CULTURAL INSIGHT

Quick Tip

If you feel like visiting Mainland China, you can easily and cheaply access it by going from Lo Woo, which is the train station in Hong Kong that is the closest to the frontier. After the Customs checking at the Lo Woo frontier, you will depart from the same Lo Woo station, and you will find daily travel buses to Shenzhen in Mainland China. Another option is to take the special express 48hour train from Hung Hom in Hong Kong; it will take you to Beijing without having to transfer.
