Boterell', 1130, 1178 in Pipe Rolls (Boscastle, Cornwall); Emma des Boterell', des Boteraus, 1197 in Pipe Rolls (Devon, Somerset), 1211 in Curia Regis Rolls (Devon, Somerset); William des Boterels, des Botereals, 1197–8 in Pipe Rolls (Shrops); Albreda Boterell', de Botereus, de Boterell', 1221 in Assize Rolls (Shrops), de Botereaus, 1226, de Boterels, 1242 in Book of Fees; William de Botereus, 1277 in Assize Rolls (Somerset, Devon, Somerset); Thomas Botterell, 1581, William Butterell, 1584 in IGI (Westow, ER Yorks); Raphe Botterill, 1587 in IGI (Anstey, Herts); Thomas Buttris, 1639 in Yorks Wills (Yorks); William Butterill, 1644 in IGI (Lincoln, Lincs).

References: Domesday Descendants, p. 182; Ekwall, DEPN, at Boscastle, Aston.

2 Norman, English: occupational name from Anglo-Norman French **boterel*, a diminutive form of Old French **boter* 'an officer who looks after the (wine) butts'. Both terms are derivatives of Old French butte, bote 'wine-butt, cask'.

Further information: Peter Boterel was the older brother of Hamo Boterel. They were the sons of Geoffrey Boterel, a Breton tenant of the earl of Richmond. Reginald Boterel was Peter's son. According to Reaney, Peter Boterel, 1127–47, was also known as Peter Boter, 1107–33 in Bec Abbey Documents, and was one of the Butery family, tenants of Ogbourne (Wilts). They presumably held a hereditary office of keeper of the buttery (Old French boterie 'wine store') and as such could be named in various ways. Other members of the family included Geoffrey Boter (1107–33), William Boterel (1122–47), James Butery, and William Buteri (about 1248). See Buttery.

Early bearers: Peter Boterel, 1127–47 in Bec Abbey Documents (Wilts); Hamo Boterel, about 1155 in Danelaw Documents (Lincs); Rannulf Boterel, 1198 in Pipe Rolls (Norfolk); Reginald Botterell, 1193 in Pipe Rolls (Yorks).

1 English: relationship name from the Middle English female personal name Botild (Old Scandinavian Bóthildr, Bothild, from bót 'remedy' + hildr 'battle, war'). Some of the post-medieval bearers may belong under (2) or (3).

Early bearers: Godwinus filius Botild, 1188 in Bury Saint Edmunds Kalendar (Suffolk); Johannes filius Botill', 1219 in Assize Rolls (Yorks); Adam Botild', 1221 in Assize Rolls (Gloucs); Richard Botyld, 1296 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Robert Bottle, 1554 in IGI (Saint Martin in the Fields, Middx); Cuthbert Bottyll, 1565 in Oxford University Register; Elizabeth Bottle, 1619 in IGI (Kennington, Kent); Thomas Buttle, 1632 in IGI (Thornton by Pocklington, ER Yorks); Esther Buttle, 1709 in IGI (Little Waltham, Essex); Anna Buttle, 1747, Anne Buttel, 1773 in IGI (Pitminster, Somerset).

2 English: locative name from Bothel (Cumb, Northumb) or a topographic name for someone who lived '(at the) hall or manor house', Middle English bot(e)l (Old English **bōþl*). The Sussex form without the definite article (repeated in other Sussex subsidy rolls) may have a different origin but no alternative etymology can be suggested.

Early bearers: Germano le Bothel, 1296 in Subsidy Rolls (Jevington, Sussex); Robert atte Bothele, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Somerset); John of Botill, 1401 in Assize Rolls (Lancs); James Buttle, 1558 in IGI (Tatham, Lancs).

1 English: perhaps a variant of Burcher (see Bircher). Some of the following early bearers may alternatively belong under (2). The name has sometimes been altered to or confused with Bouchier and Boucher.

Early bearers: Johan Bouchier, 1599 in IGI (Worcester, Worcs); John Bouchier, 1640 in IGI (East Barnet, Herts); Evereton Bouchier, 1688 in IGI (Devizes, Wilts); William Bouchier, 1701 in IGI (Hatherop, Gloucs); Thomas Bouchier, 1778 in IGI (Dulwich, Surrey); Charles Bouchier, 1791 in IGI (Sandridge, Herts).

2 Norman, English: locative name of uncertain origin but it is presumably from a French place-name, perhaps Boursières in Haute-Saône. The name was early confused with other surnames and may survive in Bouchier, Bowcher, Bowser, and Boozer. The surname gave rise to a number of minor place-names in Essex: Bouchier's alias Bouchier's Hall in Aldham, Bouchier's Hall in Messing; Bouchier's Grange in Great Coggeshall, Bouchiers Chapel in Tollesbury, Boarstye Fm and Bowser's Hall in Rivenhall (Essex), and Boose's Green in Colne Engayne.

Norman, English, Irish: (i) locative name from any of many places in N France named from Old French bois 'wood, grove' (Latinized as boscus), such as Bois-Arnault (Eure) and Bus-Saint-Rémy (Marne). Early examples with the definite article represent either the full form of the place-name as Le Bois (compare forms with del and du) or a substitution of le for de, not uncommon in Anglo-Norman surnames. The name was taken by the Normans from England to Ireland, where it was also adopted to anglicize Irish Ó Buadhaigh; see Bogue. (ii) variant pronunciation of Bush, influenced by the Old French word in (i) or else translated by it. Compare John Bussh alias Boys in Aldgate Cartulary (London).

Early bearers: England: William de Bosco, 1086 in Domesday Book (Suffolk); Nicholas del Bois, 1201 in Pipe Rolls (Lincs); Alexander le Bois, 1211 in Feet of Fines (New Town, Newbury, Berks); Alan de Boys, 1296 in Subsidy Rolls (East Harting, Sussex); Roger du Boys, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); John Boys, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Kingswear, Devon); Henry le Bois, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Selsey, Sussex); John de Boys, 1361 in Feet of Fines (Lincs); Guy de Boys, 1363 in Feet of Fines (Herts, Beds); John Boyse, 1396 in York Freeman's Register; Richard Boys, 1442 in Feet of Fines (Leics); Willm Boyce, 1547 in IGI (Claines, Worcs); Anna Boyce, 1615, Thomas Bois, 1617 in IGI (Birchington, Kent).

1 Scottish Gaelic: (i) locative name from Bòid (genitive case of Bòd, Gaelic name of the island of Bute) or Bòideach, denoting a person from Bute. (ii) relationship name; alternatively, the name may denote descendants of a Gilla filius Boed, who appears in reference to Glasgow Cathedral in the early 12th century (Glasgow Register), perhaps from the Gaelic personal name Boite, of uncertain origin. Further information: The family of Boyd first appears in Irvine in the Cunninghame region of Ayrshire in the 13th century. The geographical proximity of Irvine to the island of Bute makes this explanation possible, but the toponymic surname examples given by Black (using 'de') do not necessarily point to members of the family, meaning that sense 2, a nickname from Gaelic buidhe 'yellow-haired', is also possible.

Early bearers: Scotland: Robert Boyd, 1255 in Irvine Muniments (Irvine, Ayr); Robert dicti Boid, 1260–1309 in NRS (Gogo, Ayr); Robert Boyde, 1283–1306 in Scottish History Society Miscellany (Renfrew); Robert Boyt, 1296 in Scotland Calendar (Ayr); Robertus Boyd, 1309 in Acts of Parliaments of Scotland (Saint Andrews, Fife); Will. Andro Boyd, 1574 in IGI (Edinburgh, Midlothian); Thomas Boyd, 1579 in IGI (Kingham, Fife); James Boyd, 1580 in IGI (Perth, Perth); Elizabeth Boyd, 1590 in IGI (Stirling, Stirlings); Hector Boyd, 1600 in IGI (Prestonpans, E Lothian). Ireland: Archibald Boyde, Scotsman, 1618 in Irish Patent Rolls p. 339a (Carntulin, Antrim); Thomas Boyde, Scotchman, 1618 in Irish Patent Rolls p. 326a (Crownestown, Down). England: John Boyde, 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Yorks).

2 Scottish Gaelic, Irish: nickname from the epithet buidhe 'yellow(-haired)'. Compare Bowie.

3 Manx: from Mac Gille Buidhe 'son of the yellow-haired lad'. Compare McKelvey.

Early bearers: IOM: McOboy, 1511, McBooy, 1511, Boid, 1617 in Moore.

English, Irish: ethnic name for a native of the Duchy of Brabant (now in northern Belgium), Old French Brabançon, Anglo-Norman French Brabançon, Middle English Brab(a)son 'Brabanter'. Compare the synonymous surnames Brabin, Brabiner, and Bremner. For the vowel change in Brobson compare Brobin.

Further information: Medieval Brabant was widely known for two exports, its brutal mercenary soldiers and its linen cloth. In the 13th century parts of France were devastated by marauding gangs of armed Brabanters, and brabançon came to be used generically to denote a mercenary, hired assassin, or robber. Reaney, Dictionary and all subsequent surname dictionaries mistakenly derive the English surname from this sense. The true source of the surname is the presence in many English (and Irish) towns of Brabant cloth merchants.

English: ethnic name for a native of Brabant in the Low Countries (Old French Brabant, Middle English Braban, Brabayn, used to denote both the region and an inhabitant of it). See also the synonymous Brabazon and Brabiner.

Further information: In medieval England, Brabans were typically linen weavers and cloth merchants. The final syllable of Braban, when weakly stressed, was often altered to -ben-, -bin-, or -bon-, and also to -bam-, giving rise to the pseudo-locative form Brabham. The additional -t or -d in post-medieval Brabant, Braband, etc. is probably excrement, rather than a relic of the Old French form. The main vowel a was sometimes rounded to o (especially in Gloucs and Lancs), hence Brobin, etc.

Early bearers: E Midlands and E Anglia: Richard Braban, 1260 in Assize Rolls (Cams); Heliseus de Brabayn, 1275 in Hundred Rolls (Lincs); William Braban, 1560, Mary Braban, 1683, Lydia Brabbon, 1744 in IGI (Wingfield, Suffolk); Joshua Braben, 1575, Maria Brabant, 1590, Lettis Brebent, 1698, Elizabeth Brabone, 1708, Mary Brabben, 1732 in IGI (Norwich, Norfolk); Danyell Brabbin, 1584 in IGI (Fulbourn, Cams).

Welsh: locative name from Bryngwyn near Abergavenny (Monmouths), found as Brengwein in 1254, Brangweyne alias Bryngweine in 1313.

Further information: It does not appear, as is sometimes claimed, to be from the Welsh female personal name Branwen, Brangwain, from bran 'raven' and ((g)wen 'fair', though there are examples of this as a given name, probably deriving from its use in literature; Branwen, daughter of Llyr, is one of the legendary heroines of Wales, and in the Tristan legend Brangwain the Fair was the handmaid and companion of Queen Isolde.

Early bearers: given names: Brangwayna, 1250 in Feet of Fines (Suffolk).

surnames: Adam Brangwyne, 1283 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); however, John Brangweyn, 1292 in Morgan and Morgan (Abergavenny), pp. 55–6; Robert Brangwayn, 1300 in London Court Rolls; Willelmus Brangwayn, 1377 in Poll Tax (Colchester, Essex); John Brangwyn, 1557 in PROB 11 (Chard, Somerset); Robert Brangwine alias Brangwell or Brangwyn, 1610 in PROB 11 (Chilmark, Wilts).

Brehaut

- Current frequencies: GB 103, Ireland 12
- GB frequency 1881: 322
- Main GB location 1881: Guernsey; also Jersey and Alderney

French: locative name, possibly from one of two villages named Bréhant in Brittany: Bréhant-Moncontour (Côtes-d'Armor) or Bréhan-Loudéac (Morbihan); but there are difficulties with the spelling. Berhet (Côtes-d'Armor) may be a likelier candidate, with local reinterpretation of the final syllable as haut 'high'.

Further information: Local tradition says that this name came from Brittany, and that the traditional pronunciation is 'Berhaut'.

Early bearers: [ . . . ] Brehault, 1331 in Extente de Jersey (Torteval, Guernsey); Christine Brehaut, 1591 in IGI (Saint Andrews, Guernsey); Pierre Brehaut, 1685 in IGI (Torteval, Guernsey).

Broadway

Variants: Broadaway

- Current frequencies: GB 867, Ireland 4
- GB frequency 1881: 607
- Main GB location 1881: widespread in S England and W Midlands: esp. Middx; Warwicks and Oxon

English: locative name from Middle English brōd 'broad' + wei 'road' (Old English brād + weg). The name may be topographic, for someone who lived by a broad road, or more often toponymic, for someone from a place so named, such as Broadway (Worcs, Somerset). Compare Bradway.

Further information: There is also a place called Broadwey in Dorset, 'the broad manor on the River Wey', but it is unlikely to be the source of the modern surname.

Early bearers: Hugh del Brodweye, 1276 in Hundred Rolls (Cambs); John de Bradeweje, 1285 in Patent Rolls (Gloucs); Philippus Bradewey, 1381 in Poll Tax (Hidcote Bartrim, Gloucs); Richarde Broadwaie alias Broadway, 1619 in PROB 11 (Morville, Shrops);

Broadwell

Bartholomew Broadway, 1677 in IGI (Rowington, Warwicks); Thomas Broadaway, 1706 in IGI (Binfield, Berks).

Broadwell

Variants: Broddle, Brodell

- Current frequencies: GB 141, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 109
- Main GB location 1881: Leics; ER Yorks

English: locative name presumably from one or other of several places named Broadwell, though the post-medieval distribution is mostly well away from SW England, where such place-names occur (Warwicks, Oxon, Gloucs). Compare the synonymous Bradwell and Braddie. Philip de Bradwell, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Coleby, in Kesteven, Lincs) hints at a place so named in Lincs but it has not been identified.

Early bearers: Robart Brodwell, 1566 in IGI (Barrow on Humber, Lincs); Michael Broadwell, 1619 in IGI (Wrawby, Lincs); George Brodwell, 1632, John Broadwell, 1674 in IGI (Saddington, Leics); Thomas Broddill, 1687 in IGI (Grinton, NR Yorks); Henry Broadwell, 1743 in IGI (Ottringham, ER Yorks); John Broadall, 1762 in IGI (Shearsby, Leics); Elizabeth Broddel, 1780 in IGI (Faldingworth, Lincs); Elizabeth Brodell, 1780 in IGI (Tetford, Lincs); Thos Broddle, 1792 in IGI (Gayton le Marsh, Lincs); John Broadell, 1801 in IGI (Leire, Leics).

Broadwith

Variants: Broadwood

- Current frequencies: GB 86, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 65
- Main GB location 1881: NE England: esp. NR Yorks; Roxburghs

English: locative name from Braywith, in Knayton (NR Yorks) or Braworth, in Hutton Rudby (NR Yorks), both deriving from Middle English Braythwath 'broad ford'. The later form of the name may have been confused with or influenced by Broadwood.

Early bearers: Ffham Bradwith, 1594 in IGI (Burneston, NR Yorks); John Broadwith, 1712 in IGI (Middleham, NR Yorks); Elizabeth Broadwith, 1733 in IGI (Aldborough, WR Yorks); Marmaduke Brodwith, 1770 in IGI (Cundall, NR Yorks).

Broadwood

- Current frequencies: GB 54, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 76
- Main GB location 1881: SE England; also Durham; Midlothian

English: locative name from Middle English brad + wode (Old English brād + wudu), from one or more of the various places named as 'the broad wood', such as Broadwood in Stanhope (Durham), Broadwood Farm in Carhampton (Somerset), Broadwood Kelly and Broadwoodwidge (both Devon). The name in NE England and SE Scotland may have been confused with Broadwith.

Early bearers: Walter de Brodwode, 1274 in Hundred Rolls (Somerset); Clementis Bradwood, 1581 in IGI (Chesterfield, Derbys); Henry Bradwood, 1671 in IGI (Carlisle, Cumb); Alice Broadwood, 1674 in IGI (Allendale, Northumb); John Broadwood, 1687 in IGI (Innerwick, E Lothian); Bazill Broadwood, 1693 in IGI (Wantage, Berks).

References: Durham Place-Names, p. 18; Place-Names of Devon, pp. 136, 179.

Broady

Variants: Bredy, Broadie, Braddy

- Current frequencies: GB 395, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 257
- Main GB location 1881: Cheshire and Lancs

English: locative name from Middle English brōd 'broad' + ie 'island' (Old English ēg) or hegh 'enclosure' (Old English (ge)hæg).

Further information: The notion that this is a nickname for someone with broad eyes is unlikely; examples that appear to support this explanation are more likely to be early examples of folk etymology.

Early bearers: Roger Bradeie, Bradege, Brodege, 1170, 1184, 1200 in Oseney Cartulary (Oxon); Geoffrey Bradege, 1188 in Pipe Rolls (Kent); Walter Bradeye, 1243 in Assize Rolls (Durham); Simon Brodheghe, 1247 in Assize Rolls (Beds); Robert Brody, 1275 in Hundred Rolls (Notts); William Brodeie, 1279 in Hundred Rolls (Cams); Agatha de Brodheghe, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); Edwardus Broadey, 1615 in IGI (Sandbach, Cheshire); Johannis Broady, 1668 in IGI (Alvaston, Derbys); Beniamin Broady, 1671, Mottershead Brodey, 1685 in IGI (Goostrey cum Barnshaw, Cheshire); Thomas Broady, 1687 in IGI (Norwich, Norfolk); Mary Broady, 1700 in IGI (Saint Martin in the Fields, Middx).

Broatch

Variants: Broach

- Current frequencies: GB 236, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 161
- Main GB location 1881: Dumfriess and Cumb

1 Scottish: locative name from Broats in Kirkpatrick-Fleming (Dumfriess).

Early bearers: James Broatch, 1628 in Dumfriess Testaments (Dumfriess); Mary Broach, 1712 in Torphichen Records (Torphichen, W Lothian); John Broatch, 1774 in IGI (Kirkpatrick-Fleming, Dumfriess).

2 English: nickname from Middle English bro(u)che 'pointed weapon or instrument; clasp, brooch, pin', perhaps for one who made or sold such items.

Compare Ralph Brocher, 1222 in Feet of Fines (Suffolk); John Brocher, Roger le Brochere, 1281 in London Letter Books B. Compare William Bruchemaker, 1381 in Yorks Poll Tax and William ploghbrocher, 1281 in Fransson (Lincs), probably a maker of ploughshares.

Brobbin

- Current frequencies: GB 73, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 57
- Main GB location 1881: Lancs

English: see Brobin.

Brobin

Variants: Brobyn, Brobbin

- Current frequencies: GB 27, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 28
- Main GB location 1881: Gloucs; Lancs

English: variant of Brabin (Middle English Braban 'native of Brabant'), as illustrated in the alternative forms of the Gloucs and Lancs family names given below. Also compare Brobson for Brabazon.

Further information: The suggestion in some dictionaries that Brobin, Brobyn, and Brobbin are variants of Welsh Probyn is not supported by the surname evidence and is phonetically improbable, since Welsh ab regularly becomes ap before R-, hence Probyn.

Early bearers: SW England: Samuel Braben, 1589, Mary Broben, 1663, Mary Daw Brobem, 1766, Ester Braben, 1778, Joana Broban, 1780, Martha Brobyn, 1819, Henry Brobden, 1841 in IGI (Westbury on Severn, Gloucs).

NW England: Anne Brobine, 1617, William Brabin, 1629, Joseph Brobin, 1753, Geo. Brabbin, 1787, Jane Brobbin, 1870 in IGI (Bolton le Moors, Lancs); John Brobin, 1628, Thomas Brobin, 1712, William Brabin, 1781, Peter Broben, 1783 in IGI (Leigh, Lancs).

Brobson

- Current frequencies: GB 26, Ireland 0

Brocas

Variants: Broca

- Current frequencies: GB 23, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 24
- Main GB location 1881: Lanarks; London

1 Scottish, English: see Brookhouse.

Early bearers: John Brocas, 1337–8 in Feet of Fines (Surrey); Arnold Brokas, 1399–1400 in Inquisitiones post Mortem (Yorks); William Brockas, 1642 in Protestation Returns (Devon).

2 French: locative name from Brocas in Les Landes, SW France.

Early bearers: Abisha Brocas, 1657 in IGI (Exeter, Devon).

Further information: This may be a Huguenot name.

Brock

Variants: Brocks

- Current frequencies: GB 4623, Ireland 181
- GB frequency 1881: 3472
- Main GB location 1881: widespread in England; esp. Devon; Norfolk; also central Scotland: esp. Lanarks
- Main Irish location 1847–64: E Connacht and N Leinster

1 English: nickname from Middle English brok(ke) 'badger' (Old English brocc). From about 1400 brock is often used with the epithet stinking and in the 16th century meant 'a stinking or dirty fellow' (Ekwall, ELPN).

Further information: Reaney's alternative suggestion that it may sometimes be a nickname from Old French broque, brocke 'young stag', is theoretically possible but there is no evidence for the word in Middle English except in a diminutive form (see Brockett). There is no evidence to suggest a Scottish derivation from the place called Brock in E Lothian; Scottish early bearers are more likely to be the Middle English nickname above.

Early bearers: England: Ralph Broc, 1119 in Colchester Cartulary (Essex); Joel le Broc, 1222 in Patent Rolls (Devon); Richard Brock, 1275 in Subsidy Rolls (Worcs); Edward Brock, 1555 in IGI (Dartington, Devon); Thomas Brock, 1556 in IGI (Crowle, Worcs); Robert Brock, 1558 in IGI (Dewsbury, WR Yorks); Laurence Brock, 1561 in IGI (Walkern, Herts); Margaret Brock, 1567 in IGI (Holton by Halesworth, Suffolk).

Scotland: Henry Brok, 1328 in Papal Letters (Dunkeld, Perth); Alexander Broik, 1539 in Exchequer Rolls of Scotland (Ardmannoch, Kirkcudbright); Christian Brock, 1625 in Saint Andrews Kirk Session (Edzell, Angus).

2 English: variant of Brook.

  - GB frequency 1881: 730
  - Main GB location 1881: Cumb, Westm, and Lancs; ER Yorks and Lincs
- English: locative name from Brocklebank in Westward (Cumb). The name had presumably migrated to Suffolk and Essex by the 16th century. In

N England it may have been confused with

Brockbank, see Brooksbank.

Early bearers: William Brokelbank, 1443 in Yorkshire Archaeological Journal 30, p. 58 (Corney, Cumb); William Brokilbanke, 1515 in York Registry Wills (Anlaby, ER Yorks); Nicholas Brikilbank, 1524 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); William Brokylbanke, 1532, Nicholas Brykelbank, 1546 in Feet of Fines (Essex); Thomas Brokilbanke, 1540 in York Registry Wills (Swanland, ER Yorks); Leonard brokelbank, 1571 in Yorks Title Deeds (Yorks); Hugo Brittlebank, 1607 in IGI (Sheffield, WR Yorks); James Brocklebank, 1630 in IGI (Torver, Lancs); Ralph Brocklebanke, 1645 in York Freeman’s Register (York); James Brokelbanke, 1674 in Cumbria Record Office (Kendal); Willm. - English: locative name from Middle English brok 'stream' + wei 'road, way', for someone who lived '(by the) road near the brook'. The name may refer to a lost or as yet unidentified place.
- Early bearers: Walter de Brokweye, 1255 in Hundred Rolls (Wilts); William Brockway, 1588 in PROB 11 (Donhead Saint Mary, Wilts); John Brockway, 1663 in IGI (Reading, Berks).

Brockwell

- Current frequencies: GB 806, Ireland 2
- GB frequency 1881: 574
- Main GB location 1881: Surrey, Middx, and Herts; Suffolk

English: locative name from Brockwell in Wootton Courtenay (Somerset).

Further information: There may have been other places so called; note for instance 'a well called Brocwell, in Middelton by Lynn' (Norfolk), 1293 in Patent Rolls. Brockwell Park in Lambeth (Surrey) may be one more such possibility, but its age and origin are not known. There is a reference to 'Brockwell in Brodeclust [Broadclyst]', 1599 in Devon Record Office, which is normally Brockhill; this suggests that some instances of the surname could be from this place-name.

Early bearers: Walter de Brocwell, 1298 in Inquisitiones post Mortem (Gloucs); John Brokewell, 1542 in Subsidy Rolls (Devon); Anthonie Brockwell, 1569 in IGI (Southam, Warwicks); George Brockwell, 1594 in PROB 11 (Culmstock, Devon).

- GB frequency 1881: 989
- Main GB location 1881: N England: esp. Lancs
- Main Irish location 1847–64: S Ireland: esp. Galway

1 English: (i) locative name perhaps from Middle English brad (Old English brād) 'broad' + northern Middle English rigg (Old English hrycg) 'ridge of land'. The 1301 reference suggests that the source would be an unidentified locality near Reeth in upper Swaledale (NR Yorks). (ii) nickname from Middle English brad + rigg, denoting someone with a broad back. Compare the synonymous Lincs nickname Brathebak', 1327 (first element in a Scandinavian form), Bradbak', 1332 in Jönsjö, Nicknames, p. 62.

Further information: The -a- in Bradrigg was often pronounced long, as indicated in Braydrigge (1656). Through the influence of Standard English broad it came to be altered to Broadrigg, Brodrigg and Broderick. In WR Yorks it appears as Bredrick and Bretherick (with a shortened form of the -ay- vowel), side by side with Broderick and Brotherick. For similar names see Bradridge and Brotheridge.

Early bearers: William Bradrigg, 1301 in Subsidy Rolls (Reeth, Swaledale, NR Yorks); Thomas Bradryge, 1470 in York Freeman's Register; Simon Bradrigge, 1539 in Rievaulx Cartulary (Oxnop, Swaledale, NR Yorks); Tho. Bretherick, 1617, Anthony Bredericke, 1634, Bethel Brodericke, 1664 in IGI (Leeds, WR Yorks); Mgt. Brodrigg, 1639, Mgrt. Bradrike, 1642, Geo Bradrick, 1694, Wm. Brodrick, 1763 in IGI (Muker, Swaledale, NR Yorks); John Broadrig, 1655, Christopher Bradrig, 1660, Ann Broderick, 1793 in IGI (Whitby, NR Yorks); Edward Brederike, 1656 in IGI (Upholland, Lancs); Sara Bretherick, 1669, Grace Brotherick, 1709 in IGI (Armley, WR Yorks); Elizabeth Brodrick, 1756 in IGI (Preston, Lancs).

References: Redmonds, Surnames and Genealogy, p. 221; Redmonds, Dictionary of Yorks Surnames.

2 Irish: adopted for Ó Bruadair (see Brouder). Irish migrants brought the name to Bristol in the late 18th century. By the 19th century it had become an additional source of Broderick in Lancs and was the only source of the name in S Wales.

Further information: Some dictionaries suppose that Broderick is a Welsh patronymic, ab + Rhydderch (anglicized as Roderick). There is no biographical evidence for this (it is an Irish family name in Wales) and, as Morgan and Morgan point out, it is phonetically improbable since ab before the voiceless Welsh R- regularly becomes ap (see Prothero). Morgan and Morgan wonder if there might be parallels for this irregular sound change in Brobbin, if for Probyn, and in Brothero(e), if for Prothero, but these are English names of quite different origins; see Brobin, Brothwood.

Early bearers: Ireland: Chas. Broderick, 1791 in IGI (Middleton, Cork); Patrick Broderick, 1827 in IGI (Cork); John Broderick, 1818 in IGI (Galway). England: Richardus Broadrick, 1781 in IGI (Bristol, Gloucs); Bridget Broderick, born in Ireland, in

Census 1841 (Liverpool, Lancs); John Broderick, born in Ireland, in Census 1841 (Bristol, Gloucs); Thos Broderick, born in Ireland, in Census 1841 (Chelsea, Middx); Thomas Broderick, born in Ireland, in Census 1881 (Manchester, Lancs).

Wales: William Broderick, 1826 in IGI (Holywell, Flints); John Broderick, born in Cork, Ireland, in Census 1881 (Merthyr Tydfil, Glamorgan); Michael Broderick, born in Ireland, in Census 1881 (Llantrisant, Glamorgan).

- GB frequency 1881: 28976
- Main GB location 1881: widespread in England: esp. Lancs
- Main Irish location 1847–64: widespread: esp. Roscommon; Clare

English: usually a variant of Brook with excrescent -s. The optional addition of -s, with no grammatical function, is usually post-medieval, but some examples of the same person’s name occurring with and without -(e)s have been noted as early as the 14th century in S Lancs. The -es in such cases probably has neither a plural nor a genitival function, and the name means ‘dweller at the brook’, not ‘dweller at the brooks’. A plural sense cannot be ruled out elsewhere (as in the medieval Worcs example below), but a non-grammatical -(e)s must also be considered a strong possibility.

Further information: see Surnames of Lancs, pp. 208–10, for further 14th-century Lancs examples of persons whose locative names sometimes occur with and sometimes without final -es.

Early bearers: Robert del Brok, 1324, identical with Robert del Brokes, 1325 in Lancs Court Rolls; William del Brokes, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Lancs); John Bethebrokes, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Worcs); Thomas Brooks, 1545 in IGI (Derby, Derbys); William Brooks, 1560 in IGI (Stratford upon Avon, Warwicks); Richard Brooks, 1562 in IGI (Winwick, Hunts); Susannah Brooks, 1570 in IGI (Leicester, Leics).

Variants: Brookbank, Brockbank, Brookbanks

- Current frequencies: GB 1114, Ireland 1
- GB frequency 1881: 979
- Main GB location 1881: Yorks

English: locative name from Middle English brook(e) ‘stream, brook’ + bank(e) ‘ridge, slope, bank’, for someone who lived by the bank of a brook. The name may be toponymic rather than topographic, and Redmonds, Dictionary of Yorks Surnames suggests that the source may be a lost place in the vicinity of Warley (WR Yorks). It may also have been confused with Brocklebank.

Early bearers: Thomas Brokesbank’, 1379 in Poll Tax (Warley, WR Yorks); John Brookebancke or Broockbanck, 1591 in PROB 11 (London); Johes. ### Broomhall

Variants: Broomall, Bromhall

- Current frequencies: GB 724, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 405
- Main GB location 1881: Staffs

English: (i) locative name from Broomhall (Cheshire), Broomhall Grange in Tyrley and Broom Hall Farm in Brewood (both Staffs), Broomhall Farms in Kempsey (Worcs), or Broomhall in Sunningdale (Berks, formerly in Windlesham in Surrey). The place-name is from Old English brōm + halh 'secluded place overgrown with broom'. (ii) locative name, variant of the similar Cheshire name Bramhall, which also has early forms in -o-. (iii) locative name, variant of Brumell, which has an identical etymology to that in (i) and (ii) but has a different distribution. Compare Thomas Brumell, 1603, John Broomhall, 1679 in IGI (Winston, Durham). (iv) locative name, perhaps an occasional variant of Bromwell, with which the name in (i) may have been confused.

Early bearers: Matthew de Bromhale, 1182 in Pipe Rolls (Cheshire); Rudulphi Bromell, 1601 in IGI (Dilthorne, Staffs); Katherina Broomhall, 1608 in IGI (Barthomley, Cheshire); Richardi Broomhall, 1621 in IGI (Barthomley, Cheshire); Wm Broomhall, 1639 in IGI (Prees, Shrops); Mary Broomhall, 1682 in IGI (Chaddesley Corbett, Worcs).

Brotheridge

- Current frequencies: GB 165, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 128
- Main GB location 1881: Gloucs; also Worcs

1 English: locative name from Brotheridge in Cranham (Gloucs).

Further information: Brotheridge Green in Upton on Severn (Worcs) is not likely to be the source, since it is a late place-name, probably derived from the surname of a tenant farmer. Compare Broderick. The surname is also found in 19th-century Shrops and Monmouths. There is no evidence to support the suggestion in Morgan and Morgan that it could be a variant of Welsh Prothero; this, as the Morgans point out, would involve an unlikely phonetic development.

Early bearers: Hugo de Braderugg’, 1275 in Subsidy Rolls (Worcs); Nicholas Braderugge, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Cranham, Gloucs); Ricard Braderugge, 1381 in Poll Tax (Cranham, Gloucs); Robart Brotheridge, 1648 in IGI (Castlemorton, Worcs); John Brotheridge, 1730 in IGI (Ashchurch, Gloucs); Joseph Brotheridg, 1777, James Brotheridge, 1837 in IGI (Upton on Severn, Worcs).

Norman, Breton, English: relationship name from the Celtic personal name Brian (from **brigo-* 'high' + the suffix *-ant-) with excrescent -t. Breton bearers of this name were among the Normans who invaded England in 1066. They went on to settle in Ireland in the 12th century, where the name mingled with the native Irish form Briain (see O'Brien). The latter had also been borrowed, as Brján, by the Vikings, who introduced it independently into north-western England before the Norman Conquest.

Early bearers: given names: Briendus de Scal, 1086 in Cambis Inquisition; Brien, 1088 in Staffs Chartulary; Brien, 1114–19 in Bury Saint Edmunds Documents (Suffolk); Brient, 1130 in Pipe Rolls (Wilts); Brianus filius Radulfi, 1207 in Curia Regis Rolls (Surrey); Brianus filius Alani, 1207 in Curia Regis Rolls (Yorks).

Norman, English: relationship name from the Old French personal name Brice, probably Celtic (Gaulish) in origin but not firmly explained, which was latinized as Bricius. It became popular in France through the cult of the 5th-century Saint Brice, successor of Saint Martin as Bishop of Tours, and was introduced to England and Scotland by the Normans. See also Bryson.

Early bearers: given names: Bricius de Kyrkebi, 12th cent. in Danelaw Documents (Lincs); Bricius judex, 1189–95 in Arbroath Register (Abernethy, Perth); Brice, 1208 in Curia Regis Rolls (Yorks).

- Main GB location 1881: SW Scotland; also Lancs

1 Scottish: locative name of uncertain origin; apparently from a lost place-name, presumably somewhere in Scotland.

Further information: The speculation that this name may be an anglicized form of Gaelic **Ó Bruidín* is not borne out by evidence of early bearers. According to Kneen, Ó Bruidín gives Manx Brideen, which may subsequently have become Cregeen and perhaps Bridson.

Reaney's speculation that it may be an occupational nickname for a bridle-maker, from Old French bridon 'bridle', is likewise unsupported by any relevant evidence.

Early bearers: Philippe de Briden of Roxburghshire, 1296 in Scotland Calendar; John Bridin, 1527 in Maxwells of Pollok (Glasgow, Lanarks); John Bridynne, 1548 in Glasgow Saint Mary Liber (Glasgow, Lanarks); William Brydane, 1590 in Privy Council of Scotland Register (Selkirk, Selkirks); Alexander Bryden, 1677 in IGI (Kilmarnock, Ayr).

- Main GB location 1881: widespread in Scotland

Scottish: relationship name from the female personal name Bridie, a pet form of Scots Bride, which represents the Gaelic goddess-name Brigid, of uncertain origin.

Further information: Brid(i)e may also be used as a pet form of Bridget, an anglicized version of the spelling Brigid, or perhaps of Brigitta, the latinized version of the name of Saint Birgit of Sweden, whose cult was widespread in the Middle Ages and whose name originates in the Gaelic name above.

Early bearers: Andrew Brydie, 1635 in Privy Council of Scotland Register (Newburgh, Fife); William Brydie, 1674 in Hunter, Dunkeld (Dungarhill, Perth); Helen Briddie, 1703 in IGI (Wemyss, Fife); Anne Briddy, 1743 in IGI (Blairgowrie, Perth).

- 1 English: nickname from Middle English bokel 'buckle', given to someone who wore a distinctive buckle or who was a buckle maker. Compare Buckler.

Early bearers: John Bokele, 1296, William Bokele, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Ashurst in West Grinstead, Sussex); Wymark Bokel, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); John Bukle, 1524 in Subsidy Rolls (Suffolk); John Buckell, 1540 in IGI (Aldborough, WR Yorks); George Buckle, 1553 in IGI (Saxton in Elmet, WR Yorks); Henryr Buckle, 1560 in IGI (Lavenham, Suffolk); John Buckles, 1596 in IGI (Bardney, Lincs); Edward Buckles, 1753 in IGI (Henley, Suffolk).

2 English: (i) locative name from Buckwell (in Ashburnham, Sussex), recorded in Middle English as Bokholt, which was later reduced to Buckle and then by hypercorrection re-formed as Buckwell, perhaps under the influence of the Kent place-name Buckwell. The Sussex family name from this source may have been confused with that in (i). It is possible, for example, that Simon Bokel, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Lewes, Sussex) was an ancestor of John Buckhold, 1607, and Nathaniel Buckoll, 1719 in IGI (Lewes, Sussex). (ii) locative name, reduced form of Buckwell in Kent. Compare Richard de Bocwell, 1248 in Feet of Fines (Kent).

Bucktrout

- Current frequencies: GB 107, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 80

• Main GB location 1881: WR Yorks; Guernsey English: nickname from Middle English bukke ‘male of the fallow deer’ + a word trout, perhaps related to Old French trout (a cry used to urge on hunting dogs) or to the verb troat, trout ‘(of the fallow buck) to bellow at rutting-time’. Compare the definition in Cotgrave’s Dictionary of French and English Tongues (1611): ‘Réer, Rere, to bellow as a Stag, to trout as a Buck.’ However, this is the earliest known use of the verb and there is no evidence for its use as a noun. Bardsley explains it as a compound of Middle English bukke ‘male (of the fallow deer)’ + trout ‘trout’, denoting the male of the fish, but this seems a strange coinage and is unconvincing.

Early bearers: John Bucketrout, 1301 in Yorks Deeds (Ilkley, WR Yorks); John Bucketrout, 1304 in Pudsay Deeds (Masham, NR Yorks); Joh. Bucrut, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Yorks); Joh. - GB frequency 1881: 321
- Main GB location 1881: Dorset; also Somerset
- Main Irish location 1847–64: Galway

1 English: (i) occupational name from Middle English **bugler* ‘one who blows an ox horn’, an unrecorded derivative of Middle English (Old French) bugle ‘wild ox’, also ‘ox horn’ used as a drinking vessel or for blowing in battle or in a hunt. Compare Bugle, which also appears early in Dorset. (ii) alternatively, a variant of Buckler with voicing of /k/ to /g/. MED records that Pluscularii ‘buckle-makers’ is rendered in English as bogelers in a 15th-century Latin-English glossary. Bugler and Buckler appear in the same Dorset parishes, and are presumably variants of the same family name, but Buckler could equally well be a variant of Bugler in (i) with unvoicing of /g/.

Further information: This strongly west Dorset name, with a long history in Ryme Intrinseca, may today be pronounced /bju:glə(r)/. Wilson erroneously regarded it as a derivative of the place-name Bugley (Dorset or Wilts).

Early bearers: Willelmo Bugler, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Ryme Intrinseca, Dorset); Walter Bugler, 1603, Andrew Buglar, 1668, James Buckler, 1741, Louisa Buglear, 1813 in IGI (Beaminster, Dorset); William Bugler, 1763 in IGI (Chard, Somerset); Thomas Buckler, 1785, Thomas Buggler, 1798 in IGI (Fordington, Dorset); William Bugler, 1782, Charles Buckler, 1840, Ellis Bugler or Buckler, 1845 in IGI (Ryme Intrinseca, Dorset).

2 Irish: in Ireland, this is probably a metathesized variant of Bulger; see Bolger.

Buhagiar

Bultitude

Variants: Butter, Butters

- Current frequencies: GB 239, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 133
- Main GB location 1881: Norfolk and Suffolk

1 Norman: nickname from Anglo-Norman French bote torte 'twisted boot' (bote 'boot' + torte 'twisted (fem. )'). It sometimes appears with de as if an aristocratic locative surname, but this is a later addition. The intrusive l in the modern name seems to be a 17th-century alteration. Botetourt County, Virginia, USA, named from the English noble title, is repeatedly mis-written as Boltetourt. This and the change of -tourt to -tout and -tude may have been influenced by mistaken association with Buletout in (2). The two names have become thoroughly confused in early-modern times. There has also been occasional substitution of -toft or -taft for -tute and -tude.

Further information: Normans surnamed Butetorte are associated with the counts of Eu and the lords of Moulins-la-Marche in early 12th-century Normandy. John de Botetourte, 1st Lord Botetourte, was governor of Framlingham Castle, Suffolk, in 1304. The baronial title of Botetourt passed through the Berkeley family of Gloucs, and it is possible that Bultitude and its extinct variants descend from a junior line remaining in E Anglia.

Early bearers: Pincun Botetorte, about 1160 in Pipe Rolls (Norfolk); Ansfrid Botetorte, 1185 in Pipe Rolls (Bucks); Guy (de) Botetourt, 1274–5 in VCH (Cantley, Norfolk); John de Buteturte, 1308 in TNA; Johanne Botetourte, 1309 in Subsidy Rolls (Cardington, Beds); Thomas Botetourte, parson of Tivetshall (Norfolk), 1312 in TNA; John Botetourte, 1319 in Suffolk Record Office (Ipswich); [various] Botetourte, Butetourt, Buttetourt, 1327–8 in Close Rolls; Matilda de Botitourte, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Belchamp Walter and Gestingthorpe, Essex); John Bottourt, Buttetourt, 1366–71 in Birmingham Archives; John Bottetourt, 1494 in Birmingham Archives (historical reference to an earlier John); Richard Bultetout of Moulton, 1650 in Muster Rolls (Norfolk); Johannes Bultetout, 1651 in IGI (Hemblington, Norfolk); Abrahamus Bultetout, 1714 in IGI (Frostenden, Suffolk); Joseph Bultitude, 1735, John Bultitout, 1738 in IGI (Chedgrave, Norfolk); James Bultetaft, 1738, John Bultotaft, 1741, John Bultotoft, 1744 in IGI (Shouldham, Norfolk); Abraham Bultitude, 1813 in IGI (Eye, Suffolk); John Boltitude, 1821 in IGI (Norwich, Norfolk).

2 English: nickname perhaps from Middle English bule (Old English **bula*) 'bull' + Middle English toute 'buttocks, rump', though the -i- in some early forms is puzzling. From the 17th century at least, Buletout seems to have been confused in E Anglia and Essex with Botetorte, so some of the following post-medieval bearers may belong under (i) and vice versa.

Early bearers: Reginaldus Bulitute, 1202, Reginaldo Buletut, 1204 in Pipe Rolls (Notts); Hugh Bulitot, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Shoreham borough, Sussex); John Bolytowte, carpenter, of Melton Parva, 1557 in Norfolk Record Office; John Bulletout, 1609 in IGI (Ashdon, Essex); Johis Bulletout, 1614, Margaret Bullitaft, 1656 in IGI (Horningtoft, Norfolk); Margaret Bulletout, 1620 in IGI (South Walsham, Norfolk); John Bulletout, 1698 in IGI (Tostock, Suffolk); Sarah Bulletaft, 1725 in IGI (Reepham with Kerdiston, Norfolk); Susan Bulletout, 1734 in IGI (Eye, Suffolk); Bridget Bulletout, 1746 in IGI (Bury Saint Edmunds, Suffolk); William Bullitof, 1709, Richard Bulletaft, 1783, William Bullitude, 1785, George Frederick Bulletoft, 1826 in IGI (Norwich, Norfolk).

1 Norman, English: relationship name from a diminutive of the Continental Germanic personal name Burdo, for which compare Burdett. Burdonus and other derivatives of the Gaulish personal name Burdo ('mule') are found in France, but it is rare there and the similar French surname may derive instead from Old French bourdon in the sense 'pilgrim's staff' (compare the Huguenot sense of Bourdon). The personal name, whether of Germanic or Gaulish origin, does occur in medieval England, but rarely. Suffixally distinct early variants Burdin and Burdon are both found in early sources; the former is rare but the latter very common. The two may well have been confused, but both survive as surnames, though not necessarily in distinct family traditions. Some bearers may belong under (2) or (3). The names in this cluster may also, in S England, have been confused with Borden.

Early bearers: England: Arnulf Burdin, 1115 in Winton Domesday (Hants); Ralph Burdun, 1128–9 in Saint Benet of Holme Register (Norfolk); Ilger Burdun, 1166 in Pipe Rolls (Yorks); Hamo filius Burdun, 1166 in Red Book of the Exchequer (Norfolk); Bruni Burdin, 1180 in Pipe Rolls (Bucks); Thomas Burdoune, 1377 in Poll Tax (Winkburn, Notts); Johannes Bourdon, 1379 in Poll Tax (Salisbury, Wilts); Izabella Burdon, 1379 in Poll Tax (Snaith, WR Yorks); Henry Burdon, 1411 in PROB 11 (Cranborne, Dorset); Tomzen Burden, 1542 in IGI (Sandwich, Kent); Lewes Burdon, 1548 in IGI (Black Torrington, Devon); Ann Bourdon, 1564 in IGI (Walsingham, Norfolk); Thomas Burdon, 1568 in IGI (Dover, Kent); Henry Burdyn, 1570 in IGI (Coldred, Kent); Thomas Burdon, 1573 in IGI (Headon, Notts); Elline Burdine, 1591 in IGI (Donington in Holland, Lincs); Besse Bourdon, 1603 in IGI (Durham, Durham); Alice Burden, 1609 in PROB 11 (Cranborne, Dorset); James Burdin, 1615 in IGI (Cowfold, Sussex); Hugh Bourdon, 1616 in IGI (Dartmouth, Devon); Thomas Burdin, 1650 in IGI (Nottingham, Notts); Thomas Bourdon, 1706 in IGI (Churchill, Somerset).

Scotland: Johne Burdoun, 1615 in IGI (Edinburgh, Midlothian); Isabel Burdin, 1742 in IGI (Kippen, Stirlings).

2 English: locative name from Great Burdon (Durham), or possibly from Burden Head in Weardley (WR Yorks).

Early bearers: Zacharias de Burdun, 1217 in Durham Priory Fees; William Bordon, 1609 in IGI (Houghton le Spring, Durham).

3 English: occupational name from Middle English bourethein 'bower servant; chamberlain' (Old English būrðegn).

Early bearers: Ælfsige Burðen, 968 in Cartularium Saxonium no. 1212 (Kent); Hugelyn Bourþeyn, Hugelinus cubicularius, 1052–65 in Ramsey Cartulary (Hunts); Nicholas Burþein, Burdon, 1242 in Book of Fees (Wilts).

1 English: (i) relationship name, especially in E Anglia and SE England probably from Middle English Burghard, sometimes spelled Burchard, representing Old English Burgheard (from burg 'fortress' + h(e)ard 'hard'), with the Old English fricative /x/ later altered to the plosive /k/. The survival of the Old English name seems guaranteed by the brothers Lemmerus (i. e. Old English Lēofmār) et frater eius Burchardus, 1114–19 in Seltén, Anglo-Saxon Heritage (Bury Saint Edmunds). (ii) possibly also from Middle English **Burcard*, Burchard (Norman **Burcard*, Old French **Burchard*), which was imported by the Normans and derives from Continental Germanic Burghard, cognate with the Old English name. In France this gives rise to the surname Bouchard, Bouchart, but evidence for its use in Norman England is difficult to pin down and modern surnames in Burch- often have a different origin altogether.

Further information: Because of the frequent loss of the second -r- by dissimilation or the replacement of -ard, viewed as a suffix, by -ett, the name may be confused with Birkett in the N England heartland of the latter. The first -r- is also sometimes lost by dissimilation in variants such as the one in Robert Bocard', 1207 in Curia Regis Rolls (Suffolk), and it may therefore also be confused with Buckett. In E Anglia, we find quite late coexistence of forms deriving from -ard and -ett, as in Roger Burkett, 1588, Samuel Burker, 1594 in IGI (Great Yarmouth, Norfolk). Some of the listed later forms, especially in N Lincs, may belong with (2).

Early bearers: given names: Burchardus, Burkart, Burchart, and Bucardus, 1086 in Domesday Book; Gaufridus nepos Bocardi, about 1150 in Danelaw Documents (Lincs); Burekardus de Burewelle, 1154–89 in Danelaw Documents (Lincs); Buchardus, 1196 in Pipe Rolls (Durham); Burchardus, Burcardus, 1222 in Curia Regis Rolls (Dorset).

  - Main Irish location 1847–64: widespread: esp. E Ulster

1 Scottish: locative name from various places called formerly Burnis, Burnes, or Burnhouse, especially those in Kincardines, Renfrews, Dunbartons, and possibly Argyll. Some of the following bearers could alternatively belong with (2).

Further information: The forefathers of the poet Robert Burns migrated from Argyll to Forfar, where for a while they were called Campbells of Burnhouse, and later Burness or Burns (MacBain, Inverness Names). The stress in Burness was on the first syllable. Thus, as the name was pronounced in Ayr as if written Burns, Robert and his brother agreed in April 1786 to adopt the spelling Burns (Black).

Early bearers: David Burnis, 1526 in Privy Seal of Scotland Register (Ayr); Gilbert Burnes, 1605 in IGI (Falkirk, Stirlings); Helein Burns, 1628 in IGI (Glasgow, Lanarks); Hendrie Burnhou, 1642 in IGI (Inverbervie, Kincardines); Elspeth Burns, 1654 in IGI (Dundee, Angus); Robert Burns, 1668 in IGI (Ayr, Ayr); Elizabeth Burns, 1697 in IGI (Dumbarton, Dunbartons).

1 English: nickname, relationship name from Middle English, Old French burel, borel (also birel) ‘reddish brown’, referring perhaps to complexion or hair colour. This was occasionally used by Normans as a personal name, perhaps a nickname substituted for the given name. The word also denoted a coarse woollen cloth of this colour, so the surname may sometimes refer to dress, or it may be a nickname for a maker of the cloth, a burreller: compare Alfred le Burreller, 1277 in London Letter Books A; John Burrelman, 1311 in London Letter Books D. Further information: Middle English burel also developed the meaning ‘belonging to the laity’ (about 1390 MED), and ‘unlearned, rude’ (1513 OED). This latter sense is perhaps too late to have given rise to the surname.

surnames, Midlands and S England: Roger Burel, 1194 in Pipe Rolls (Wilts); Johannes filius Borelli, 1205 in Curia Regis Rolls (Rutland); William Birril, 1253 in Inquisitiones post Mortem (Gloucs); Simon Borel, 1296 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Thom. 1 English: nickname, relationship name from Middle English **but(te)*, Old English **butta* ‘(something or someone) short and stumpy’, also used as a personal name up until about 1200. The Hants surname (Middle English le But) possibly refers to the man called But, 1170 in Pipe Rolls (Hants), who may also be commemorated in Buttsash (‘Butt’s ash tree’) in Fawley (Hants). The place-name is first recorded in 1212 as Bottesesse; see Hampshire Place-Names, which notes that a William le But was resident in Fawley in 1327. Some of the post-medieval bearers may belong under (2).

Early bearers: given names: But (a moneyer) 1087–1100 in Ekwall, ELPN (London); But, 1170 in Pipe Rolls (Hants).

surnames: Godlambus filius But, 1133–60 in Ramsey Cartulary; Robertus filius But’ (the moneyer), 1137 in Ekwall, ELPN (London); Hubert But, about 1150 in Ekwall, ELPN; Leuricus Butte, 1185 in Templars Records (Beds); Robert le But, 1198 in Pipe Rolls (Sussex); William le But, 1214 in Ekwall, ELPN; William le But, Richard le But, about 1257 in New Forest Documents (Hants); William le But, 1327 in Hampshire Place-Names (Fawley, Hants); Walterus But, 1379 in Poll Tax (Othery, Somerset); Thomas Bute, 1551 in IGI (Arlingham, Gloucs); Martha Bute, 1563 in IGI (Wantage, Berks); Agnes Butt, 1565, John But, 1573, Mary Butt, 1657 in IGI (Marshfield, Gloucs); Christopher Butt, 1568, Joseph Bute, 1780, Mary Butt, 1804 in IGI (East Tytherley, Hants); Robert Butt, 1592, Judith Butt, 1715 in IGI (Leigh, Gloucs); Tho. Butt, 1590, Joan Butt, 1657 in IGI (North Cadbury, Somerset); Francis Bute, 1778 in IGI (Walsall, Staffs).

References: Vocabulary of English Place-Names, at **butta*.

2 English: (i) locative name for someone who lived by a tree stump. This sense is not recorded in English before 1601 but is probably much earlier; see (1). (ii) locative name for someone who lived near a mound, from Middle English but(te).

Early bearers: William de Butte, 1200 in Oseney Cartulary (Oxon).

Bygott

Variants: Bigot, Bigwood

- Current frequencies: GB 46, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 59
- Main GB location 1881: Lincs

Norman, English: nickname, relationship name from Old French bigot, perhaps meaning 'beggar'. In Wace's Roman de Rou, an Anglo-Norman poem of the 12th century, the French nobles insult the Normans by calling them bigoz et draschiers ('eaters of scraps and leavings'). In later French (15th cent.) bigot came to mean 'sanctimonious person, hypocrite', perhaps through association of the term with the begging friars, who had a reputation for not practising the virtues they preached. At the time of the Conquest, Bigot was already used both as a personal name and hereditary nickname in Normandy by the family that came from Loges (Calvados). Roger Bigot, lord of Loges, was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk during the reign of the Conqueror.

Further information: According to Matthew Paris, an English chronicler of the mid-13th century, the Bigot or Bigod family took their name from the English oath 'by God' habitually sworn by Rollo (Old Scandinavian Hrólfr), the Viking founder of the the Duchy of Normandy in the early 10th century. This is linguistically and historically implausible and need not be taken seriously, though it is repeated as though true in Dauzat, Noms de Personnes and Morlet, Dictionnaire.

Early bearers: given names: Bigot de Loges, 1086 in Domesday Book (Suffolk).
surnames: Roger Bigot, 1086 in Domesday Book (Norfolk, Suffolk); Roger cognomentus Bigot, 1076–9 in Stenton, Feudalism; Thomas filius Bigot, before 1187 in Danelaw Documents (Lincs); William le Bigot, 1214 in Pipe Rolls (Suffolk); Bartholomew le Bigod, Bigot, 1235 in Place-Names of Essex (Great Dunmow, Essex); Richard Bygot, 1249 in Assize Rolls (Wilts); Hugh le Bigod, about 1270 in Somerset Archives (Somerset); Alice Bigod, 1332 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Willelmus Bygood, 1377 in Poll Tax (Colchester, Essex); Johanne Bygod, 1377 in Poll Tax (Oxford, Oxon); Robertus Bygot', 1379 in Poll Tax (Doncaster, WR Yorks); Johannes Bigode, 1381 in Poll Tax (Beauchamp Roding, Essex); Rogerus Bigot, 1381 in Poll Tax (Lapley and Wheaton Aston, Staffs); Robertus Bigot, 1381 in Poll Tax (Moulton, Lincs); Johannes Bygod, 1381 in Poll Tax (Settrington, ER Yorks); Thomas Bygood, 1392 in The Church in London (London); William Bigwode, 1481 in London Met Archives (Hatfield Broad Oak, Essex); John Bigwoode, 1513 in Herts Archives (Ware, Herts); Thomas Bygod, 1561 in Patent Rolls (Somerset); Elizabetha Bigwood, 1579 in IGI (Westbury, Wilts).

Rolls (Yorks); William Cade, 1543 in IGI (Stoke in Teignhead, Devon); Griffith Cade, 1544 in IGI (Hopton Castle, Shrops); Rafe Cade, 1555 in IGI (Saint Martin Ludgate, London); Richard Cade, 1560 in IGI (Wickenby, Lincs); Alisia Cade, 1562 in IGI (Eckington, Derbys).

2 English: nickname perhaps from Middle English cade 'young animal left by its mother and brought up by hand as a domestic pet', 'pet lamb'. In S England, cad is found in dialects, meaning 'youngest and smallest of a family of any kind, esp. pigs' (English Dialect Dictionary). Some of the following early bearers may alternatively belong with (1).

Further information: Tengvik derives Cada from a Germanic root meaning 'something lumpy or protruding', hence 'a stout lumpish person'. Alternatively Reaney suggests that Cade represents Middle English cade 'cask, barrel' (of Romance origin), a nickname either for someone barrel-shaped or for a maker of barrels. William Cade was a Flemish financier from Saint Omer, who, with his son Eustace, held lands in Kent and Lincs. Early bearers: William and Eustace Cade, about 1140 in Archaeologia Cantiana (iv), 1186 in Pipe Rolls (Lincs); William le Cade, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Sussex); Nicholao Cade, 1377 in Poll Tax (Canterbury, Kent); Jone Cade, 1563 in IGI (Herstmonceux, Sussex); Walter Cade, 1621 in PROB 11 (Reigate, Surrey).

1 English: (i) nickname from Middle English calle, cale (Old English cawl) 'container, basket, net', commonly used of a kind of hair net, close-fitting cap, or headdress worn by women to cover tied-up hair. The name could have been given to a maker of women's caps or perhaps of baskets or nets; compare Caller. Some of the following bearers may otherwise belong under (2). (ii) nickname alternatively perhaps from Middle English cale (also **callee?*), a side form of calwe 'bald (man)' (Old English calu). Compare the early bearers under Cale and see Callow.

Further information: Calle would not be a regular Middle English development of calwe, though malle is recorded for malwe ('mallow') in MED (before 1425). There may have been phonetic contamination from the variation between calle and cale in the words cited in (1, i) and (2) and between Middle English caul and kale 'cabbage'.

1 English: locative name either from the village of Cambridge (Gloucs) or from the university city in E Anglia. It was not until late in the 14th century that the form Cambridge became common for the latter, so earlier examples of this form are almost certainly from the place in Gloucs. Cambridge (Cambs) was earlier Grantabrycge, Cantebricge, and the like.

Early bearers: Picot de Grantebrige, 1086 in Domesday Book (Cambs); Richard de Cambrige, 1182 in Pipe Rolls (Staffs); Alan de Cambricge, 1227 in Assize Rolls (Staffs); William de Cantebricge, 1338 in London Letter Books F; Stephen de Caumbricge, 1348 in Flower, Public Works (Cambs), John Caumbricge, 1376 in London Letter Books H; Johannes de Cambrege, 1379 in Poll Tax (Walden Stubbs, WR Yorks); Thome Cambrydige, 1571 in PROB 11 (Swaffham Prior, Cambs); Richard Cambridge, 1639 in PROB 11 (Langley Burrell, Wilts).

- Current frequencies: GB 41, Ireland 0
- GB frequency 1881: 24
- Main GB location 1881: Surrey and Hants

1 Norman, English: locative name of uncertain origin. Some of the following post-medieval bearers may alternatively belong under (2).

Further information: Reaney suggests that the source might be Campeaux (Calvados). There is another Campeaux in Oise, as well as Champeaux (Manche, Seine-et-Marne), all of which derive from an earlier Campels ‘the little fields’. It is difficult to see how Cameis and Camois would naturally develop from Campels.

Early bearers: Stephen de Cameis, 1200 in Pipe Rolls (Northants); Matillis de Camois, 1205 in Curia Regis Rolls (Surrey); Ascelyna de Cameys, 1296, Ralph Kamays, 1327 in Subsidy Rolls (Camois Court in Barcombe, Sussex); John de Camoys, 1330 in Inquisitiones post Mortem (Notts); Margareta Camoys, 1379 in Poll Tax (Trotton, Sussex); Jo.
