No.82 www.hotenglishmagazine.com € 5.15 with CD

ma

PAGE

Learn 600 new words and expressions with...

82 Hot English Magazine

our speaking with our eng

magazi

MINUTE CD

NEW SECTIONS Lots of new sections to help you learn more effectively.

gazine

PHRASAL VERBS Learn how to socialise with our phrasal verbs

This month we're looking at some "stone" idioms

> VOCABULARY & EXPRESSIONS Learn lots of useful expressions

LIVE YOUNG, DIE FAST Hollywood stars who die young.

Heque

OLYMPICS' SPECIAL The history, the politics, the competitors – the full low-down.

PLUS, grammar, error correction, jokes, anecdotes, trivia, slang, phrasal verbs, social English.

A BECA PARA MAESTROS?

No pierdas la fantástica oportunidad de viajar al extranjero con 4000 € que el ministerio ofrece a los maestros o estudiantes de últimos cursos de magisterio. Realiza un curso ingles de 12 semanas con los paquetes especiales de curso y alojamiento que Hot English ha preparado para ti.

Solo podrás disfrutar de esta beca si la solicitas antes del 27 de Junio como fecha máxima.

iPodrás elegir entre uno de los destinos que más están de moda!:

REINO UNIDO y IRLANDA desde 4400 € en habitación individual

Londres Cambridge Oxford Edimburgo Brighton Cork Dublin EEUU desde 4100 € en habitación individual y media pensión Nueva York Los Ángeles San Francisco AUSTRALIA desde 4500 € en habitación individual y media pensión

NUEVA ZELANDA desde 2775 € en habitación individual y media pensión

iNo esperes más tiempo y contacta con Hot English para reservar tu programa llamando al 902 02 47 49 o enviando un e-mail a coursesabroad@hotenglishmagazine.com

Jessica Fernandez Answer English - Student Advisor Tel: +44 20 7402 8651 - Fax: +44 20 7402 8651 Calls from Spain: 902 02 47 49 e-mail: jessica@answerenglish.com

Pre Intermediate

Intermediate

Upper |

Advanced

	Cenglish Hot English Publishing LANGUAGE SERVICES
CC) index
1	Hello
2	Desert Beauty
3	Britain's Banksy
4	Fingers' Error Correction
5	Nursery Rhymes
6	Story Time 🧕
7	Functional language
8	Social English
9	Conversation: Extreme Yoga
10	Radio ad
11	Funeral Foibles
12	Northern Exposure
13 14	Radio ad Weird Trivia
14	Corny Criminals
16	999 Calls
17	Conversation: Human Billboard
18	Jokes
19	Graffiti
20	Telephone Conversation
21	Sleeping on the Job
22	Later, Gator
23	Radio ad
24	Typical dialogues
25	Dr Fingers' Vocabulary
26	Quirky News
27	Radio ad
28 29	British Bar Chat US Bar Chat
30	Euro Tunnel Profit
30	Online Crime
32	Radio ad
33	Conversation: Sudoku Smarts
34	Dumb US Laws
35	Dictionary of Slang
36	Error Correction
37	Radio ad
38	Idioms
39
40	J
41	Texas Trauma

42 Conversation: BBC Blooper

36

Editor's intro

Hello everyone, and welcome to another issue of Hot English magazine - the fun magazine for learning English. This month you'll notice that Hot English is even BIGGER than ever. There are 16 MORE pages. We've also intro a few more changes, adding exercises to help you monito learning. We hope you like it a Last month, we had an article the new Indiana Jones film. I went to see it recen was somewhat disappointed. I remember the f so well and so fondly. But this one seemed a bit B-movie joke, with cheesy acting and a fairly d script. Anyway, I guess that's the problem with al sequel films - they never quite live up to the first This month in Hot English, we're looking at the Ol You can read about a famous Olympics priest, th Olympics and a few Olympics champions to wat for. Talking about famous people, you have to ch our Celebrity Request quiz. Some of the demand famous people make are truly incredible. Anyway, that's all for this month. Have fun, have holiday (remember, there's no magazine in Aug and see you again in September for the start of new academic year. All the best, Andy

PS Remember, if you're looking for an English-language course abroad, please write to courses@hotenglishmagazine.com

PPS The answers to all questions, plus the tapescripts are on our website: www. hotenglishmagazine.com PPPS For lots more free content, please visit Dr

In ever. I here are to s. We've also introduced changes, adding more b help you monitor your e hope you like it all. , we had an article on ent to see it recently and remember the first one	 Basic English: The Beach Social English: The Beach Functional language: Making Suggestions Error correction & Listening: Extreme Yoga Grammar Fun Headline News Unhappy Harry Euro Stench Funeal Foibles Northern Exposure
one seemed a bit like a ting and a fairly dodgy	22 Trivia Matching 23 Weird Trivia 24 Dr Fingers' Grammar
e problem with all these live up to the first ones. e looking at the Olympics. Dlympics priest, the 1936 champions to watch out ble, you have to check out me of the demands that ncredible.	 25 Subscriptions 26 Corny Criminals 27 Recipe & Listening: Human Billboard 28 Sands Film 29 Father Neil Horan 30 Fading Fashion 31 Young Stars 32 The Dark Knight 33 Heath Ledger 34 1936 Olympics 35 Dream Big
th. Have fun, have a great magazine in August), er for the start of the	 36 Olympics Low-Down 38 Olympic Champions 40 Jokes, Graffit & Cartoon 41 Telephone Conversation & Upper Conversation: Sudoku Smarts 42 Sleeping on the Job 43 Later Gator 44 Vocabulary: The Swimming Pool 45 (Not so) Typical Dialogues 46 Face to Face
for an d, please write to com	48 Quirky News 49 Eurotunnel Profit & Online Crime 50 Anniversaries 51 Bar Chats
GLOSSARY to remember something fondly exp to have good memories of something a B-movie n a film that is produced quickly and cheeply cheesy acting n cheep, bad	 52 Dumb Laws 53 Directory 54 Dictionary of Slang 55 Error Correction & Backissues 56 Alien Belief 57 Idioms: Stone Idioms 58 Platypus Mystery 60 Thinking Green 61 Texas Trauma 62 Einstein Letter & Advanced Conversation: BBC Blooper

Magazine Index

Useful Vocabulary: Neighbourhood Places Useful Verbs: Socialising

Editorial

Desert Beauty Britain's Banksy

Name Game Into Thin Air

Rent-a-Pet Story Time

34567

8 9

10

Celebrity Requests

Silly things that the stars demand.

cheap, bad dodgy adj Requests rsial Vodka & Name Change not good to live up to exp 43 Controversial Vodka Fingers' blog. He's writing 44 Name Change away as we speak: www. of the Month & Credits to be as good as; to be the same 45 Goodbye hotenglishmagazine.com/blog quality as C i Conversation: Extreme Yoga Stars Die Young The Dark Knight / Heath Ledger Yoga in the air. Taken too early Why so serious?

Thinking Green

Going green can mean greenbacks.

Olympics Low-Down Find out all about the Olympics.

All material in this publication is strictly copyright, and all rights are reserved. Reproduction without permission is prohibited. The views expressed in Hot English Magazine do not necessarily represent the views of Hot English Publishing, S.L., although we do think that Slackline Yoga is tricky, Father Horan is a funny chap and the Platypus has a mighty fine beak.

30

READING

PRE INTERMEDIATE READING I

Desemble Beauty pageant.

You've heard of Miss America and Miss Universe. They're well-known beauty competitions. But Abu Dhabi recently hosted a different type of pageant: a camel beauty pageant. Camels were categorised on their colour and age. The camels were judged on their body shape, hump size and facial features. Owners of the lucky winners received cash prizes and cars. Abu Dhabi's royal family donated over $2 million and the cars. The contest is part of a camel festival in the capital of the United Arab Emirates. The aim of the festival is to celebrate and preserve the region's cultural heritage. During the ceremony, the crown prince, Sheik Hamdan bin Mohammed bin Rashid al-Maktoum, spent $4.5 million on 16 camels. Proceeds from the competition went to an excellent cause: the preservation of the nomadic way of life of the desert people. No swimsuit competition was necessary.

Pre reading: anagrams

Put the letters in the correct order to make collocations of "beauty". . .

- 1. ductorps products
- 2. totimpeinco
- 3. testcon
- 4. plarour
- 5. gapeant

Discussion

- 1. What do the words in Exercise 1 mean?
- 2. What do you think about beauty contests?
- 3. Why are some beauty contests controversial?

Reading I

Read the article once. How is this beauty contest different from others?

4 Reading II

- Read it again and answer the following questions.
- 1. What were the two categories in the contest?
- 2. How were the contestants judged?

- 3. What were the two prizes awarded?
- 4. Who made a generous donation to the contest? How much was it?

I'M A 10.

Language Spot! "You've heard of..."

This expression is quite common in English. We use this expression to ask if someone knows about the existence of something. "Have you heard of Miss America?" Notice the difference in meaning when we change the preposition from "of" to "about". We often use "hear about" to talk about gossip.

"Have you heard about Phil's girlfriend? Apparently, she…"

GLOSSARY

a (beauty) pageant n a competition to choose the most attractive / best-looking person/ thing to judge vb to decide which thing / person should win a hump n the object on a camel's back a facial feature your eyes, mouth, nose, etc an owner n a person who possesses something a cash prize n money you can win a cultural heritage n the traditions, buildings, culture, etc of a country that have developed over the centuries a crown prince n a prince who will be king when the current king or queen dies the proceeds n the money collected from an event

Popular graffiti artist is a man of mystery.

Bank

Britain's

WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING AT?

One British graffiti artist is bringing street art to everyone's attention. Banksy, a Bristol native, is famous for his "politically subversive" stencil graffiti. Banksy is a man of mystery as no one knows his true identity. His website has his tag on a plain white background. Banksy's work is always in black and white. Pieces around London include a monkey carrying weapons of mass destruction and a rat parachuting out of a drainpipe. Banksy created the cover of British rock group Blur's album 'Think Tank'. His art has also appeared in a British Council exhibit on "political design in the UK and South Africa". He has shown his art in small galleries in London. Even Nike is hoping he will do some design work for them. But no one can find him, although there are several Banksy "sightings" on YouTube. •

Pre reading: vocabulary

Match the words to the definitions.

- 1. a tag
- 2. graffiti
- 3. a work of art
- 4. an exhibition
- 5. an art gallery
- a. a controversial form of artistic expression found on public property
- b. a place where you can buy or look at art
- c. a collection of works of art on display in a museum / art gallery
- d. a painting / sculpture, etc that an artist has created
- e. a graffiti artist's signature

Discussion

- 1. Do you think graffiti is a form of art? Why? Why not?
- 2. What's your favourite work of art? Why?
- 3. Who is your favourite artist? Why?
- Do you enjoy going to art galleries? Why? Why not?

Reading I

Read the article. What is special about Banksy?

4 Reading II

Read the article again and complete the spaces.

- 1. The graffiti artist, Banksy is from _
- 2. Banksy's work is always in black _
- 3. Banksy last exhibition was about political design in the UK and _____.
- 4. Banksy designed the album cover of the famous Britpop band ______.
- 5. He is also doing design work for the big sports brand ______.

Expression of the day! To bring something to someone's attention Look in the article and find this expression. What do you think it means from the context?

GLOSSARY

subversive ad something that is intended to destroy or weaken a political system stencil graffiti n graffiti that is created with a "stencil" – a piece of paper or plastic with a design cut out of it a tag n a graffiti artist's signature a background n the colour / image behind a picture weapons of mass destruction r nuclear bombs, etc to parachute v to jump from an aeroplane and float safely to the ground with a parachute . a drainpipe r a pipe at the side of a building. Rainwater flows down it

Deep Purple (English rockgroup)
"Purple" is a red / blue colour.
Something "deep" is not shallow.
"The lake was more than 200 metres deep."

THIS IS ANOTHER PART IN OUR SERIES OF FAMOUS NAMES WITH MEANING. MORE NEXT MONTH.

Chuck Berry (American rock 'n' roll singer) 1. A "berry" is a little fruit. 2. If you "chuck" something, you throw it casually. "Could you chuck that book over to me, please?"

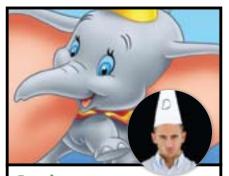

Brian May (guitarist with the rock group Queen) "May" is the month that comes after April. "They got married in May."

Spiderman A "spider" is a little insect with eight legs. "There's a spider in the bathroom."

Pierce Brosnan (Insh actor) If you "pierce" something with a sharp object, you make a hole in that object. "Pierce the skin of the potato a few times with a fork."

Dumbo We can use the word "dumb" to say that something or someone is stupid. "He's really dumb." / "She can be really dumb sometimes."

The Eagles (American rockgroup) "An "eagle" is a large bird that eats small animals. "There's an eagle in the sky."

Headline News

Headline News N° 1

The voice of the people

Can a lake disappear? In Chile's southern Andes region, a lake disappeared into thin air. The lake was a five-acre glacial lake

(100 metres by 200 metres approx) and 30 metres deep. Park Rangers at Bernardo O'Higgins National Park patrolled the lake in March. When they returned in May, the lake was gone. "All that was left were chunks of ice," says Juan Jose Romero, of Chile's National Forestry Corporation. "No one knows what happened." The area is known for earthquakes, which could explain the deep cracks in the ground where the lake once was. "The water could have sunk into the ground through the cracks," he added. There haven't been any earthquakes lately, but last year there was one in Ayesen, a town nearby. This may explain why the lake vanished. It's not frequent that geographical features disappear. However, glacial specialist Andres Rivera says the area has changed a lot in recent decades – in fact, the lake wasn't even there 30 years ago. Landscape changes can happen very quickly, or gradually over time. Geologists are investigating the mysterious disappearance of the lake. They are certain that global warming has something to do with it. O

GLOSSARY

to disappear into thin air n to disappear completely and with no evidence a glacial lake a lake formed by a "glacier" (a large area of ice) to patrol v if police "patrol" an area, they check that area gone d if something is "gone", it has disappeared and is no longer there a chunk of ice a large piece of ice an earthquake a situation in which the ground begins to move violently a crack a large hole in the shape of a line a decade ten years a landscape everything you can see when you look across an area of land: hills, mountains, rivers, etc global warming r the increases in world temperatures as a result of pollution

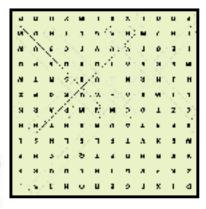

JSEFULVOCABULARY

THIS IS THE START OF A NEW SECTION ON USEFUL VOCABULARY FOR LOW LEVEL STUDENTS. THIS MONTH: NEIGHBOURHOOD PLACES.

Match	the	wor	'ds
Match the words	s below	to the	picture

Cengiish Language services

Match the words below to the pictures. 1. church _d 2. museum 3. sports centre 4. restaurant 5. shopping centre 6. cinema 7. swimming pool 8. harbour 9. supermarket 10. park 2. Wordsearch Now find these words in the wordsearch.					3 restaurant cinema	D	T	x	F	G	E	R	0	H	R	$	T.
pool harbour	z	к	Ρ	B	G	т	N	c	U	U	R	F
supermarket park	v	к	N	H	D	Р	т	Q	Р	c	H	E
3 Guess the word Make a sentence with each place. Ask your partner to guess	w	E	x	۷	т	F	L	E	L	к	s	L
the word.	R	E	$	т	A	U.	R	A	N	т	н	н
IT'S A PLACE WHERE YOU CAN EAT.	c	z	T	Q	С	M	м	M	P	A	R	к
CAN EAT.	L	Т	м	s	A	н	w	υ	R	G	Р	z
	ĸ	J.	N	R	N	н	U	B	s	Ň	т	w
	м	5	к	E	A	т	0	R	U	E	Р	0
	1	E	O	F	м	υ	v	F	С	B	U	w
	т	н	J	м	R	A	G	c	т	н	Q	м
	Р	o	o	L	x	A	L	M	x	U	o	Р

USEFULVERBS

THIS IS THE START OF A NEW SERIES ON USEFUL VERBS. THIS MONTH: SOCIALISING.

TALK TO SOMEBODY TO HAVE A CONVERSATION WITH SOMEONE.

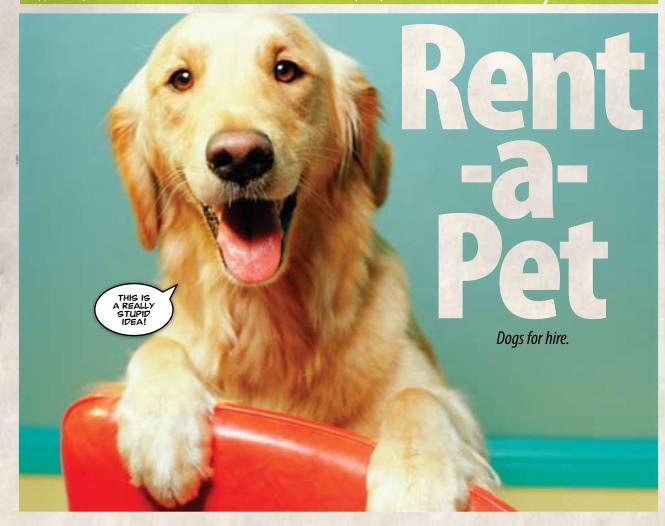

Headline News N° 2

≆002 mmn

Want a dog but don't have time? Rent one with Flexpetz, a dog rental company. It's an American company that runs out of New York, California and now London.

You pay a monthly fee to rent a dog and spend time with it one day each week. Company policy only allows five people to share a rental dog. Flexpetz UK is not cheap. You pay £279 a month, £99 for your monthly subscription, plus £45 for each of the four days with your rental pup. Flexpetz facilitator Pippa

Wollard says, "It is just so expensive in Britain to own a dog. You have to ensure the correct vet checks are made, which is expensive, and pet food is also dear." So far, the only dog available on Flexpetz in London is a Pomeranian named Gucci. However, the RSPCA and other animal rights groups are not happy about Flexpetz's renta-pet system. "There are many abandoned pets that need a lot of love at dog homes," said a member of the group. "You can spend time with a dog there, or even become a foster dog owner until a permanent home is found. RSPCA vet David McDowell says dogs suffer emotionally when they live in unstable, changing environments. "Most dogs need the security of a proper routine with one owner and without this they could become stressed and unhappy." He is also concerned that Flexpetz is not a licensed dog shelter. He added, "Dogs are a man's best friend, but it's not the dog that benefits from rent-a-pet companies." © a rental company n a company that gives you something temporarily in return for an amount of money to run out of exa to operate from a fee an amount of money you pay for a service to rent to use / have something temporarily in return for an amount of money vet checks n if your pet has a "vet check", the vet examines the animal to see if it's OK a pet an animal that lives in your house with you dear a expensive the RSPCA abb the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (an organisation that protects animals) a foster dog owner n a person who takes care of an animal temporarily while they look for a home for it unstable o not constant; not consistent a dog shelter a building where they keep dogs / cats that have no home

GLOSSARY

JOKES, ANECDOTES AND STORIES AS TOLD BY NATIVE ENGLISH SPEAKERS.

Easy Solutions

Patient: Doctor, I have a pain in my eye whenever I drink tea. Doctor: Take the spoon out of the mug before you drink.

Attention Seeker

Patient: Doctor! You've got to help me! Nobody ever listens to me. No one ever pays any attention to what I have to say. Doctor: Next please!

Slow Times

A snail walks into a bar and the barman tells him there's a strict policy about having snails in the bar and kicks him out. A year later, that same snail re-enters the bar and asks the barman, "What did you do that for?"

Mistaken Identity

Lady Bracket: Just look at that young person with the short hair and blue jeans. Is it a boy or a girl?

Jane: It's a girl. She's my daughter. Lady Bracket: Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't know that you were her father. Jane: I'm not. I'm her mother.

Painful Problems

A man goes to the doctor and says, "Doctor, wherever I touch, it hurts." The doctor asks, "What do you mean?"

The man says, "When I touch my shoulder, it really hurts. If I touch my knee – OUCH! When I touch my forehead, it really, really hurts." The doctor says, "I know what's wrong with you – you've broken your finger!" •

GLOSSARY

a spoon n an object you use for eating soup or other liquid food a mug n a cup for coffee / tea a snail n a little animal with a hard shell on its back to kick someone out phr vb to order someone to leave a place, often with physical force a shoulder the joint at the top of your arm a knee r the joint in the middle of your leg a forehead n the part of your face at the top just below your hair

Deck chair

Beach hut

Beach towel

Cengilish Language services

LISTEN AND REPEAT THESE EXPRESSIONS.

What you say

- Is the beach far from here?
- Is the sand hot?
- Is the sea rough?
- Are the waves big?
- Do I have to wear a swimming costume?
- Is the sun strong?
- Is there anywhere to buy a beach ball?
- We'd like to rent a snorkel and mask, please.
- Is there a diving centre near here?
- Are there any scuba diving schools near the beach?
- Is there a lifequard on the beach?
- What time does the tide come in?
- Can we rent any deck chairs?
- Where can we buy a wind breaker?

What you hear

- High tide is at about 4pm. The beach is about one kilometre
- from here.
- The sun is very hot at midday.
- We recommend you put on sun cream.
- The sea is quite rough.
 - Beware of jelly fish.
 - You can rent some beach equipment in the town centre.
 - There's a diving centre just along the beach.
 - You can rent deck chairs on the beach. 🗘 rough adj if the sea is "rough", the waves are very high and the sea is moving a lot to wonder vb to ask yourself

Part II

NOW LISTEN TO THIS DIALOGUE. IN THIS CONVERSATION, THE GUEST IS ASKING FOR INFORMATION

ABOUT THE BEACH.

Receptionist:
Guest:	I help you? I was just wondering how to get to the beach.
Receptionist:	You just follow this road to the end, and it's right in front of you.
Guest:	Is there a lifeguard?
Receptionist:	Yes, there is a lifeguard.
Guest:	Is the sea rough?
Receptionist:	Well, not really, but you have to be careful with small children.
Guest:	Are there any dangerous currents?
Receptionist:	Not here, but you have to be careful further down
	the coast.
Guest:	And lastly, is there anywhere we can rent some snorkeling equipment?
Receptionist:	Yes, there are some shops in the town centre, and a few places on the beach.
Guest:	OK. Thanks very much.
Receptionist:	You're welcome.

American MBA in Madrid

now accepting applications for October 2008 Start

In approximately 16 months you can earn an American MBA in an intensive part-time program in Madrid. The program is designed for working professionals or new university graduates. All courses are taught in English.

- Part-time afternoon/evening classes.
- Classes two times a week; small group work two times a week.
- Completion of the degree in approximately 16 months.
- Practice-based assessment no exams.
- Class size limited to 20 per group personalized attention.
 - Your MBA degree will be awarded from an American accredited institution - Endicott College.

For application or program information please contact: Richard Pacheco Dean, Endicott College/

The College For International Studies C/ Velazqúez 140, Madrid 28006

rpacheco@endicott.edu tel: +34 91 563 67 40

www.cis-spain.com

The College For International Studie

Useful language for successful communication.

FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE

CD track 7

Do you want to rent a video later?

- That's a good idea.
- OK.
- I'd love to.

- l'm sorry, but I really don't have the time.
- I'm afraid I'm a bit busy at the moment.
- I'm sorry but I'm not going to be able to make it.
- I'd love to but I've got a headache.
- I've got to work.
- I'm too tired.
- I'm not feeling very well. O

Let's go to the theatre.

PRF INTERMEDIATE LISTENING

Pre listening

- Match the words to the pictures.
- 1. yoga _____
- 3. jogging_
- 4. working out at the gym
- 5. aerobics_

- 2. pilates _

- 6. step.

2 Discussion

- 1. Do you do any of the activities from above? Which ones?
- 2. What are the benefits of these activities?
- 3. Which activities from above would you like to try? Why? Why not?

Listening I

You are going to listen to an article about a new form of physical exercise. Listen once. Which activity is it?

a. jogging b. yoga c. aerobics

Listening II

- Listen again. True or false?
- 1. Slackline Yoga is a type of yoga practised in the circus.
- 2. Slackline Yoga was invented by rock climbers.
- 3. Acroyoga is yoga in water.
- 4. David lives in a big house with lots of land.
- 5. If you can't go to one of his workshops, you can buy the DVD.

Exercise

Read the following sentences. Can you correct them? Then listen to check.

IN THIS SECTION DR FINGERS IDENTIFIES

AND CORRECTS TYPICAL ERRORS.

- 1. Are you liking it? = Do you like it?
- 2. Are they have a car? =
- 3. She go to work by bus. =
- 4. Where does he living? =
- 5. What is she do at the weekend? =
- 6. They often eats at home. =

MADRID

www.la_red.com/artemisa E-mail: artemisad@la_red.com

Comida Vegetariana

MADRID

For company classes, e-mail classes@hotenglishmagazine.com www.hotenglishmagazine.com 15

(englist

The section that makes grammar easy, interesting, and fun.

BRAMMAR FUN Confusing Vords

IN THIS MONTH'S GRAMMAR FUN SECTION WE'LL BE LOOKING AT SOME CONFUSING WORDS.

This month we are going to look at three sets of words that can be a little tricky: "its" versus "it's"; "your" versus "you're"; and "their" versus "they're". Each pair of words is pronounced exactly the same but they have different meanings.

"your" versus "you're" "Your" is another possessive adjective. For example:

"Your" is another possessive adjective. For example: 1. The car belongs to you – it's your car. 2. Where are your clothes?

And "you're" is a contraction of "you are". For example: 1. You're late. 2. You're talking too loudly.

"its" versus "it's"

The first of these words is a possessive adjective. It is used to show possession. It is often followed by a noun. As you can see, it doesn't have an apostrophe. For example:

Where is the dog's food? / Where is its food?
 I've got the cat's bowl. / I've got its bowl.

The second word is a contraction of "it is". For example: 1. It's cold today.

2. It's the second time I've told you that.

"their" versus "they're"

"Their" is also a possessive adjective. For example:

- 1. The bank account belongs to Sara and Todd it is their bank account.
- 2. My money is here. Where is their money?

And "they're" is a contraction of "they are". For example:

- 1. Ben and Jim live next door. They're our nextdoor neighbours.
- 2. Sam and Bob are here. They're waiting in the living room.

Exercise

Choose the correct word.

- 1. Ben and Maria are looking for their / they're keys. Have you seen them?
- 2. Its / it's hot outside!
- 3. Which one is your / you're sister?
- I don't want to invite Clare and Alex to the party their / they're boring.
- 5. My book is on the table. This is your / you're book.

HEADLINE NEWS

Headline News

Headline News N° 3

The voice of the people

Politicians Retire End of an era.

The Prime Minister of the Republic of Ireland, Bertie Ahern, has stepped down from his job after eleven years. The Prime Minister, also known as the Taoiseach, has been involved in politics since the age of 17. As Taoiseach (pronounced "teeshock") he was pivotal in the northern Irish peace process. A deal was finally reached in the long-running conflict in which 3,600 people have died since 1969. Ahern has often been praised for his part in the negotiations. However, in recent years, he has been accused of corruption, and he has appeared before tribunals investigating corrupt politicians. He finally retired and has been replaced by Brian Cowen, who was the Finance Minister.

> Meanwhile the First Minister of Northern Ireland, Ian Paisley has also retired. Paisley has been involved in politics since the 1950s and was a Protestant minister. He became notorious in the 1960s because of his anti-Catholic speeches (he once called the Pope the Antichrist). Many people partly blamed him for the problems in Northern Ireland. Recently he was involved in peace talks and was a part of last year's settlement. As part of this peace agreement, Ian Paisley was First Minister while Martin McGuinness was his deputy. McGuinness is a prominent member of Sinn Féin, Paisley's arch-enemies. Both men are well-known people in Ireland and are unique personalities who will be difficult to replace. O

Space Kangaroo

A large kangaroo has appeared on the ground in Australia. Why? Well, it's all part of a scientific experiment. The kangaroo was used to test the amount of light reflected off the Earth towards the sun. The kangaroo was made of cardboard and was observed by two satellites. The experiment was carried out in Monash University, which is in the city of Melbourne.

Climate change is affected by the amount of light reflected back to the sun. The melting of the polar ice caps means that there is less light reflected off the Earth. In turn, this means that there are more dark areas on Earth. And because darkness absorbs light, the temperature on Earth will rise.

The experiment was part of a world-wide test by NASA that involved 20 other locations. The Australians decided to use the image of a kangaroo because it is a shape that is instantly recognisable to everyone. The original plan was to use a giant square but scientists wanted to use an animal to make the experiment more fun. Originally they discussed using the form of a lizard or a koala bear before they finally agreed on the kangaroo.

pivotal ad very important a conflict n a war to praise vb to congratulate; to thank meanwhile d at the same time a speech r a formal talk to an audience the Antichrist the Devil's son while co. at the same time a deputy n the second in command an arch-enemy n your worst enemy to carry out phry to do something darkness non-bright; non-light to rise v to increase; to go up a koala bear a small Australian tree-climbing mammal to step down phry to leave your job voluntarily often because of a scandal

HEADLINE NEWS

I'M GOING 0 GET THIS

LEXICON!

Headline News N° 4

The voice of the people

London 2008

Unhappy Harry

Rowling sues fan.

Harry Potter goes to court as author J.K. Rowling sues a fan. A few years ago, school librarian Steven Vander Ark created a Harry Potter lexicon of "all things Harry." At the start, even Rowling used it as a reference. "This is such a great site that I have been known to sneak into an internet café while out writing and check a fact rather than go into a bookshop and buy a copy of Harry Potter, which is embarrassing," Rowling once admitted. For a time, Vander Ark became a celebrity, speaking at conventions and on television shows, including American NBC's

The Today Show. However, things turned ugly when publisher RDR Books said they were releasing a print version of the lexicon.

Now, Rowling is suing RDR Books. Apparently, the lexicon is legal as long as it is online. But Rowling says that Vander Ark's printed lexicon will interfere with a Harry Potter encyclopaedia she intends to write. "I never once wanted to stop Mr Vander Ark from doing his own guide. Never ever," Rowling explained. But she wants the judge to prohibit the printed version of the guide. Maybe Harry Potter will become a lawyer when he leaves Hogwarts. Rowling could certainly use his services.

Copyright

"Copyright" is a legal concept that gives the creator of an original work exclusive rights to it, usually for a limited time. Generally, it is "the right to copy", but it also gives the copyright holder the right to be credited for the work. to determine who may adapt the work to other forms, who may perform the work and who may financially benefit from it. It is the "intellectual" version of the patent (used for inventions).

GLOSSARY

to sue v to start a legal process against someone in order to get compensation a lexicon an alphabetical list of words or expressions (often defined) associated with a topic / subject, etc a site a website; an online site to sneak into a place to enter a place secretly / quietly a convention a large meeting of an organisation to turn ugly exp to become violent / tense / not pleasant a print version a version of something on paper to intend to do something exp to want to do something a judge a person whose job is to manage and direct a legal process and guide advise the jury

London 2008

HEADLINE NEWS

(english

Headline News N° 5

The voice of the people

the word "manure" refers to animal waste (often from horses or cows). The German translation of "manure" is "mist". There was once an American company that produced a hair curler called the "Mist Stick". And Rolls Royce once built a car called the "Silver Mist". You can imagine the problems they had trying to sell those products in Germany, where Germans would understand them to mean "Manure Stick" and "Silver Manure".

Incidentally, "mist" in English refers to tiny drops of water to stink v to smell very, very bad manure animal waste (often from horses or cows) that is sometimes mixed with chemicals. It is placed on the earth to help plants grow the UK's national weather service / organisation a whiff n a smell (usually a bad one) due to because of noticeable that you can see / notice / hear a colleague a person who works with you to tread n to walk on: to step on westerly a "westerly" wind comes from the west an odour a smell (it can be good or bad) a hair curler an electronic device for making your hair curly (with little circles)

Something stinks in the UK. In large areas of England and Wales, there is a strange smell in the air. BBC news website readers describe it as both "sulphur and manure," and the website has received over 1,000 e-mails about it. Sarah Holland of the UK Met office says the smell is most likely "agricultural or industrial works in western Europe". More precisely, they think the smell comes from the area around Holland, Germany and Belgium. They call it the "Euro Whiff".

I CAN'T SMELL

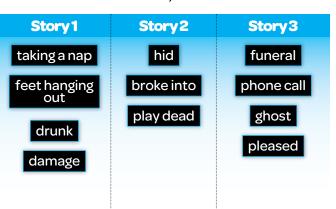

"I noticed a smell rather like burning plastic during the night, about 5 am," said Marian Miller. "It's the sort of smell you can taste - it's disgusting." A Cardiff man thought it was due to animals. "I thought it was our local neighbourhood dogs and cats being busy in the night in our garden - but the smell stayed noticeable during my three-mile bike ride to work," he says. "Various colleagues thought they had trodden in something but no, it's in the air," one worker said. "Normally, our winds are westerly, coming off the Atlantic Ocean, which bring little or no pollution with them," says Sarah Holland. "Unfortunately, we will probably never know the exact origin of the offensive odour, or what it is." It may be better that way.

READING Funeral Foibles

Funeral parlour disasters.

Pre reading

You are going to read three stories about incidents in funeral parlours. Look at the words in each column. What do you think the stories are about?

Reading I

Read the stories and see if your predictions were correct.

Reading II

- In the first story the man found was a funeral director.
- In the second story the man got away with his crime.
 In the third story a man disappeared from his coffin.

I'M JUST PRETENDING TO BE DEAD!

Phrasal verb alert!

break into To "break into" a house or building is to enter it without authority or permission. This is the crime known as 'burglary'. The noun is a "break in". For example:

1. They broke into the bank.

2. There was a break- in last night.

Discussion

1. Has anyone ever broken into the building where you work? What did they take?

2. Where's the worst place in your country / city for break-ins? Why is it so bad?

GLOSSARY

a funeral parlour n the place where dead people are prepared for burial a funeral home n the American English word for the place where dead people are prepared for burial to book vb if the police "book" you, they officially record your name and the offence that they may charge you with to break in phr vb to enter private property illegally to take a nap exp to sleep for a short period, usually in the middle of the day a coffin n a box for a dead body to hide vb to go in a place where others can't see / find you to play dead exp to act as if you are dead to give you away exp if something "gives you away", it shows others what you are really doing the deceased n the dead person an obituary n a report / article / speech about someone (their life, character, etc) after they have died

Some strange things are happening in the least likely places: funeral homes. In one incident, local authorities in upstate New York booked a 20-year-old man for breaking in and taking a nap in a coffin. The funeral director's wife woke up to find a pair of trousers on the floor, and feet hanging out of a coffin. The man was drunk, and caused more than $4,000 in damages.

In another incident in Valencia, Spain, a thief broke into a funeral parlour. When he realised the police had arrived, he hid in a glass-topped coffin. He tried to play dead, but his breathing and dirty street clothes gave him away.

A third incident resulted in a happy ending. A Canadian man's family was at his funeral when his daughter got a phone call... from her dad. Thinking she was talking to a ghost, she screamed. Days earlier, the family were informed that the man had been hit by a train. However, he had been incorrectly identified as the deceased. Later, the man read his own obituary in the newspaper. Apparently, he was pleased with it and is saving it for another day. 9

english

A 15-year-old British girl has just got back from the trip of a lifetime. Camilla Hempleman-Adams joined a group of 11 on a week-long trip to the North Pole. She even had to drag a 35-kilo sledge on the 80-mile trip to get there. "This was the hardest thing I've ever done in my life," she said. Apparently the worst part of the trip was sharing a tent and putting up with the loud snoring of her companions. "I've been sharing a tent with four men and two women and the snoring has been unbearable – despite my earplugs," Camilla complained. The food wasn't so good either, and she was very much looking forward to a pizza when she got home.

Maybe such a trip is easier if your dad is a famous Arctic explorer. Her father, David Hempleman-Adams, is "extremely proud of" his young daughter. What father wouldn't be?

She went on the expedition to the North Pole to "enter the record books and highlight the effects of global warming." The journey also helped her appreciate her father's work. "Now my eyes have been opened as to what he has done on previous trips," she said. How many 15-year-olds can say they've had such an experience? •

First British teen to ski to the North Pole.

1 Pre reading – Dream Trips

Try to imagine the ideal trip / journey. Where would it be? When would it be? Who would it be with? What would you do?

Reading I

Read the sentence below. What do you think the girl is referring to? Read the article to check.

"This was the hardest thing I've ever done in my life."

Reading II

Read the article again. What do these numbers refer to?

- 1. 15_____
- 2. 11_
- 3. 35
- 4. 80

GLOSSARY

the trip of a lifetime exp an amazing journey somewhere to drag vb to pull; to use physical force to move a tent n an object made of material that you sleep in when you are in the country / mountains, etc to put up with something exp to accept or tolerate something that you hate / don't like snoring n a sound produced through someone's mouth / nose while they are sleeping unbearable adi terrible; horrible; very difficult to tolerate an earplug n a foam object you put in your ears to eliminate sound proud of someone exp pleased with someone or what they . have done to have your eyes opened exp if this happens to you, you understand something very clearly after experiencing it

Kenglish

For private language classes, e-mail classes@hotenglishmagazine.com www.hotenglishmagazine.com 21

RIVIA MATCHING

1 Exercise

SEE IF YOU CAN DO THIS MATCHING EXERCISE. LOOK AT THE LIST OF THINGS (1 TO 12), AND THE PHOTOS (A-D). WRITE A LETTER NEXT TO THE NAME OF EACH THING IN THE LIST BELOW. ANSWERS ON THE WEBSITE

- a couple
 a human chain
 a statue
 a statue on horseback a battle a warrior
 a knight
 - a knight
 a visor (of a knight's helmet)
 - 9. a wound (injury)
 - 10. a floor (of a building)
 - 11. front legs (of an animal)12. a duck

F

G

K

THIS IS ANOTHER PART IN OUR MINI-SERIES ON STRANGE FACTS. WHO EVER THOUGHT THE WORLD WAS SO UNUSUAL?

The tallest dog in the world is a Great Dane called Gibson. He is 107 centimetres tall.

> The first couple to be > > shown in bed together on prime time television was Fred and Wilma Flintstone.

A duck's quack doesn't echo, and no one knows why.

The longest ever human chain was made between Tentulia and Teknaf in Bangladesh in 2004. It was 1,050 kilometres long and there were over 5 million people in it.

John Evans once balanced a Mini on his head for 33 seconds. It weighed 159.6 kilos.

Statues of famous people on horseback actually have a meaning to them. If the front leas of the horse are both in the air, it means that the person died in battle. If the horse has only one front leg in the air, the person died from wounds inflicted in battle. But if the four legs of the horse are all on the ground, it means the warrior died of natural causes.

> The modern military salute came from the tradition of knights in armour raising their visors when they passed the king on horseback. This was done so that the king could identify each passing knight. So, nowadays, the right-handed salute harks back to the medieval warriors.

Researchers have found that, if a cat falls from the seventh floor of a building, its chances of surviving are much less than if it fell from higher up. If it fell from the twentieth floor, it would have 30% more chance of surviving. This is because apparently it takes the cat eight floors to realise what is happening to it and to correct its position. O prime time television n the time when most people are watching television a guack n the sound a duck makes to balance something on your head exp to put something on your head and to keep it there for a period of time even though it is unstable to inflict (a wound) n to cause an injury: to cut someone a salute n a movement made with the hand to the head as a sign of respect to a superior officer to hark back to e if something "harks back to" another period, it is a reminder of that period medieval a from the Middle Ages (the 5th to the 16th century)

Cenglish

DR FINGERS' GRAMM

						Name Manhage
0	0	-	-	-	1000	Same As 2018
	¥.	clinic	ahotengl	lishmaga	azine.cor	n
	¢6
and a	Lubipe i B	Ques	tion				Sectors	Bart	18
-

Dear Dr Fingers,

I am confused! There seem to be a lot of words in English that sound the same but have different meanings. Is this true or am I just going crazy? Mr Confounded (from Casablanca)

CONFUSING WORDS

Dear Confounded,

I am so glad you brought this up. Don't worry – you aren't going crazy. You are absolutely correct. This is actually quite a complicated guestion. These groups of words are called homophones. They have the same sound / pronunciation, but a different spelling and a different meaning. An example of words that share the same pronunciation but differ in meaning is "hole" and "whole". So, what's the difference?

"Hole" is a noun and refers to an opening in something. For example:

- 1. There is a hole in the wall we need to repair.
- 2. The milk leaked all over the floor because there was a hole in the bottom.

On the other hand, "whole" is an adjective. It can mean "complete" or "entire". For example:

- 1. He ate the whole pizza.
- 2. Not all the runners were able to run the whole distance.

But that's not all. There are many words in English which appear to be similar, but which have different meanings. Take the case of "affect" and "effect".

"Affect" is a verb that means to change or influence something or someone. For example:

- 1. The violent film really affected them.
- 2. The bright light temporarily affected his ability to see.

On the other hand, "effect" is a noun that refers to the result of a change. For example:

1. The effect of the performance was stunning.

2. The talk to staff had a positive effect on them.

Now it's your turn. Here is a list of word pairs. Use your dictionaries to find the differences in their meanings. bear - bare piece - peace plain - plane steal - steel

Well, Mr Confounded, I hope that has helped you.

Yours, Dr Fingers.

Please send your questions or stories to: clinic@hotenglishmagazine.com

Would you like to write for the blog? Write to Dr Fingers' trusty assistant: Peter Moore peter@hotenglishmagazine.com

englist

<text><text>

Ahorra 6 euros en hot Gengish magazine

10 razones para suscribirse a Hot English.

- 🚺 Es una revista genial.
- 2 Cientos de artículos para mejorar tu inglés.
- S Verbos y frases útiles.
- 4 Jerga.
- 5 Nunca te pierdas un número de la revista.
- 6 Garantía de entrega.
- 7 Un fantástico CD de audio de 70 minutos con diferentes acentos en inglés.
- 8 Glosarios en inglés.
- 9 11 números por tan sólo 54€ (precio total del coste de las revistas sobre el mismo periodo: 56,65€).
- 10 Con más ejercicios que nunca.

Llama ahora al 915498523 o manda un correo electrónico a subs@hotenglishmagazine.com o envía esta solicitud (o fotocopia) a C/ Fernández de los Ríos, 98 2ºA. Para suscripciones fuera de España, por favor, visita www.hotenglishmagazine.com

Solicitud de petición de suscripción

Sí, me gustaría mejorar mi inglés con la revista HE (1 año; 11 números + 11 CDs) = 54 € (200 € para academias, escuelas, etc. + número ilimitado de copias)

□ Me gustaría suscribirme a la versión descargable de HE: 1 año, 11 números + archivos de audio en MP3 + todos los números atrasados desde Octubre 2006)= 34 € al año por

Mis datos personales son: (Por favor, escribe de una manera clara y en mayúsculas)

Código Postal: Población:

cada suscripción (150 € para academias, escuelas, etc. + número ilimitado de copias)

Dirección:

E-mail[.]

Edad:

Número de teléfono:

 \Box Por favor, señala aquí si ${\rm NO}$ deseas recibir la hoja informativa gratuita.

Formas de Pago (España sólo) Para precio fuera de España, llama al (0034) 91 54985 23.

Cheque a Hot English Publishing, S.L.

□ Contra reembolso (España solo). Se añadirán entre 1,25 € y 7 € para cubrir los gastos postales.

□ VISA Mastercard ____/ ____ Fecha de caducidad: _

Transferencia Bancaria (para más detalles, contacta en el 91 549 85 23).

Domiciliación bancaria:

Número de cuenta _	/	_//

Banco:	Sucursal:

Dirección :
Cádigo Do	stal.

Código Postal: Los bancos cobran 2 € si pagas con la tarjeta

0

Suscripciones múltiples/ Regalos - solicitud de petición

Me gustaría pedir varias suscripciones para amigos y compañeros, en las que se aplique los descuentos mostrados en la tabla de la derecha, Por favour ten en cuenta que se puede realizar el envío a dos direcciones diferentes (la tuya y otra).

Datos de envío: (Para re	galos o suscripciones múltiples)
Nombre:	Apellidos:
Dirección:
Número de teléfono:
E-mail:
Edad:	DNI/NIF:

Descuento según número de suscripciones	Precio descontado para cada	Cantidad	Total
1 Suscripción con CD	54€
2-4 Suscripciones 10%	48.60€
5-9 Suscripciones 15%	45.90€
10-19 Suscripciones 20%	43.20€
20-49 Suscripciones 25%	40.50€
50-99 Suscripciones 30%	37.80€
100+ Suscripciones 50%	27€

Manda un correo electronico a subscriptions@hotenglishmagazine.com o envia este cupon o fotocopia a Hot English Publishing SL, C/Fernandez de los Rios, 98 - 2a, Madrid 28015. Llama al 91 549 8523. AVISO: Se recomienda poner especial atención al elegir el modo de pago, ya que el banco nos carga 22 euros por las domiciliaciones que faltan. Cuando esto sucede, nos veremos obligados a cargar este importe al total del cliente. Lo mismo sucede con las contrareembolsos que no se recogen y nos son devueltos. Esta oferta correspondi exclusivamente al mes correspondiente a la publicación de este número. Por favor, para más información o para consultar cualquier posible cambio en la oferta, contacta con Hot English.

CORNY CRIMINALS

Corny Criminals

HERE'S ANOTHER PART IN OUR SERIES ON GOOD, BAD AND FUNNY CRIMINALS.

Bury the Evidence Teens buried speed

Teens buried speed camera.

Two Austrian teenagers have been fined £75,000 for damaging a speed camera. The two teens cut it down and buried it. The 19-year-olds were filmed by the camera speeding in a town near the Alps. Realising their mistake, they used an axe and a saw they had with them in their car to cut it down and bury it in a nearby field.

But the box was found by a local farmer as he ploughed his land, and police who examined it found pictures of the pair on the camera inside. The two youngsters later confessed to pulling down the device. A local court said the fine would cover the cost of replacing the machine.

Guard Gator

Alligator used as guard dog.

A Texas police officer made a very unusual discovery. Trooper Steven Stanfield pulled a car over. It was 2 am on a Sunday morning, and Stanfield imagined it was a routine case of drunk driving. But when he got near the car, he was shocked to see a giant alligator lying in the back seat. Meanwhile, the driver, Bob Williamson, acted as if everything was completely normal. He said he was lost, and politely asked the cop for directions. He made no reference to the gator. The police officer gave Johnson an alcohol test. It turned out that Johnson had found the gator in a ditch next to the road and had "wrestled it" into his back seat. As other cops arrived on the scene, Stanfield discovered that the car matched the description of a getaway vehicle used in a recent robbery. Apparently, Johnson had picked up the gator, then headed to his boss's house. He broke in, stole a Nintendo Wii and a large flat-screen TV. The TV was too heavy so he asked one of the neighbours to help him load it in the car, saying he was buying it from his boss. But when the neighbour saw the alligator, he dropped the TV. Johnson is currently serving time in the county jail. • to fine vb if someone is "fined" they must pay money because they have committed a crime a speed camera n a camera that takes photos of cars and registers the speed they are travelling at to bury v to put in a hole in the ground an axe n a tool with a long wooden handle and a sharp metal piece at the end used for cutting trees a saw n a tool with sharp metal teeth - often used for cutting wood to plough vb if a farmer "ploughs" land, he / she turns over the earth / soil with a plough to confess vb if someone "confesses" to a crime, he / she admits that they did it a device r an object that has been invented for a particular purpose a court n a place where trials (legal processes) take place drunk driving n the crime of drinking alcohol and driving a cop n inform a police officer a gator n in an alligator a ditch n a long, narrow hole by the side of the road to wrestle vb to fight to match a description exp to be the same as a description a getaway vehicle n a car / vehicle used to escape after committing a crime to break in phr vb to enter private property illegally to load v if you "load" things into a vehicle, you put those things into the vehicle

GLOSSARY

I CAN SEE

RECIPE

YUMMY!

HERE'S ANOTHER RECIPE FOR YOU TO TRY AT HOME. THIS MONTH: CHICKEN FAJITAS.

INTERMEDIATE LISTENING

Ingredients

- 4 chicken breasts
- 4 tbsp oil or butter
- 1 large onion
- 1 green, red or yellow pepper (or a bit of all three)

fajitas Method

- Slice the chicken into long strips and fry with the oil in a pan.
- For a caramelised effect, stir in a small amount of brown sugar.
- Cook until light brown.
- Chop the pepper and onions into strips and sauté in a separate pan.
- Place small amounts of the chicken and vegetables into fajitas.
- Add one (or as many as you like) of these toppings: sour cream, refried beans, cheese or guacamole.
- Roll up the fajitas and serve.

Marinade

For even tastier chicken, you could make a marinade with the following:

- 2 tbsp balsamic vinegar
- 1 tbsp lemon juice
- 2 tsp olive oil
- 1/2 tsp dried oregano

Mix it all together with the chicken in a bowl or seal-proof bag. Leave in the refrigerator for 8 hours. Delicious! 3 to slice vb to cut into thin pieces a strip n a long, thin piece of something to fry cv to cook in oil caramelised adj if sugar "caramelises", it turns to caramel to stir in phr vb to add whilst stirring (moving the food with a spoon) to chop vb to cut to sauté vb to cook quickly in oil a topping n food that is placed on top of other food a marinade

a sauce which you put over meat / fish before cooking it

Discussion

- 1. Look at the pictures of the tattoos? Which ones do you like? Which ones don't you like?
- 2. If you had a tattoo, where would you have it? Why?
- 3. What's your opinion of tattoos? Do you like them? Why? Why not?

Listening I

Look at the subtitle below. What do you think the conversation is about? What do the words mean? Listen and check.

Man auctions face for ad spot.

3 Listening II

What's the speaker's opinion on the following?

- 1. tattoo advertising
- 2. his family and tattoos
- 3. charity

Headline News N° 6

London 2008

Bobby Sands

Robert Gerard Sands, also known as Bobby Sands, was born on 9th March 1954. He was a Provisional Irish Republican Army volunteer and a member of the UK Parliament. He died on 5th May 1981 after a hunger strike in prison.

GLOSSARY

to premiere to show a film for the first time entitled ad called a Republican n a person who wants a united Ireland with no rule by the UK in the north a hunger strike n a protest by prisoners that consists of not eating the IRA al the Irish Republican Army - an armed group that fought against British rule in northern Ireland consequences n the results of an action or event a role n a part in a film to be brought up phr vb the place where you are "brought up", is the place where you live and are educated as a child Loyalists n Protestant paramilitaries who fought against the Republicans in Northern Ireland. They want Northern Ireland to remain a part of the UK

Sands Film

A new film about the problems in Northern Ireland has premiered at the Cannes Film Festival. The film entitled Hunger is about the life and death of republican hunger striker Bobby Sands. The film is controversial because some people considered Sands to be a terrorist as he was a member of the IRA. However, others consider him a hero and say that he died an honourable death that was part of a peaceful protest. The film is directed by Steve McQueen, a British director. McOueen has won the Turner Prize before, a prize for visual art, but Hunger is his first time directing. Speaking about the film, McQueen said that what Bobby Sands did wasn't right or wrong. "The film is about people's decisions and the consequences of those decisions," he added. Michael Fassbender (who was Stelios in the film 300), plays the role of Sands. Fassbender was born in Germany but was brought up in Ireland.

Bobby Sands was 27 years old when he died. During the hunger strikes in the Maze Prison in 1981 he was elected as a member of the British Parliament. There were worldwide protests supporting him and other prisoners refused to eat too. Eventually, ten men died while trying to get recognition as prisoners of war. Surprisingly many Loyalists said that they also supported the Republicans' protest.

FATHER NEIL HORAN

IN THE UPCOMING SUMMER OLYMPICS THE CHINESE AUTHORITIES HAVE A LOT TO WORRY ABOUT: TERRORIST PLOTS, POLITICAL PROTESTS, THE WEATHER... BUT THERE IS ONE OTHER THING FOR THE ORGANISERS OF THE

BEIJINGOLYMPICS TO BE WARY OF: FATHER NEIL HORAN.

eil Cornelius Horan was born in County Kerry, Ireland in 1947. He was

I ∨ ordained as a priest in 1973 and worked as one in London, England. He first came to public attention in 2003 at the British Grand Prix in Silverstone racetrack. On this occasion, he ran onto the track. As Formula One cars swerved past him at 200 km/h he performed an Irish jig while holding a banner saying, "Read the Bible. The Bible is always right." A marshal wrestled Horan to the ground and the police arrested him. He spent two months in jail for this.

A year later, police at the Epsom Derby (a major horseracing event) caught Father Horan at the side of the racetrack. They suspected he was going to run onto the racetrack. The police warned organisers of other sporting events about him.

His most infamous stunt to date happened in 2004 at the Olympics in Athens. During the men's marathon, he jumped on the frontrunner Vanderlai de Lima from Brazil, while holding a poster saying, "The Grand Prix Priest. Israel fulfilment of prophecy says the Bible, the Second Coming is near". De Lima lost the race and only got a Bronze Medal but he gained much respect for reacting to the incident without anger. For this incident Horan got a suspended sentence while de Lima got an award for his Olympic spirit. Neil Horan says that he does these stunts to warn people about the end of the world. He says that Jesus will return and rule the world from Jerusalem with the saints. Humans would each live for 900 years. Because of his views, he has been defrocked by the Catholic Church. He has also written several books on the subject.

His family is very worried about him and want him to get psychiatric treatment. The Church has also requested this before.

But it seems his antics are getting weirder. Outside the World Cup Final in 2006, Horan was arrested by German police. He had sent a letter to the German Chancellor Angela Merkel. He said that he planned to hold a banner saying that, "Adolf Hitler was a good leader who was following the Word of Christ". He also wanted to have a memorial for Hitler outside Gestapo headquarters. This time he spent two months in jail.

Neil Horan has been compared to Jimmy Jump, a Catalan pitch invader who has been arrested and punished on numerous occasions. Jimmy doesn't seem to want to stop and Horan is probably the same. So if you're at the Olympics in Beijing and you see a small man wearing a kilt, beware. He might just be the star of the show. • wary adj worried; nervous about something to ordain vb to make someone a priest in a church service to swerve v to move / turn quickly so you don't hit something an Irish jig n an Irish dance a marshal r an official at a sporting event infamous a famous for something bad / negative a frontrunner the leader in a race The Second Coming n the time when Jesus returns to earth a suspended sentence a jail sentence that you only serve if you commit another crime a stunt n an action designed to get publicity to be defrocked to be prohibited from practising as a priest antics n funny or controversial actions weird ad verv strange the Chancellor the elected leader of Germany headquarters n the main offices of an organisation / company, etc a pitch invader a member of the public who runs onto a playing field during ar official game a kilt n Scottish/Irish clothing for men. It is similar to a skirt

GLOSSARY

HEADLINE NEWS

Headline News N° 6

The voice of the people

London 2008

The War in Darfur This is a military conflict in the Darfur region of western Sudan. One side of the armed conflict is composed mainly of the Sudanese military and the Janjaweed, a militia group recruited mostly from the Arab tribes of the north. The other side comprises a variety of rebel groups, notably the Sudan Liberation Movement and the Justice and Equality Movement, recruited primarily from non-Arab ethnic groups. The conflict began in February of 2003. A combination of decades of drought, desertification and overpopulation are among the causes of the Darfur conflict. Tensions rose as nomads from the north went south searching for water.

GLOSSARY

to sue vb to start a legal process against someone in order to get compensation a fashion house a company that designs clothes a logo a symbol that represents a company an awareness campaign publicity work that is designed to inform people about a situation to come up with ext to think of starving ext adj very, very hungry a handbag n a bag that is carried in the hand (often for women) to earn v to get money in return for work to speak out phr vb to strongly criticise in public

Fading Fashion

Fashion company sues Sudan campaigner.

An art student in Denmark is being sued by French fashion house Louis Vuitton. The student used their logo in a third-world awareness campaign. Nadia Plesner is one of a group of several artists and designers who are trying to help people in the Darfur region in western Sudan. They came up with a design to draw attention to the problems. The design shows a starving Sudanese child holding a little dog and a Louis Vuitton handbag – a symbol of the rich western world. She says that the design is very popular and that the awareness campaign has been more successful than she hoped. Many people have ordered T-shirts and posters with the design. She said that she wanted the fashion group to work with her. She also said that all the money earned from her work would go they have to protect their brand. The Sudanese government has been fighting against rebels in Darfur for many years now. The conflict has spread to Chad, to the campaign to save Darfur. However,

Louis Vuitton see it differently. They said that which is directly west of Sudan. The people of Darfur say that the government has committed many human rights abuses. They also say that militias, called Janjaweed, attack villages and towns with the help of the government.

Many people in the west have tried to raise awareness of the situation, and famous people such as George Clooney and Steven Spielberg have spoken out about it. To find out more about the campaign go to www.savedarfur.org s the popular Billy Joel song goes, "Only the good die young". In Hollywood, that's partly true. And there are many entertainers who die before they have a chance to develop. Their potential is robbed at an early age, and the public is left shocked, abandoned and questioning nature's ways. Marilyn Monroe, James Dean and River Phoenix are among the most famous legends of American cinema who died young.

YOUNG STARS

Marilyn Monroe is arguably one of the most famous American pop icons. She was an actress, a singer and a model. Born in California in 1926, her life was unstable from the start. Never knowing her father and having a mentally- unsound mother, young Marilyn was tossed around from one foster family to the next. She often felt lonely. But things improved as she got older. In 1944, she was working in a parachute factory. One day, photographers took her photo as part of a feature on women's contribution to the war effort. The photos were a great success, and years later, she became an A-list actress, starring in films such as Some Like it Hot and Gentlemen Prefer Blondes. At the age of 36, after winning awards and the acclamation of famous directors and fellow actors, Marilyn was at the top of her career. Unfortunately, on 5th August 1962, four days after a marriage proposal from Joe DiMaggio, Marilyn Monroe was found dead. Sedatives were found in her blood, but the autopsy could not determine if she had died from suicide or homicide.

James Dean knew sadness long before the end of his short life. His mother died when he was only nine years old. Soon after, his father sent him to live with his aunt. In high school, James met a Methodist pastor who served as his mentor and encouraged his interest in the theatre. When James went to college and changed his major from pre-law to drama, this led to estrangement from his father. James held steadfast to this dream and starred in blockbusters such as East of Eden and Rebel Without a Cause, which rebellious teenagers have identified with since the 1950s. James Dean died in a car accident at the age of 24.

River Phoenix lived a full life in his 23 years. Before becoming an actor, he spent his early childhood living in Venezuela under the control of a religious cult. Phoenix admitted that he endured sexual abuse from the age of 4. When he was 8, his family returned to the United States. They were very poor, and depended on money from River and his sister. With the encouragement of his parents, River began a career in show business and acted in movies such as Stand By Me and The Thing Called Love, in which he performed all of the songs. He was a vegetarian and an advocate of several humanitarian causes. However, he started using drugs in the late 1980s and so began his downward spiral until his death from a drug overdose in 1993.

These three young film actors achieved so much in their short lifetimes. But although their lives were tragically cut short, their legacies will live on.

Marilyn Monroe (1st June 1926 – 5th August 1962)

Two of Marilyn's most famous films were Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and How to Marry a Millionaire.

James Dean (8th February 1931 – 30th September 1955)

troubled high school student Jim Stark in Rebel Without a Cause. He was the first actor to receive a posthumous Academy Award nomination. He had a passion for car racing. He died when his Porsche 550 Spyder (called "Little Bastard") crashed.

River Phoenix (23rd August 1970 – 31st October 1993)

River Phoenix (born River Jude

Bottom), was a promising actor in the 1980s. One of his most famous films was Stand By Me. He also played young Indiana Jones in Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade. Tragically, he died of a drug overdose.

GLOSSARY

an icon n a symbol of something mentally-unsound adj not mentally healthy; not completely sane to toss around phrvb to "throw" from one place to another a foster family n a family that takes care of a child officially a mentor n

someone who teaches you things and gives you advice over a period of time

a major n US

in American English, your "major" is the subject you are studying at university estrangement n if you are "estranged" from someone, you are no longer in communication with that person to hold steadfast exp to continue doing what you were doing before; to be strong in a belief encouragement n if you receive "encouragement", you are given confidence, praise and thanks for what you are doing a downward spiral n

if you are on a "downward spiral", things are getting worse and worse to live on phrvb

to survive; to continue to be known / popular, etc

The Dark Knight... Why so Serious?

he summer of 2008 is no laughing matter. The latest addition to the Batman movies, The Dark Knight, will be released this month and this one is different. While the previous Batman movie, Batman Begins (2005), centred on the fall of a corrupt gangster, this sequel deals with a villain who is even more wayward. In this film, The Joker will be wreaking havoc through the crime-ridden streets of Gotham City. With Christian Bale returning as Batman, he and district attorney Harvey Dent / Two-Face (played by Aaron Eckhart), will team up in an attempt to purify the corrupt city, and get to the root of a series of murders. During the film, The Joker (Heath Ledger), a sociopath with no sense of moral decorum, and Batman meet. They are forced to confront each other while battling their own personal demons.

To prepare for his portrayal of The Joker, Heath Ledger lived by himself in a dark motel room for a month so as to create a different voice and posture than previous Joker actors have used.

Ledger wanted to make the character dark and edgy, which he achieves through the character's physical mannerisms, his laugh and his make-up. This summer, audiences will see that Heath Ledger's Joker is anything but funny. ©

GLOSSARY the fall of someone exc

if a powerful person has a "fall", they lose power to deal with phrvb to be about a villain n a bad / evil character in a film wavward a difficult to control to wreak havoc ex to cause a lot of damage / destruction to get to the root of something exp to find the cause of something a sociopath n a person who acts against societv and who doesn't care about people to battle your own personal demons @ to try to solve your own personal problems portrayal n the way that an actor shows a character in a film

2 www.hotenglishmagazine.com For lots more content, visit the blog at: www.hotenglishmagazine.com/blog

HeathLedger Too Little, Too Soor

eath Ledger is famous for his roles as a knight from A Knight's Tale, a heartthrob from Ten Things I Hate About You, a gay cowboy in Brokeback Mountain, and The Joker in the upcoming Batman film, The Dark Knight. The Australian actor has portrayed a wide range of characters in his 28 short years. He fought hard to play against his boyish good looks by choosing a varied scope of complex characters. But tragically, this actor and father passed away in January 2008 after an alleged prescription-drug overdose. Michelle Williams was his long-time girlfriend, and he also left behind a two-and-a-half year-old daughter, Matilda.

But before that fateful evening in January, Heath Ledger had a thirst for life and for new challenges. Vanity Fair quoted him as saying, "I only do this because I'm having fun. The day I stop having fun, I'll just walk away... I don't want to spend the rest of my youth doing this in this industry. There's so much I want to discover." His "livefor-the-now" outlook on life and his joy of fatherhood are qualities that Heath's friends and family undoubtedly miss. But even though he is gone, his memory will live on through his films and his

GLOSSARY

a knight n a medieval soldier (from the 5th to 16th centuries) a heartthrob n

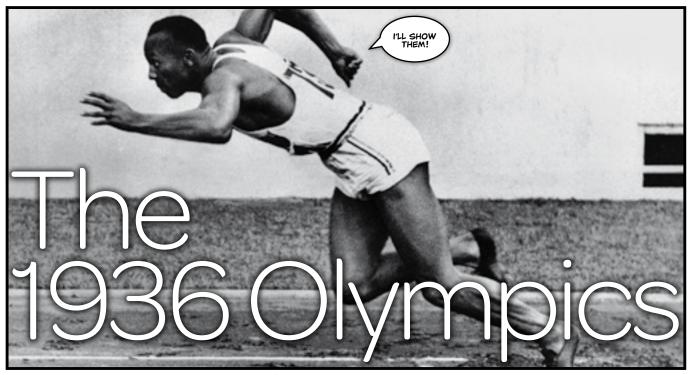

a very attractive famous person to pass away phrvb

to die a thirst for life exp

a desire to do things in life and to enjoy life

a challenge n something difficult but interesting for you because it will push you to new limits

n the summer of 1936, Berlin was covered with the swastika flag and the Führer, Adolf Hitler, was proclaiming the superiority of the Aryan race to the world. But there were some American competitors, the grandchildren of slaves, who came to spoil the Nazis' party. By the time the Olympics were over, Hitler's propaganda was smashed to pieces.

The most famous of these Olympians was Jesse Owens. Owens was the son of a farmer and was often sick as a child. He also had to work after school as his family was very poor. Despite this he practised running at school with the help of a friendly coach and shocked America by equalling the world record in the 100-yard dash in the American High School Championships. He also won the long jump in these games.

In the Olympic Games of 1936, Germany won the most medals but Hitler was sent away with a bloody nose. Owens won four gold medals including the 100 metres, the 200 metres, the 4 x 100 metres relay, and the long jump. During the long jump event, Owens was having trouble when a friendly German competitor called Lutz Long gave him some advice, which helped Owens qualify and eventually win the gold medal (Long won the silver medal). Lutz Long died in World War II, but Jesse Owens became friends with his family. Owens and the 100 metres silver medallist Ralph Metcalfe, also an Afro-American, then controversially replaced two Jewish competitors on the relay team. It is said that the American team appeased the wishes of the Nazis who asked them not to humiliate them by using Jewish competitors. Despite the racism of the Nazis, thousands of ordinary Germans cheered Owens and asked for his autograph.

After the games Owens said that he was angrier with the US president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, than Hitler because he didn't get any congratulations from the president – not even a telegram. He felt that it was ironic that while he was allowed to travel and socialise with white people in Germany, he couldn't even do that in his own country. For the rest of his life, he wasn't very rich as he was disqualified from amateur athletics after accepting an advertising deal. He once said that, "I have four gold medals but you can't eat a medal". He died in 1980. A street in Berlin is named after him.

Some of the other African-American athletes included Ralph Metcalfe and Cornelius Johnson, who won the gold medal for the high jump. Mack Robinson won the 200 metres silver medal. His brother Jackie was famous for becoming the first black player in the US major baseball league and also for his civil rights campaigning.

The eighteen Afro-American athletes who competed in the Berlin Olympics did so at a time when racism was rife across the world, including the USA and not just in Germany. They should be remembered for their contribution to the fight against racism and being a major inspiration for the American Civil Rights Movement. © the Aryan Race n white Europeans. Hitler thought they were superior to other races to spoil vb to ruin to smash to pieces vb to destroy totally a coach a sports trainer a yard n a measurement – three feet (90 centimetres approximately a dash n a short rur a bloody nose e if you get a "bloody nose", you are humiliated the relay r a race where four runners take turns to run, one after the other to appease vb to do something for someone in order to stop them being angry an autograph n a famous person's signature advertising deal n a publicity agreement a myth n an untrue story rife adj very common

GLOSSARY

DREAM BIG

portswear corporations are famous for their advertising campaigns. These often feature high-level sportspeople, especially footballers. Advertising campaigns for Nike, Diadora and Umbro, amongst others, have featured footballing legends such as Roy Keane and Eric Cantona. Millions of euros are spent on eye-catching television adverts and billboard campaigns in a battle of the corporations. But this year, Adidas are taking a totally different approach with a series of films entitled Dream Big.

Players involved in the production include David Beckham, Patrick Viera and former Chelsea manager José Mourinho. Real Madrid Football Club were also heavily involved in the production of the films. For the film, worldclass footballers went to remote locations in Europe (The Isles of Scilly in the UK, Andorra and San Marino) to coach the next generation of up-and-coming soccer players. Adidas' advertising group, 180, selected groups of boys and girls from these areas to take part in a documentary without telling them that the soccer stars were also involved. The kids were pleasantly surprised to discover that they were about to get coaching and advice from players like Kaká and Xabi Alonso. In this case, the two players, along with Robin Van Persie, were in San Marino, one of the smallest countries in Europe. They have a minimal football presence, and their international side has only ever won a single game in their competitive history, against Liechtenstein. They are ranked 200th in the world.

In the next part, in the Isles of Scilly off the south coast of England, players host a two-team competition. Steven Gerrard, Michael Ballack, Patrick Viera and David Beckham give advice and answer questions from the wannabe stars. The final film is about a group of young Andorran players going to Santiago Bernabéu in Madrid. José Mourinho is on hand to help before they leave, giving them a coaching session before they start their journey. Lionel Messi and Arjen Robben also turn up on their journey to help and their trip ends inside a crowded Bernabéu.

The campaign explores the idea that "Impossible is Nothing" – that your dreams can be achieved. "It is great to work on projects like this. Adidas have always used top-class athletes alongside everyday people and this continues that tradition," said Richard Bullock, a creative director from 180. The films will be shown around the world and the concept has been tied in with international events such as Euro 2008. It's a very original idea and will certainly inspire people to "Achieve the Impossible". © eye-catching adj that makes you look at it because it is different / colourful / shocking, etc to take a different approach exp to do something differently; to deal with something in a different and novel way to be entitled vb to be called a kid n a voung person; a child minimal ad not very important: insignificant a wannabe someone who "wants to be' something / somebody crowded a with many people everyday ordinary to tie in with exp to connect concepts and ideas

GLOSSARY

Cenglish

the low-down

Ing

2008

THE OLYMPICS ARE THE BIGGEST SPORTING EVENT OF THE YEAR AND FOR THE MONTH THERE ARE PLENTY OF RACES AND COMPETITIONS TO KEEP YOUR INTEREST. THE GAMES ARE ALREADY FAMOUS BECAUSE OF THE POLITICAL CONTROVERSY SURROUNDING THEM. THIS HAS INCLUDED PRO-TIBETAN PROTESTS AND AN ALLEGED TERRORIST PLOT TO ATTACK THE GAMES BY ISLAMIC SEPARATISTS IN ONE OF CHINA'S PROVINCES. THE EARTHQUAKE IN CHINA HAS ALSO HIT THE HEADLINES. BUT AS THE MAIN FOCUS OF THE OLYMPIC GAMES SHOULD BE THE SPORT, HERE'S A LOOK AT SOME OF THE MAIN SPORTING EVENTS.

36 www.hotenglishmagazine.com For lots more content, visit the blog at: www.hotenglishmagazine.com/blog

HAS ANYONE GOT A MATCH? Cenglish Language services

Track Events

Running events have always been one of the most popular parts of the Olympics. The track section of the games has events ranging from the 100-metre sprint to the 10,000-metre long-distance run. Relays and hurdling are also a feature of the track section.

Field Events

There is a wide range of events here. The long jump is an event where the winner jumps the longest distance. The world record for the long jump, which was set in 1968, remained unbroken for 23 years after African-American athlete Bob Beaman jumped 8.9 metres. The high jump was revolutionised during the 1968 Olympics with the invention of the Fosbury Flop. This was a technique with which the competitor jumps over the bar while looking away from the crossbar. This method wasn't possible before as the landing area used to be a sandpit so the invention of foam matting meant jumpers could experiment with new techniques. So, as the jumper didn't have to be as careful when landing, the world records began to rise dramatically.

The pole vault is a type of high jump only that there's a pole to raise the athlete even higher. Other events include the shot putt, which involves throwing a heavy metal ball, and the javelin, which involves throwing a spear.

Boxing

The world of professional boxing has always had to fight accusations of being corrupt and matches being fixed. But if you like real boxing done well, the Olympics are the place to be. Amateur boxing is much safer than professional boxing as the competitors wear head-guards and use padded boxing gloves. The main country to watch out for here is Cuba, where the game is totally amateur. Many boxers from other countries have launched successful professional careers after competing in the Olympics including Britain's Amir Khan and Irishman Wayne McCulloch.

Football

Soccer isn't generally thought of as an Olympic sport but it has always been included. This year it is a 16-team competition in which 18 of the 23 players on each squad must be 23 years old or under.

The Marathon This is one of the most famous Olympic events and dates back the stories of Apriant Graces It of Beijing, ending up in the Olympic stadium.

Every Olympic Games has an image of the host country to show and China is no exception.

Mascots and an Olympic slogan have been chosen to project the significance of the games. This year the slogan is One World, One Dream. It was selected in an international competition which over 200,000 people entered. Action movie star and Kung Fu expert Jackie Chan has recorded a song for the games. The Olympic mascots are called Fuwa

(good luck dolls). They are images of little animals with parts of the five elements from Chinese philosophy, which are earth, fire, water, wood and metal. The opening ceremony of the games will have performances by Celine Dion and Jay Chou, a Taiwanese singer.

However, the publicity campaign surrounding the Olympic Games hasn't been without controversy. Hollywood director Stephen Spielberg pulled out of his role as an artistic advisor to the Olympic Games in protest at

China's support for the Sudanese government. The Khartoum government is accused of human rights abuses in the Darfur region of Sudan. Also, the carrying of the Olympic torch around the world

Despite the controversy surrounding the games, the International Olympic Committee (IOC) has tried to keep the event apolitical. The idea of the games is that people forget their differences of opinion for the duration of the Olympics and that all the world has a vision of world peace. There will always be protests around large events but the main issues are sport and competition. If you want to see people competing for the love of sport then the Olympics are the place to be. It is one of the last major sporting events of the world that is totally amateur (although this is disputed – many people think that the games aren't really amateur anymore because of sponsorship deals for athletes). Whatever you think of the issues surrounding the Games of the XXIX Olympiad, they are the main event of the summer and a must-see. O

GLOSSARY

a headline n

report / article

the title / words at the top of a news

the track n the path around the side of the Olympic field for running events a relav a running competition in which competitors take turns carrying a baton (a small stick) hurdling r a running event in which you have to jump over obstacles a crossbar a horizontal bar that you have to jump over foam matting n a thick, padded mat made from very soft, thick material a pole / very long metal object a javelin / a sharp spear used for sport fixed ad when something is fixed the result is illegally determined before the to launch vb to begin a host r a country / city that is organising an event a mascot a character that symbolises an event, person or group the elements r the basic materials that the earth is made of to pull out phr vb to say you are no longe participating in turn e subsequently; then apolitical a without a political opinion or affiliation sponsorship r money given to someone / a money given to someone / a company / an organisation in return for advertising a company's products

Cendifish Language services

People to look out for in this year's Olympics. By Kejan Haynes

Olympic Champions

jing 2008

IT COMES ONCE EVERY FOUR YEARS. THE OLYMPICS SET THE STAGE FOR SOME OF THE MOST TALENTED ATHLETES IN THE WORLD TO STEP UP AND SHOW THEIR WORTH. HERE ARE SOME NAMES TO LOOK OUT FOR THIS YEAR. THIS YEAR'S GAMES ARE BEING HELD IN BEIJING FROM 8TH – 24TH AUGUST 2008.

38 www.hotenglishmagazine.com For lots more content, visit the blog at: www.hotenglishmagazine.com/blog

Usain Bolt. 21. JAMAICA – SPRINTER

(TRACK AND FIELD) This relatively unknown sprinter lived up to his name and created a new 100-metre world record in early June. The 21-year-old speedster is now the new favourite and hopes to run away with the Olympic gold medals in the 100 metres and 200 metres.

Spanish National Team – BASKETBALL

This team of FIBA world champions is undoubtedly the best in Europe and ranked second in the world. But they'll need to beat a powerful US team if they want to take Olympic Gold.

Tan Xue, 24,

CHINA – FENCING This fencer from China is ready for a fight. She was the women's silver medal winner at the Athens Olympic Games and is now the favourite for this year's gold.

Phelps made a games in Athens. He won six gold medals at the 2004 Athens Olympics and could win that many or more – in August in Beijing. If he does, he will hold the record for the most gold medals in Olympic history.

Daniel Keatings, 18, GREAT BRITAIN -

GYMNASTICS In late May, he took the gold in the "World Stars" competition in Moscow. He participates in the allaround, team, parallel bars and pommels. Look for him swinging into action in August.

Ky Hurst 27.

AUSTRALIA – OPEN-WATERSWIMMING Ky Hurst is the only man to ever win 7 Australian "Ironman" titles. He's swimming in the men's 10 km marathon, appearing for the first time in these Olympics. Look out for his (and the sport's) debut on 21st August.

Ana Ivanovic. 20. SERBIA – TENNIS

This Serbian heartthrob hopes to do well in her first Olympic appearance. She's ranked number 2 in women's tennis and number 1 in > her country. Her face is already on a postage stamp there. Hopefully she can bring home the gold... and the mail!

Melanie Roach, 33, USA - WEIGHTLIFTING Melanie Roach is the ultimate comeback kid. Eight years

Olympics due to a back injury. Afterwards, she took time off to start a family, and then started training again three years ago after a surgery to correct the problem. If she wins the gold, it'll be a tremendous weight off her shoulders... in more ways than one.

Shawn Johnson, 16. USA - GYMNASTICS

This young woman from lowa is well on her way to being an Olympic champion. As the 2007 World All-Around Champion, as well as the 2007 US National All-Around Champion, she is the favourite to grab the gold in Beijing. She's a regular high school girl by day and a dedicated gymnast by night. A gold medal will certainly put a little spring in her step.

The Mascots: BEIBEI, JINGJING, HUANHUAN, YINGYING AND NINI.

OK, so they're not really athletes, but expect to see these guys all over the Beijing games. Fuwa, as they're called, carry messages of peace and friendship to everyone all over the world. The mascots represent the Olympic Flame and China's most popular animals: the fish, the panda, the Tibetan antelope and the swallow. They also have rhyming two-syllable names, a traditional way of expressing affection for children in China: Beibei, Jingjing, Huanhuan, Yingying and Nini. When you put their names together, Bei Jing Huan Ying Ni, it translates as "Welcome to Beijing!" Very clever! 3 a sprinter n a fast runner who runs short distances to run away with something exp to "steal" something and run away; to take something undoubtedly adv without a doubt; surely to make a big splash exp to make a big impression. If you splash" in the water, you cause a lot of water to fall out of the sea / pool, to swing into action exp to start doing something with energy and force a debut n the first time you appear somewhere or in a competition a heartthrob n an attractive person who is very popular a comeback kid n a person who participates in an event again after previously failing a spring in your step r if you have a "spring in your step" you walk quickly because you are happy

GLOSSARY

Michael Phelps 23. USA -SWIMMING

big splash in the 2004

MATCH EACH JOKE BEGINNING (1 TO 8) WITH ITS ENDING (A-H). THEN, LISTEN TO CHECK YOUR ANSWERS. ANSWERS ON THE WEBSITE

1. What should you do if you find a snake in your bed?

CD track 18

- 2. I always wondered why babies spend so much time sucking their thumbs.
- 3. Waitress, there's a fly in my soup.
- 4. Waitress, my plate is wet.
- 5. Waitress is there soup on the menu.
- 6. Waitress, there's a button in my soup?
- Customer: Waiter, this lobster has only got one claw?
 Waiter: He must have been in a fight, madam.
- 8. What's on television tonight?
- A: Don't worry, ma'am. The spider in the bread will get it.
- B: The same as always: a vase of flowers and a bowl of fruit.
- C: Thank you, ma'am. I wondered what had happened to it.
- D: Sleep in the wardrobe.
- E: No ma'am, I wiped it all off.
- F: Then I tasted baby food.
- G: It's not wet ma'am, that's the soup.
- H: Customer: Well, bring me the winner.

GLOSSARY

a thumb n the thick finger on your hand a menu n a piece of paper with a list of food that a restaurant serves a lobster n a sea creature with a hard shell, two a sea creature with a hard shell, t claws and eight legs a claw n a part of a lobster / crab / scorpion that is at the end of its legs a vase n a container for flowers to wipe off phr vb to clean

HOMEWORK BY DANIEL COUTOUNE

HERE ARE SOME MORE EXAMPLES OF BRITISH TOILET GRAFFITI.

DEATH IS HEREDITARY. ALWAYS BE SINCERE ... EVEN WHEN YOU DON'T MEAN IT.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS IS USUALLY UNDER CONSTRUCTION.

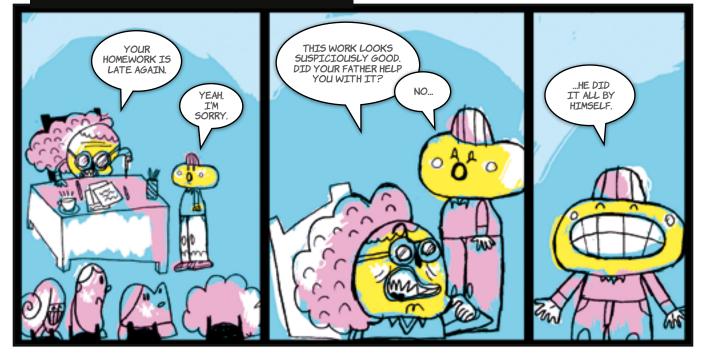

I AM NOBODY. NOBODY IS PERFECT. THEREFORE, I MUST BE PERFECT!

MATURITY IS KNOWING WHEN AND WHERE TO BE IMMATURE.

I NEVER MET A CHOCOLATE I DIDN'T LIKE.

GLOSSARY hereditary ad

an illness / condition / trait that is passed on to a child by the parents immature adj childish: not adult

(eng

Listening I

Who says it? Write "R" (receptionist) or "C" (caller) next to each phrase. Listen once and check.

- 1. "There will be four of us."
- 2. "How much is each room?"
- 3. "I just need your credit card details."
- 4. "What is the cardholder's name, please?"

Listening II

What is the total cost of the hotel booking? Listen again to check.

- a. €500
- b. €600
- c. €700

Listening III

Listen again and answer the questions.

- 1. How many people are there in the party?
- 2. How many double rooms do they want?
- 3. When are they arriving?
- 4. When are they leaving?
- 5. How much is each room?6. What is the cardholder's
- name, please?
- 7. What is the credit card number?
- 8. What is the credit card expiry date?

Can playing games make you smarter?

Rearrange the letters below to find four words that mean "intelligent". 1. $A \top R M S$

CD track 33

LISTENING

JPPER INTERMEDIATE

2.	L	Е	Е	V	С	R
3.	Y	А	В	Ν	R	I

4. THRIBG

Discussion

- 1. Do you know anyone who you consider to be intelligent? Who? Why?
- 2. Do you think there is a standard form of intelligence? Or are there many forms? For example: sporting, emotional, musical, interpersonal, intrapersonal, etc.
- 3. What is the best way to measure intelligence?

Listening 1

One of the questions in the conversations is:

How can you make yourself smarter in a week?

Do you think it is possible to increase your intelligence? How? Think of as many ideas as you can. Then listen and compare your ideas to the ones in the conversation.

- 🛛 🛛 Listening II

Listen again. How can you become smarter? What should you do? What shouldn't you do? Complete the chart with the ideas mentioned.

Not do "X"	Do"√"

Grammar spot!

Gerund versus infinitive As you know, verbs in English are followed by a gerund or an infinitive. For example, "to avoid doing something" but "to promise to do something". However there are some verbs that take both, and there is often change in meaning. Compare the following sentences:

- 1. I tried to do my homework but it was too difficult.
- 2. A: I can't seem to make any progress in my English classes.B: Have you tried going on a course abroard?

The first sentence (with the infinitive) means "to make an effort to do something".

The second sentence (with the gerund) means "to do something as an experiment". This is often

Pre listening – anagrams Rearrange the letters below to fi

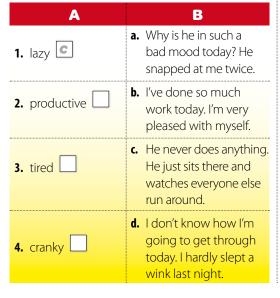

Sleeping on the Job

Guilt-free napping for better working conditions.

Tired? Cranky? Not productive? Why don't you take a nap... at work! Big companies are becoming "nap friendly" as recent studies in Britain and the US show that a nap a day keeps laziness away. Around 70% of American workers get some z's at the office already. But they have to do it secretly: apparently 4% of men and 8% of women nap in bathroom cubicles with a toilet paper pillow. Nap guru Bill Anthony says, "Employees are napping secretly from other employees and the employers are too tired to know that it is happening... It's an epidemic that we need to start dealing with." A study shows that companies could "improve productivity, mood and health" by letting workers snooze during breaks with no consequences. To spread awareness, Anthony created National Sleep at Work Day, which is on 10th March. And to help promote the idea, Sheraton Hotels sponsor nationwide "napathons" on this day. Nike, Pizza Hut and Google are among the corporations to institute "pro-nap policies." Pizza Hut allows napping during breaks. Nike has installed "relaxation rooms" and Google has a massage parlour so employees can "nap and rejuvenate". Yelo, a New York City "naptime spa", brings sweet dreams to many executives. And for many people, "power napping" is the new coffee break. A 20-minute snooze only costs $12 in one of Yelo's snazzy sleep rooms. Metronaps, another New York company, installs special nap furniture at nap-friendly companies. Could this mean the end for coffee giant Starbucks? •

Pre reading – Tiredness

Match the descriptive adjectives (1-4) to something that this person would say (a-d).

Discussion

- 1. How do you feel today? Which adjective from Exercise 1 best describes your mood?
- 2. Do you have any lazy colleagues? Who?
- 3. Do you get cranky at work? Why? When?
- 4. Are you having a productive day today? Why? Why not?
- 5. When are you most productive?

Reading I

What do you think are the main benefits of napping at work? Discuss this with a partner. Then read the article to compare your ideas.

Reading IIWhat do the numbers below refer to? 1. 70 = ______

CD track 21

GLOSSARY

- a nap n a little sleep, often in the middle of the day to get some z's exp US inform to sleep
- to sleep a bathroom cubicle n
- a room in the bathroom with a toilet in it for sitting down
- a pillow n a soft object that you put your head
- on when you sleep to snooze vb
- to sleep lightly and for a short
- period of time to spread awareness exp
- if you "spread awarenes" of
- something, you tell / inform many people about it
- to rejuvenate vb to make you feel fresh / awake /
- to make you fee young again
- snazzy adj

(engl

$- A \square \square \square$

Alligator health secrets.

LET ME THROUGH! I'M A DOCTOR.

Say good-bye to sickness, and hello to alligator antibiotics. Did you ever imagine an alligator could save your life? Alligators look pre-historic, but their built-in antibiotic protection is far more advanced than human resistance to many illnesses. Alligators are territorial and often have violent confrontations; but their wounds never become fatally infectious. Moreover, they live in swampy environments full of bacteria that could lead to infections, but heal quickly. Scientists wondered why. But now they have the answer. New research by scientists in Louisiana (home to many alligators) found that something in alligator blood works as an anti-virus. Tested against 23 different types of bacteria, alligator blood killed off all of them. Above all, alligator blood destroyed a significant amount of HIV, the virus that causes AIDS. Human blood can only kill 8 different strains of bacteria, and cannot destrov HIV.

It is the peptides (fragments of proteins) in alligator blood that keeps them from getting infections. Other animals with the same peptides are frogs, toads and crocodiles. Within the next decade, products like pills and creams with alligator peptides will be available at the local pharmacy. Researchers say these products will be especially useful for "patients that need extra help preventing infections, such as diabetes patients, burn victims and people suffering from auto-immune diseases" including HIV. &

🚺 Pre reading – Anagrams

Rearrange the letters to find the "reptile" words.

- 1. grofs ____
- 2. dota _____
- 3. idroccole _____
- 4. aglatilor
- 5. anesk _____
- 6. drazil _____
- 7. went ____

Reading I

Before reading, look at the article title and the quote below. What do you think the article is about? Then read to check your answers.

...their built-in "antibiotic protection is far more advanced than human resistance to many illnesses".

Reading II

Read the article again and answer the questions.

- 1. Where do alligators live?
- 2. How do alligators kill off bacteria?
- 3. What are peptides?
- 4. What kind of patients will benefit from these medications with alligator peptides?

Word Alert!

In English we have lots of words to describe the same thing. These are called synonyms. For example, an "illness", a "sickness" and a "disease" are all more or less the same. However, we tend to use "disease" for more serious conditions transmitted by bacteria or infection.

HAS ANYONE GOT A GATOR?

> built-in ad that forms part of something territorial a if an animal is "territorial", it has an area of land that it regards as its own

a confrontation n

- a fight; a conflict a wound n
- a deep cut or injury
- swampy environments n areas of land that are wet
- to heal vb
- to cure; to become better
- a strain of something n a type of something
- a pharmacy n US
- a shop where you can buy
- medicines. A "chemist's" in British English

OCABUL A heswin

LEARN SOME USEFUL WORDS AND EXPRESSIONS TO TALK ABOUT THE SWIMMING POOL.

Swimming pool the place where you swim.

Baby pool (also known as the wading pool) – a shallow pool for children.

who is there to protect the swimmers.

Changing rooms - the place where you get changed and put on your swimming costume.

The footbath – a little area of water designed to clean your feet.

Towel – the object you use to dry yourself.

Goggles the glasses you can use

so you can see under the water.

Swimming caps - tight rubber hats that you are obliged to wear in some swimming pools.

Swimwear – clothing you wear at the swimming pool. Men generally wear swimming trunks (or simply "trunks"), and women wear a swimming costume or a bikini.

Arm bands -

the plastic inflatable objects young swimmers wear around their arms.

Diving board – a high concrete or plastic board that you can jump off.

TYPES OF SWIMMING - there are a number of swimming styles. Here are the principal ones:

Crawl / front crawl

- this method of swimming consists of moving your arms over your head while kicking with your legs.

Breaststroke - this consists of outward movements with your arms and legs.

Backstroke - this method consists of moving your arms backwards while kicking with your legs.

Doggy paddling – this consists of moving your hands and legs in the water as a dog does.

The butterfly - this method consists of moving your arms in circular movements. O

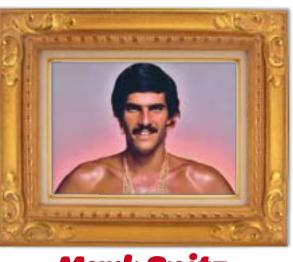

IN THIS CONVERSATION, ALAN IS BUYING A TICKET TO GO SWIMMING.

Alan:	Good morning. I'd like a ticket for the pool, please.
Employee:	Can you swim?
Alan:	Yes.
Employee:	Let's see then. Do the breaststroke.
Alan:	What? Here?
	Yes. Come on. Show me how you do the breaststroke. (He does.) Well, that's not very good, is it? Move your legs a bit.
Alan:	l can't.
	Why? Can't you swim?
Alan:	Well, no. Not on land.
Employee:	Right. Show me the crawl. (He does.) Ah, that's better. Very fine. Now, did you bring a gun?
Alan:	No. Do I need one?
Employee:	Do you need one? Of course you need one. There are sharks in there.
Alan:	Sharks?
	No, only joking. Right, have you got a wet suit?
Alan:	No, is it cold?
Employee:	Of course it's cold. (He gives him a wet suit.) And a mask?
Alan:	No.
Employee :	Here you are. (He gives him a mask.)
Alan:	What do I need a mask for?
Employee:	Well, the water is very dirty.
	Have you got a pair of trunks?
Alan:	Oh, yes, I've got a pair of trunks.
Employee :	Well, that's good. OK. Now here's your ticket. (He gives him a ticket.) Have fun, and one last thing.
Alan:	What?
Employee:	Don't stop.
Alan:	Don't stop what?
Employee:	Don't stop swimming.
Alan:	Why?
Employee:	Because the crocodiles are very fast. 😒

FACE TO FACE

Mark Spitz

Carl Lewis

THIS MONTH WE'RE LOOKING AT TWO REMARKABLE OLYMPIANS: MARK SPITZ AND CARL LEWIS.

Mark Spitz

Mark Spitz was an American swimmer who was born in 1950 in California. He became famous when he won seven gold medals in the Munich Olympics in 1972. It is a remarkable achievement as he won the gold medal in every event that he entered. In total he won nine gold medals between 1965 and 1972 and set 33 world records in this time. He also competed in the Maccabiah Games. This is an event for Jewish athletes from around the world although Palestinians with Israeli citizenship can also compete. These are similar to the Olympics. He won ten gold medals in two separate Maccabiah games in 1965 and 1969. During the Munich Olympics, the hostage crisis involving the Israeli team cast a shadow over events and Spitz decided to leave after the attack. After the games, and only aged 22, Spitz retired and attempted a career in show business. At one point, there was talk that he would be cast as the next James Bond after Sean Connery, but Roger Moore got the part. He wasn't cut out for the job of acting so he gave up. Recently, he narrated a film documentary about the Hungarian uprising of 1956.

Carl Lewis

Carl Lewis was an American runner and long jumper. He was born in 1960 in Birmingham, Alabama, (the USA) at a time of racial tensions. His father was involved with the Black Civil Rights Movement and they moved away because of racial violence. As an athlete, Lewis became famous in the early 1980s. He had qualified for the Moscow Olympics in 1980 but the US boycotted the games, so he couldn't compete. In the Los Angeles games in 1984 he won four gold medals and nine in total during his sporting career. There was controversy in the LA Games because Lewis believed that he had beaten the world record for the long jump (which had been unbeaten since 1968). However, his jump was judged a foul by officials. He also gained attention after he was accused of being big-headed. The most famous incident occurred in 1988 at the Seoul Olympics when Canadian sprinter Ben Johnson smashed the 100metre world record. Lewis and Johnson had been duelling for about a year and Lewis was totally defeated. But then a drug test found steroids in Ben Johnson's blood and he was disgualified, giving Lewis the medal. Lewis eventually retired in 1997 after qualifying for the Olympics five times. He is now trying to start an acting career.

The verdict

Both men worked very hard to achieve what they did. They have an equal amount of Olympic gold medals. They also suffered for who they were: Mark Spitz for being Jewish; and Carl Lewis for being African-American. However, given that Carl Lewis is also famous for his bigheadedness, our results are as follows: Carl Lewis = 8 / 10; Mark Spitz = 9 / 10. • to cast a shadow over exp to create negative publicity to cast vb if you "cast" someone in a film, you give a part to them in that film to be cut out for phr v to be suitable for to give up phr to stop doing something (ofen because it is too difficult) a foul n an illegal or invalid action in sport big-headed adj vain; egocentric; with ideas of importance and superiority a sprinter n a high-speed runner who runs in short races to duel vb if you are "duelling" with someone, you are in competition with them

GLOSSARY

CD track 25

DRFINGERS' VOCABULARY CLINIC DEING WOODD WITH A START OF A START O

HERE ARE SOME USEFUL AND

INTERESTING EXPRESSIONS FOR YOU TO LEARN. THIS MONTH WE ARE LOOKING AT SOME EXPRESSIONS TO DESCRIBE THE ACT OF BEING WRONG.

Be wide of the mark TO BE WRONG. "If that's your answer then you are still very wide of the mark."

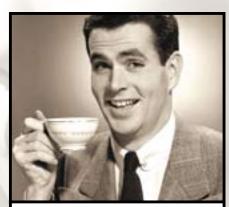

Be on the wrong track TO BE DOING SOMETHING BADLY; TO HAVE THE WRONG IDEA ABOUT SOMETHING. "I think the government are on the wrong track with their ideas on privatising the railways."

Not be up to scratch NOT TO BE ACCEPTABLE. "You're latest work is just not up to scratch."

Be barking up the wrong tree TO BE WRONG ABOUT SOMETHING. "If you think I'm going to help you with this, you're barking up the wrong tree."

Not be your cup of tea NOT BE SOMETHING THAT YOU LIKE. "Frank is not really my cup of tea."

Be like a square peg in a round hole NOT TO BE APPROPRIATE.

"She's just not the right sort of person we need here; she's like a square peg in a round hole."

Back the wrong horse TO SUPPORT SOMEONE WHO FAILS.

"We gave our support to the liberal politician, but he lost the election. I think we backed the wrong horse." GLOSSARY a track n "tracks" are long metal objects on which trains travel to scratch vb if you "scratch" yourself, you move your fingers over a part of your body because it itches to bark vb when a dog "barks", it makes a sound from its mouth a peg n a small piece of wood or metal that is used for fastening something. For example, a "clothes peg" is for holding clothes on the clothes line Cenglish Manuage Services

quirkynews

bout twenty inmates in a maximum security jail in Hobart, man who referred to the police as "pigs" has been given a very strange punishment in Auckland, New Zealand. He was ordered to spend a day at a pig farm so that he could learn the difference between police officers and the animals in question. He also had to write an essay on his experiences on the farm. He wrote that he was very drunk at the time and that, since then, he has given up drinking. However, in spite of his apology, he did add that the word "pig" is in the Oxford English Dictionary and is commonly used to describe the police, albeit in a derogatory way.

GLOSSARY an inmate n

a prisoner

a siege n a situation in which the police or soldiers surround a place in order to force people to come out a pig n inform an insulting term used to refer to the police an essay /

a short piece of writing on one subject - written by a student albeit ex

although; a word used to reduce the significance of what you have just said derogatory adj speaking badly / disrespectfully about someone or something mugger n a person who robs people in the street - often with violence to apologise vb

to say sorry to search for exp

to look for an onlooker a person who watches something while it happens (often in the street) to plead with phr

if you "plead with" someone, you ask that person for something desperately

- english LANGUAGE SERVICES

Tasmania have ended their protest. The prisoners were demanding an improvement in conditions within the jail. At the beginning of the siege, they made 24 demands but finally agreed to end their protest after they were given 15 pizzas, 20 litres of Coca-Cola plus garlic bread. 😒 good-mannered mugger has been jailed in Austria. The gentleman robber grabbed the victim's bag but returned it when he noticed that she had fallen over. He then apologised and explained that he was desperate for money. He helped the elderly woman search for her keys. An onlooker called the police and he was arrested. The victim pleaded with the judge not to send him to jail saying, "When he saw me fall, he came back. Criminals just don't do that anymore." 3

GIVE ME ALL YOUR MONEY, PLEASE.

SAH SOLICITADO UNA BECA DEL IEC?HOTENGLISH PUEDE AYUDARTE A ENCONTRAR MEJOR CURSO PARA TI

Estudia inglés en el Reino Unido, Irlanda y los Estados Unidos

¿Quieres aprender inglés en el Reino Unido, Irlanda o los Estados Unidos?

Para más información, escribe a coursesabroad@hotenglishmagazine.com También puedes llamar al (00 34) 91 455 0273 o reservar tu curso online en www.hotenglishmagazine.com

eng

Business & Technology

Business

Eurotunnel Profit

Eurotunnel has finally turned a profit for the first time in its history with a net profit of €1m last year. The hope is that it will increase this year so that a dividend can be paid to shareholders next year. The company has had problems since trains started operating through the Channel tunnel back in 1994. The company had €3.3 billion in debts written off and had to be restructured and refinanced. Since then, the company's fortunes have improved, and for the first quarter of 2008, sales have increased 15% to €187.6m.

The Channel tunnel is regarded as an amazing feat of engineering. Considered one of the "Seven wonders of the modern world", the construction cost overran itself by 80% by the time it had opened in 1994. ✿

Technology

Online crime hits all time high.

Online Crim

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has reported that online crime is at the highest it has ever been. Losses from last year have totalled $240m or €152m. Auction fraud is the most popular type of internet crime. This entails goods being advertised then subsequently bought but never sent. Other forms of criminal enterprise include credit card fraud, spam mail and computer hacking. But the problem with this report, according to the assistant director of the FBI's Cyber Division, is the large amount of illegal activity that goes totally unreported. James E. Finch said that, "Filing a complaint is the best way to alert law enforcement authorities of internet crime, but that not many people bother to do this." Whether reporting these types of crime improves the situation remains to be seen. ③ GLOSSARY to turn a profit exp to start to make money; to stop losing money a dividend money from the profits of a company that is paid to shareholders a shareholder a person who owns a percentage of a company a debt an amount of money you owe (must pay) to write off phr vb if you "write off" a debt, you cancel the debt a feat of engineering an amazing construction that involves complex engineering an auction a public sale fraud n the crime of gaining money by tricking someone spam mail illegal e-mails sent without the permission of the recipient (the person receiving it) computer hacking entering computer systems illegally to file a complaint exp to report a crime officially to bother to do something e if you "don't bother to do something", you don't do it because you don't want to or you are too lazy to do it

A monthly look at things from the month of July.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

COME AND CELEBRATE JULY WITH US IN OUR SERIES ON ANNIVERSARIES. THIS MONTH: JULY.

2nd July 1900 The first zeppelin flight over Lake Constance near Friedrichshafen, Germany takes place.

8th July 1889 the first issue of The Wall Street Journal, an influential international daily newspaper, is published.

12th July 1543 King Henry VIII of England marries Catherine Parr, his sixth and last wife, at Hampton Court Palace.

13th July 1985 Live Aid benefit concerts, which are organised to raise funds for famine relief in Ethiopia, are held at Wembley Stadium in London and JFK Stadium in Philadelphia.

14th July 1789 Parisians storm the Bastille, freeing its inmates and taking the prison's large quantities of arms and ammunition. The French Revolution begins.

1799 French soldiers discover the Rosetta Stone in the Egyptian port city of Rashid.

17th July 1936 Nationalist rebels in Spain attempt a coup d'état against the Second Spanish Republic. The Spanish Civil War starts.

18th July 64 AD The Great Fire of Rome starts, destroying four of fourteen Roman districts and severely damaging seven others.

22nd July 1933 Wiley Post becomes the first pilot to fly a fixed-wing aircraft solo around the world.

27th July 1865 A group of Welsh settlers arrive at Chubut Valley in Argentina's Patagonia region. Their descendants speak Welsh to this day.

28th July 1990 Alberto Fujimori takes office as the President of Peru, becoming the first person of Japanese descent to be elected as an executive head of state of a Latin American nation.

Canada Day (Canada) Republic Day (Ghana) Independence Day (Belarus) Independence Day (United States) lndependence Day (Venezuela) Independence Day (Malawi) San Fermines (Pamplona, Spain) 34th G8 summit, in Japan h July Independence Day (Argentina) Bastille Day (France) uly the 57th Miss Universe pageant — live from Nha Trang (Vietnam) the 137th British Open, in England. Independence Day (Colombia) Racial Harmony Day (Singapore) Independence Day (Peru) the World

Congress of Philosophy, in Seoul

Bill Gates will step down as the Chairman of Microsoft Corporation

GLOSSARY

a zeppelin n a form of transport that consists of a large, long balloon to raise funds exp to generate money for a cause a famine n a situation in which there is no food and people are suffering relief n money, food, clothing, etc for neople in need to storm vb to attack guickly to free vb to liberate; to let out of prison the Rosetta Stone a stone which helped us understand the meaning of ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics a coup d'état an attack against a government / rulina body a descendant n our "descendants" are the people who are related to us in future generations to take office eto become president / prime minister, etc

itish

Boyfriends

THIS MONTH, CLAIRE AND SARAH ARE TALKING ABOUT BOYFRIENDS.

Claire:	Sarah?
Sarah:	Yeah.
Claire: Sarah:	Have you had many boyfriends?
Saran: Claire:	Erm, a few. OK, so let's think. Have you	, been the one to leave
Claire:	them or have they left you
Sarah:	Erm, mostly the former , l'a
Claire:	What, you've left them?	u say.
Sarah:	Yeah.
Claire:	They've left you?
Sarah:	No, I've left them.
Claire:	OK, now how have you left	ft them?
Sarah:	Oh, that's a difficult one. T
Saran.	really a nice way to do it.
Claire:	Well what did you do for e	vamnla?
Sarah:	Erm, well, it's difficult to a
Saran.	mean, erm, "You're a nice
	the start of it. "It's not you, you've been in similar situ
Claire:	Oh, I've had so many boyf
Chail Ci	you do it? Do you do it ov is it, do you think it's bette
	I think it's best to do it face
Sarah:	Well yeah, I'd have to agre it's, well, I mean it kind of a you've been with somebo
	Í mean, text message I thi
	no-go.
Claire:	Horrendous, yeah. [Yeah.] An email, even worse!
Sarah:	So impersonal. I think, you know, the right thing to do is at least speak to the	nem face to face.
Claire:	Yeah, because, I suppose, if	you have respect for that person they'll then respect you for telling	GLOSSARY
_	them the truth.	the former n
Sarah:	Exactly, exactly. I	the first of two things mentioned to avoid vb mean it's never easy	to try not to do / say / see something a cliché n
	but I think the more	a phrase that is often repeated - straightforward you	so much that it almost becomes meaningless
. .	are about it, the better.	face to face adv in front of someone; while talking Claire:	Agreed. OK, should we	to someone do that then, the next	a no-go exp something you shouldn't / mustn't do
	time we have a boyfriend	horrendous adj
Court	break up from them?	terrible; horrible straightforward n
Sarah:	Good plan! 😒	simple, basic, non-complex

Bugs!

THIS MONTH, TAMMY AND EVAN ARE TALKING ABOUT BUGS (INSECTS).

Evan:	So the other day I was in my apartment and I went into the bathroom and there was a giant cockroach in the toilet.
Tammy: Evan:	Ewww! Yeah, no kidding . It started making these crazy noises and then it flew away.
Tammy:	Oh, that's horrible.
Evan:	Yes, I wasI was devastated . I didn't know what to do. Do you have any strange or crazy fears of bugs?
Tammy:	I do actually. It's kind of embarrassing to mention but I am afraid of water bugs or cockroaches or anything pretty much that goes crunch under your shoe.
Evan:	Eww, water bugs.
Tammy:	I know! They fly!
Evan:	What happens if you see a water bug?
Tammy:	One of two things, that whole flight or frerm fight flight-or-fight reaction . Either I sit there and scream and do absolutely nothing or I run out.
Evan:	What happened the last time you saw a water bug?
Tammy:	Well the last time I saw a water bug, my cousin kicked it at me and I left the building. I ran out of the apartment and I waited in the street.
Evan:	And you're scarred emotionally forever.
Tammy:	Yes, I am! 📀

GLOSSARY

I am not joking; I am being serious devastated adj shocked; very sad; emotionally destroyed to go crunch exp if something goes "crunch", it makes a breaking noise as you tread on it a flight-or-fight reaction n an automatic, instinctive reaction that occurs when you are in danger. "Flight" refers to the act of running away / escaping; "fight" refers to the act of staying and fighting the danger

NEW

NEW HAMPSHIRE N: CONNECTICUT

HERE ARE SOME MORE CRAZY LAWS FROM THE US.

(english

DUMB LAWS

You may not sing in the bathtub. (OHIO)

Firework stores may not sell fireworks to Pennsylvania residents. (PENNSYLVANIA)

You may not catch a fish with your hands. (PENNSYLVANIA)

Dynamite is not to be used to catch fish. (PENNSYLVANIA)

One's pants may be worn no lower than five inches below the waist. (PENNSYLVANIA)

All fire hydrants must be checked one hour before all fires. (PENNSYLVANIA)

It is illegal to sleep on top of a refrigerator outdoors. (PENNSYLVANIA)

A special cleaning ordinance bans housewives from hiding dirt and dust under a rug in a dwelling. (PENNSYLVANIA)

A person is not eligible to become governor if he / she has participated in a duel. (PENNSYLVANIA)

It is contrary to Pennsylvania law to discharge a gun, cannon, revolver or other explosive weapon at a wedding. (PENNSYLVANIA)

Any motorist driving along a country road at night must stop every mile and send up a rocket signal, wait 10 minutes for the road to be cleared of livestock, and continue. (PENNSYLVANIA)

Any motorist who sights a team of horses coming toward him must pull well off the road, cover his car with a blanket or canvas that blends with the countryside, and let the horses pass. (PENNSYLVANIA)

You cannot walk backwards eating peanuts in front of the Barnstormers Auditorium during a performance. (PENNSYLVANIA)

One must make a loud noise before passing a car on the left. (RHODE ISLAND)

Ropes may not be strung across a highway. (RHODE ISLAND)

mav toothpaste and a toothbrush to the same customer on a Sunday. (RHODE ISLAND) 🗯 small objects that are lit to entertain people. They produce loud noises and colourful lights

- pants n U
- clothing you wear to cover your legs. 'Trousers" in British English an inch n
- a measurement of about 2.5 cm
- a fire hydrant n a pipe in the street from which fire fighters can get water an ordinance

a law

- a dwelling n a place where someone lives
- a duel n
- a formal fight between two people, often with guns or swords
- to discharge a gun exp

to fire a gun

- livestock
- animals such as cows, sheep, pigs, etc
- that are kept on a farm to pull off the road exp

to stop the car and to park it at the side of the road to blend with phr vb

to mix with so it becomes similar to: to become a part of

Directory

ENGLISH

practica tu inglés gratis

...intercambios de idiomas ...eventos sociales

...únete a la comunidad internacional online de Madrid...

COURSES ABROAD

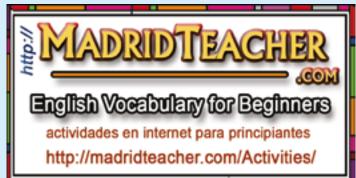

Answer English

Want to Learn English in London?

Answer English can Help You Find the Best Language School & Accommodation for You We offer FREE Advice to Students looking to come to London to Learn English Call us Today on: 902 02 47 49 (from Spain) or +44 20 7402 8651 (from Rest of the World) Visit: www.answerenglish.com or Send an e-mail to: james@answerenglish.com

TEACHING

CINEMA

RENOIR PLAZA DE E S PAÑA Martín de les Heras, 12 28508 MADRID

RENOIR PRINCESA

Princesa, 3-5 Pesaje Martín de los Heros 28508 MADRID

RENOIR CAMINOS Rainando Flat, Villowerda, 10 20502 Madrid

CHONNER & ETIRO

Les Terries vie S009 2424023

PRINCESA

Princeso, 3-5 28508 MADRID

Eugeni D'Ors, 12 08028 BARCELONA

NOIR

GET YOUR CINEMA TICKETS AT:

C/Doctor Cortezo 56 Madrid or by phone: 902 22 09 22

Centro Comercial "El Centro de la Villa" Port Olimpic (08005)

On our web page: www.yelmocineplex.es C/Salvador Espiritú 61

Avda. de España, 51 (zoco de Majadohonda) MAJADAHONDA, MADRID

C/Emperatriz Eugenia, 6 07010 PALMA DE MALLORCA

(english

CTIONARY OF SLANG

HERE WE'VE GOT SOME EXAMPLES OF HOW TO SAY THINGS IN DIFFERENT SITUATIONS.

• Situation	Formal	Relaxed	Informal
Someone tells you something that you think is untrue.	That is not factual.	That isn't true.	That's rubbish; that's nonsense.
You are describing an acquaintance . You don't like this person at all.	He is absolutely despicable.	He isn't very nice.	He's scum; he's the scum of the earth.
You suggest playing some pool.	May I suggest a game of pool?	Do you want to play some pool?	Wanna shoot some pool?
You suggest playing basketball.	Would you care to engage in a game of basketball?	Do you want to play some basketball?	Wanna shoot some hoops ?
You are describing the weather and the recent three- days of rain.	It has rained for three consecutive days with no respite.	It's been raining for three days without stopping.	lt's been chucking it down for three days solid.
You are at a party with some friends. You suggest leaving.	May I suggest that we depart?	Shall we go?	Let's split .

CD track 35

English, and buy yourself a coffee with the change. Buy your copy of Hot English at the Hot English shop (C/Fernández de los Ríos 98, 2A – metro Moncloa) and pay just 4 euros (retail price 5.15). With the 1.15 euros you save, you can buy a lovely cup of coffee and enjoy your copy of Hot English in style.

Please note that some of the words in this glossary box are literal translations of parts of idiomatic an acquaintance n someone who you know; a friend a hoop n a circular object / ring made of wood or plastic. You can jump through the big ones to split vb inform to leave. Literally, "to divide"

GLOSSARY

LANGUAGE SERVICES

līsh

Clases particulares de inglés en casa o academia.

Mejora el nivel de inglés. Precios

para todos nuestros

Ahora con una guía de alumno para tu nivel.

Llámanos ¡Ya! Teléfono: 91 543 3573 classes@hotenglishmagazine.com

> O visita nuestras oficinas en C/Fernández de los Ríos, 98, oficina 2A, Madrid 28015 Metro:

Moncloa, Islas Filipinas, Argüelles www.hotenglishmagazine.com

CD track 36

Exercise

Read the following sentences. Can you correct them? Then listen to check.

- 1. This is the man which son won the competition.
- 2. The town in which the office is located in is in the north.
- 3. Sorry, I wasn't meaning to hit you.
- 4. I cut while I was chopping the carrots.
- 5. "This is fantastic," they told.
- 6. She told to me the story.

Have you got all the copies of Hot English?

Call (0034) 91 549 8523 or e-mail subs@hotenglishmagazine.com or send the form NOW, to: C/Fernández de los Ríos, 98 - 2A, Madrid 28015. BACK ISSUES REQUEST FORM

Yes, I would like some Hot English back issues (see prices below). Total number of magazines Cost Please tick here if you would NOT like to receive the free Hot English newsletter.

DISCOUNT	PRICE	DISCOUNT	PRICE
1 back issue with CD	€6,00	10 back issues with CD	€54,00
2 back issues with CD	€12,00	15 back issues with CD	€81,00
3 back issues with CD	€18,00	20 back issues with CD	€102,00
4 back issues with CD	€24,00	25 back issues with CD	€127,50
5 back issues with CD	€28,00	30 back issues with CD	€144,00
6 back issues with CD	€34,00	35 back issues with CD	€168,00
7 back issues with CD	€39,90	40 back issues with CD	€180,00
8 back issues with CD	€45,60	45 back issues with CD	€202,50
9 back issues with CD	€51,30	50 back issues with CD	€210,00
Postal code:
Felephone:
E-mail:
Age:
DNI/NIF: Profession:
Payment metl
	glish Publishing SL
	, ,	ice charges betweer	ef 1 25 and 67 00

stal Order (Spain only). The Post Office charges between €1,25 and €7,00 for contrareembolsos.

VISA Mastercard __/___/____/

Expiry date: __/ __ Banks charge about €2 for card transactions.

Direct debit (domiciliación bancaria): Account number ____ / ___ / ___ / ___ / ____

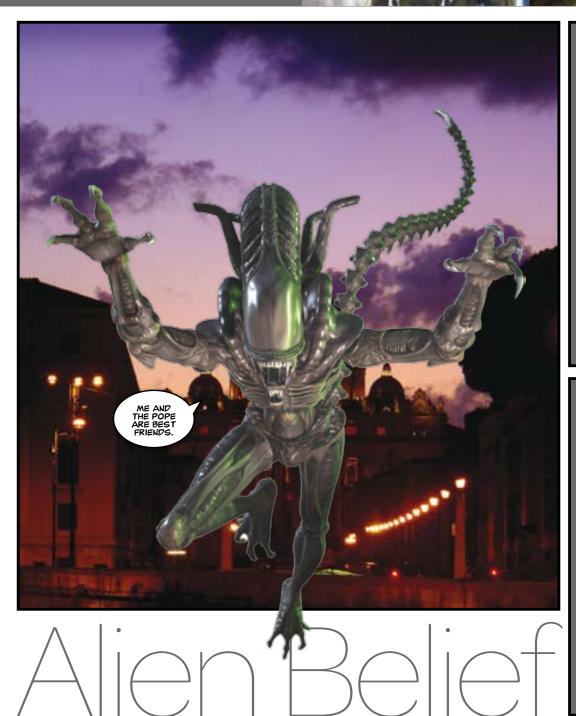

Bank	name:

Branch (sucursal):

Address: Postal code:

nsult Hot English for m s outside Snain e-mail sub enğlish

SPACE ALIENS ARE OUR BROTHERS, VATICAN SAYS.

leading Vatican Astronomer has said that belief in life in other planets and belief in God don't contradict each other. Reverend José Gabriel Funes, a Jesuit said that the universe is too big to deny the possibility that life didn't develop elsewhere. Reverend Funes is the chief of the Vatican Observatory which has one of the most impressive collections of meteorites in the world. He is also an advisor to the Pope on science. The priest made his comments in the Vatican's newspaper L'Osservatore Romano in an interview with the headline "The extraterrestrial is my brother". Funes said that if there were aliens, then they would also have been created by God because God created the entire universe. He also said that he believed The Big Bang was the beginning of the universe but that this didn't contradict his belief in God. In 1633, the Church tried Galileo as a heretic because he said that the Earth revolved around the Sun. Galileo had to recant his theory and the Church only admitted its error in 1992. Funes said that the Church had made a mistake but the time has come for people to discuss their ideas calmly. ©

The Vatican

The Vatican, also known as "The Holy See", refers to the central government of the Catholic Church. The leader of the Vatican (or Holy See) is the Bishop of Rome, better known as The Pope. The Holy See dates back to St. Peter, who died in 64 A.D.

The Vatican City

The Vatican City (officially, the State of the Vatican City) is a sovereign city state located within the city of Rome, Italy. It is the smallest state in the world with a population of about 800. The Vatican City was formed in 1929 after the Lateran Treaty was signed between the Kingdom of Italy and the Holy See. The Pope and the Holy See are in the Vatican City.

GLOSSARY

to contradict vb to say the opposite of something a headline the words / title at the top of a news story an extraterrestrial n a creature from another planet; an alien an alien / a creature from another planet the Big Bang n the theory that the universe was created by a massive explosion to try vb to put someone before a court and accuse them of a crime a heretic a non-believer: a person who doesn't believe in religious teachings to recant vb to deny the truth of something you said previously

STONE IDIOMS

THIS IS THE FIRST PART IN OUR SERIES OF "STONE" IDIOMS.

GLOSSARY to sink vb if an object "sinks" in water, it goes to the bottom of the water sympathy n if you have "sympathy" for someone or their situation, you understand / appreciate their situation and / or feel sorry for them

CD track 38

A stone's throw A VERY SHORT DISTANCE AWAY... "Our hotel was a stone's throw from the beach."

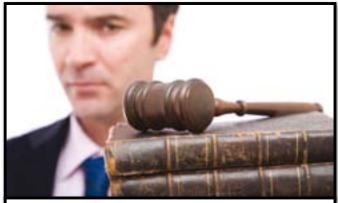

Be carved / set in stone IF AN ARRANGEMENT, PLAN OR RULES IS "SET IN STONE", IT IS FIXED AND IT CANNOT BE CHANGED.. "The rules are set in stone and there's nothing you can do about it."

Leave no stone unturned TO DO EVERYTHING YOU CAN IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE SOMETHING OR FIND SOMEONE/SOMETHING... "They have promised to leave no stone unturned in their search for peace."

Sink like a stone TO FAIL COMPLETELY. "She recorded six songs, all of which sank like a stone."

Get blood out of a stone IF MAKING SOMEONE TELL YOU SOMETHING OR DO SOMETHING IS LIKE "GETTING BLOOD OUT OF A STONE", IT IS VERY DIFFICULT OR IMPOSSIBLE... "Getting the truth out of him was like getting blood out of a stone."

Have a heart of stone BE CRUEL AND HAVE NO SYMPATHY FOR PEOPLE. "He wouldn't even help his own mother in her time of need. He's got a heart of stone."

enğlish

NEWSSTORIES

Platypus Mystery

The mystery of the platypus is solved.

The mystery of one of the oddest animals on earth has been solved. The duck-billed platypus, a small animal native to Australia and Tasmania, has been classified as... nothing. It is neither a mammal, a bird nor a reptile. Scientists couldn't decide what the strange little creature was because it had similarities with all three animal groups.

For several years scientists have been studying the genome of the platypus to figure out which group it belonged to. But they have concluded that it is a mixture of the three. In some ways it is similar to a duck: it lays eggs, it has a bill (hence the name) and it has webbed feet. The platypus also has a feature that egg-laying mammals have: electroreception. This is the ability to track food with electrical signals when they are underwater. The features that the platypus shares with reptiles include possessing a snake-like venom.

Scientists said that they thought that, during evolution, humans and platypuses had a common ancestor until about 170 million years ago – during the time of the dinosaurs. The platypus that scientists carried out the research on was nicknamed Glennie.

Australia is home to some of the strangest animals in the world. As well as the duck-billed platypus, there are also kangaroos with pouches for carrying their offspring and the mild, tree-climbing koala bears. The isolation of the island has meant that many animals have evolved differently from other animals as they lived without fear of predators.

Exercise

Match each Australian animal to its corresponding picture.

GLOSSARY odd adj

strange a genome DNA (Deoxyribonucleic acid) – the genetic information of people / things to figure out phr vb to discover a bill n the hard part of a bird's face that it uses to eat (also, a "beak") hence adv therefore: as a result to track v to find and follow venom poison to carry out research exp to do scientific experiments a pouch n a type of bag in a kangaroo for holding its young / babies offspring n children a predator r a hunter; someone who eats / kills another animal

ALL I WANT IS A LITTLE ASSIFICATION.

```
58 | www.hotenglishmagazine.com FREE subscription if you recommend Hot English Language Services to your company. E-mail classes@hotenglishmagazine.com
```

SOLUCIONES Central Control Con

Hot English Publishing ofrece un servicio lingüístico completo. Más de 8 años de experiencia publicando cientos de revistas, libros en inglés, francés y español, trabajando con tres de las más importantes editoriales en España. Como resultado, Hot English tiene experiencia en trabajar con proyectos lingüísticos de todas las dimensiones y formatos. Ofrecemos un número de servicios que incluyen:

- ----- Creación de contenido (escritura de artículos, folletos, etc.).
- -----> Traducción (español-inglés-francés-alemán).
- ----> Desarrollo de libros de texto.
- -----> Servicios de corrección de texto.
- -----> Creación y producción de material de audio.
- -----> Diseño, presentación e ilustración de trabajos.
- -----> Desarrollo de sistemas de enseñanza online.

Si necesitas que te ayudemos con tu proyecto, por favor, escribe a info@hotneglishmagazine.com o llama al (00 34) 91 549 8523.

HOT ENGLISH – LOS EXPERTOS LINGÜÍSTICOS.

www.hotenglishmagazine.com

TEACH ENGLISH WITH HOT ENGLISH LANGUAGE SERVICES

We are continuously recruiting TEFL-qualified, native English teachers to give company classes at our prestigious clients' offices. We offer good rates of pay and timetables and excellent pedagogical support from our teaching and editorial team, plus our very own teaching method.

Please send your CV to:

MADRID teacherinfo@hotenglishmagazine.com or call 91 543 3573

BARCELONA barcelona@hotenglishmagazine.com

VALENCIA simon@hotenglishmagazine.com

www.hotenglishmagazine.com

LOOK! INTERNSHIPS

Come and intern in Madrid. Dynamic office atmosphere. Great variety of tasks: journalism, marketing, design, finance, business, translation, sales, administration. Contact interns@hotenglishmagazine.com

> Todos los idiomas,

ESPASA

- > Traducciones jurídicas,
- > Servicios de interpretación.

contacta ahora para un presupuesto:

(00 34) 91 455 0273 o escríbenos a translations@hotenglishmagazine.com www.hotenglishgroup.com

The Hot English Language Services Method

This magazine forms part of the Hot English learning and teaching method. It is used in combination with Skills Booklets (6 booklets for Beginner to Advanced levels) and the Teacher's Notes (detailed notes on how to exploit Hot English magazine in class).

Students!

Academies!

Get your company to sign up with Hot English Language Services and receive the magazine for FREE! Find out how we can really help you improve your competitiveness within the teaching market.

For more information, visit www.hotenglishmagazine.com enğlish

Going green can mean greenbacks.

Pre reading – Being Green

- Match the words to the pictures. 1. a recycling bin
- 2. geothermal energy
- 3. wind power
- 4. a wind turbine
- 5. solar energy
- 6. biofuels
- 7. tidal power
- 8. hydro power

Discussion

- 1. Which form of renewable energy is popular in your country? Whv?
- 2. Do you do your bit for the environment? What?
- 3. Are politicians in your country concerned about the environment? In what ways?
- 4. Are there any green parties in your country? Who are they? What do they do?
- 5. What do you understand by the term "a green home"? Would you live in one? Why? Why not?

Reading 1

Before reading. Can green policies be profitable? How? Think of at least three ways. Now read the article and check your answers.

🖪 Reading II

C

How are the following people contributing to the "green" projects mentioned in the article. Make short notes under each name.

PA.	1 M
Tom Darden	Donald Trump	Brad Pitt	T. Boone Pickens

We don't normally associate green policies with profitability, but some business people are proving they can be. Cherokee Investment Partners is one such example. Cherokee, which is a real estate investor, buys "polluted and abandoned" properties, cleans up the chemical waste, then redevelops the land to sell. From department stores and industrial properties to abandoned oil refineries, they have 500 energy efficient and environmentally-friendly properties in Europe, Canada, and the US. Because these sites are usually near cities, the new developments are near public transportation, which is good for everyone, and more profitable. Cherokee CEO Tom Darden is working with Donald Trump to clean up a landfill in New Jersey. They'll build "homes, apartments, stores and a world-class golf course" on the site. Brad Pitt also works with Cherokee building "green" homes for people in New Orleans.

Meanwhile, oil tycoon T Boone Pickens is turning the panhandle of Texas into "the world's largest wind farm." He has rejuvenated his little town of Sweetwater with wind energy. Until now, Sweetwater was a

"gently declining railroad town, its population falling year on year and its infrastructure guietly rotting." Now, business is booming. Famous for thinking big, Pickens plans on putting up to 2,700 wind turbines on 200,000 acres. They will generate enough wind energy to "power about one million homes." He has even promised his neighbours between $10,000 and $20,000 for each turbine they allow on their property. "My business is making money, and I think this is going to make a lot of money," Pickens says. Future plans include wind and solar energy projects from a real estate investor n a person / company who buys and sells property environmentally-friendly adj that doesn't damage the environment (the earth, air, water, etc) the CEO abbr the chief executive officer – the highest-ranking manager of a company a landfill n a large hole in the land where rubbish is placed the panhandle of Texas n the northern part of Texas that looks like the handle (the part you hold) of a pan to rejuvenate vb to renew; to improve; make young declining adj becoming worse; nearing the end of its life cycle rotting a if something is "rotting", it is dying to boom v if business is "booming", things are going very well

Texas to California.

D

READING

Texas is home to a lot of religious cult activity. Now police are investigating a "secretive polygamist sect," the radical Fundamentalist Mormons. They separated from the Mormon Church in the 1930's when Mormons outlawed polygamy; there are three generations of members. Police raided their compound after a young girl from the sect told officers about the sexual abuse she had suffered. She is among the 400 women and 133 children cloistered in the compound who had never been outside its walls. Leader and "selfstyled prophet", Warren Jeffs is up for multiple charges. According to reports, young girls from 10 years old are forced to marry men 40 or 50 years older. Jeffs is said to have over 250 kids, and 80 wives. They believe the apocalypse is coming, and are "preparing to start again when the world is destroyed". Waco, Texas is infamous for the Branch Dividians, a radical cult centring around leader David Koresh. A 51-day, multiple agency siege began on the ranch on 28th February 1993. On 19th April the compound burned down, ending the confrontation, also causing the deaths of over 80 members, including Koresh. He believed that he was the Second Coming of Christ. Deeply disturbed, he gave adults and children paramilitary training. Later, law enforcement agencies discovered arms that had been sent to the Davidian compound. Davidians today are waiting for Koresh to return.

Pre reading – religious sects / cults

Match the sect (1 to 5) to the definition (a-e). For more information (plus some videos), visit www.listverse.com/religion/top-10-cults

- 1. The Manson Family
- 2. Aum Shinrikyo
- 3. Scientology
- 4. Branch Davidians
- 5. The Unification Church (Mooneyism) \Box
- a. A Japanese religious group. They carried out a Sarin gas attack in the Tokyo subway in 1995.
- b. This religious movement was started by Sun Myung Moon in Korea in the 1940s.
- c. A religious sect whose centre in Waco, Texas, was burnt down in 1993 after a police siege.
- d. A cult started by Charles Manson. Members of the cult carried out a series of killings in 1969.
- e. A religious organisation created by L Ron Hubbard in 1952.

Discussion

- 1. What do you know about sects?
- 2. Which sects / cults are active in your country? How does the government deal with them?
- 3. Why do people join sects? How do sect leaders get people to join?

Reading 1

Look at the words below. What do you think the article is about? How do the words fit into the article? Discuss your ideas, then read the article to check your answers.

Phrasal verb alert!

Notice how some phrasal verbs are composed of two participles: to be up for. "Warren Jeffs is up for multiple charges."

If you are "up for" something, you are going to receive that thing. Notice how this expression can also be used in a positive sense. "Penelope Cruz is up for two Oscars."

a polygamist sect n a sect that believes that you can be married to various people at the same time a Mormon n a religious organisation based in Utah (the USA) to outlaw vb to declare formally that something is illegal a compound n an enclosed area of land used for a specific purpose cloistered adj if vou are "cloistered", you are isolated from the rest of the world up for something exp if you are "up for something", you are going to receive that thing a siege n a situation in which the police or military are surrounding a place waiting for the people inside to come out disturbed ad mentally unstable

ADVANCED LISTENING

BBC POR

BBC to interview dead star.

Pre listening – Dead or alive?

What are the following people famous for? Are they still alive? If not, when did they pass away?

Listening 1

Listen once. Which of the stars above is mentioned? What is a blooper?

Listening II

Answer the following questions.

- 1. What was the media company requesting?
- 2. How did the foundation react to the request?
- 3. What was the outcome of the incident?

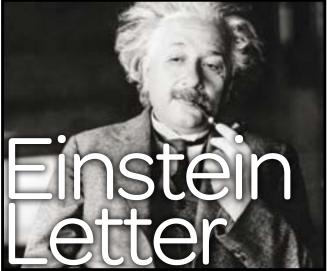

Discussion

- 1. Have there been any embarrassing media moments in your country? What were they?
- 2. What's your opinion of the media and the people who work for the media?

Language focus

A euphemism is the use of a pleasanter or less direct name for something thought to be unpleasant. For example, the use of the term "streamlining" to describe the custom of firing / sacking employees. Listen to the conversation again and find an example of a euphemism. What is it?

NEWSSTORIES

AN INTERESTING LETTER BY EINSTEIN SELLS FOR $330,000.

letter by the famous scientist Albert Einstein has sold for US$330,000. In the letter Einstein, who was Jewish, dismissed the existence of God. He also said that he didn't think the Jews were a "chosen people", though he said that he was very proud and happy to be Jewish. In the letter, Einstein said that God was another way of describing human weakness and the Bible was "pretty childish".

The letter was written and sent in 1954 to philosopher Eric Gutkind, a friend of Einstein's. It was sold in London by Bloomsbury Auctions. The auctioneers expected the price of the letter to be much less.

Albert Einstein was famous for his scientific work. But many people have speculated about his religious and political beliefs. He was a cultural Zionist. On several occasions he said he was concerned about the creation of a Jewish state in Palestine. He thought that this would bring his people into conflict with Arabs, especially the Palestinians. He publicly condemned the events surrounding the massacre in the Arab village of Deir Yassin. When the state of Israel was formed he was asked to become the president but he declined the offer. The German-born genius died in 1955. 🗘

Albert Einstein

Einstein (14th March 1879 – 18th April 1955) Albert Einstein was a Nobel Prize winning physicist. He was famous for his theory of relativity (E = mc2). He once sent a letter to President Franklin Roosevelt warning him that German that German scientists were creating an atomic bomb. Einstein urged the president to create one too. The letter sparked what would later be called the Manhattan Project. Today, the name Einstein is synonymous with genius.

GLOSSARY

a chosen people n a group of people chosen by God as the most important childish adj immature: not adult an auction n a sale where the product is sold to the person who pays the most to speculate to suggest; to theorise a Zionist n someone who believes in Zionism the creation of a homeland fo Jewish people, A cultural Zionist appreciates Jewish culture, history and traditions (but not necessarily the political aspects) a conflict n a war

to condemn vb

to say that something is wrong Deir Yassin n an Arab village that was attacked during the Palestinian War of 1948. Most of the villagers were killed a genius n someone with great abilities and very high intelligence

englisl

Celebrity Requests

WHAT'S THE SILLIEST REQUEST YOU'VE EVER HEARD? WHATEVER IT IS, IT PROBABLY ISN'T AS RIDICULOUS AS SOME OF THESE TRUE THINGS THAT STARS HAVE DEMANDED. TRY THIS QUIZ. CAN YOU GUESS WHO MAKES EACH REQUEST? AND CAN YOU BELIEVE IT? ANSWERS BELOW.

The Brown M&Ms have to be picked out of the packages.

ь

Aretha Franklin

2 I demand a puppy (just for one night).

I can only drink coffee

that is stirred counter-

Julia Roberts

b

Shakira

Jennifer Lopez

Paulina Rubio

I need a new toilet seat for each night of my tour.

I need a

F.

Celine Dion

C

Mariah Car

Amy Winehouse

clockwise. I demand

special silk curtains to line my dressing room.

I won't sign on for the movie unless you give my husband free flying lessons.

Tom Cruise

8

Lindsav Lohar

Jennifer Aniston Katie Holmes

Angelina Jol

5 I need a personal assistant to throw away my used chewing gum.

submachine gun.

must be no less than 204 towels in my dressing room.

The seven dwarfs must be backstage with me while I am on tour.

Britney Spears

Justin Timberlake

Advertising & Marketing

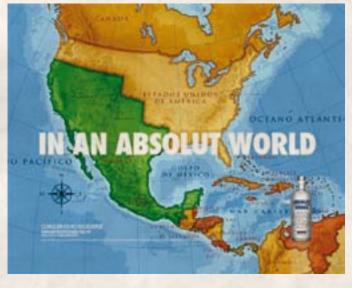

Advertising

Controversial Vodka

Absolut ad irritates Americans.

Absolut Vodka has found itself in trouble over a map of Mexico from the 1830s. The advert, which was only used in Mexico, shows the southwest of the United States within the Mexican border. The caption on the advert read, "In an Absolut world".

The border between the USA and Mexico has been a source of contention between the two countries ever since the Mexican-American War of 1848. In recent times, Mexican immigration to this part of the States has stirred controversy. Last year, an attempt to reform laws to document 12 million, mostly Mexican, immigrants failed. Mexican people have nicknamed this massive economic migration the "Reconquista". Absolut has stated that the ad didn't mean to offend, moreover it was intended to recall a more ideal time in Mexican history. The campaign has since ended, but this hasn't given any comfort to conservative American bloggers who were furious about it.

Marketing

An emotional battle between commercialism and tradition is about to be waged in Lansdowne Road, the national rugby stadium of Ireland. The stadium, which is being renovated at the moment, is the oldest international rugby ground in the world. It is also the home of Lansdowne Road Football Club, one of the oldest rugby clubs in Ireland. The Irish Rugby Football Union (IRFU) is considering selling the naming rights of Landsdowne Road, a move many English Football Clubs like Arsenal have done to generate revenue.

Arsenal's new ground, the Emirate Stadium (named after Emirate Airlines), took over from Highbury with many fans unhappy about the corporate name change. Similar problems will probably arise with Landsdowne Road, which also hosts Ireland's international soccer matches. In the US, most teams in the National Hockey League have their stadiums named after companies. ©

CD tracks 43 & 44

a caption nthe words that go with a picture / advert a source of contention nsomething that creates conflict to stir controversy exp to create many different opinions and anger to nickname vbto give an informal name to state vbto say formally to wage (a war) nto fight a battle to generate revenue exp to produce money / profit

64 | www.hotenglishmagazine.com For company classes, e-mail classes@hotenglishmagazine.com

PHRASAL VERB THEMES

WORD OF THE MONTH

Jobsworth

THIS MONTH WE ARE LOOKING AT THE WORD "JOBSWORTH". BASICALLY A JOBSWORTH IS SOMEONE WHO IS UNHELPFUL AND OBSTRUCTIVE IN THEIR JOB – SOMEONE WHO USES THEIR POSITION TO MAKE LIFE DIFFICULT FOR OTHERS.

n general, jobsworths have unimportant jobs and mundane personal lives. They seek attention and the workplace is usually where they can find it. The public don't take them seriously in the outside world, so they try to be "Little Hitlers" in their place of work. Jobsworths typically "go by the book", and typical jobsworth expressions include the following:

a) Oh, I'm sorry, you can't do that. b) Rules are rules. I can't help you there. c) That's more than my job's worth. This last phrase was made famous by the BBC consumer affairs series That's Life! This was aired on British TV in the 1970s and 1980s. Each week the programme would give a prize to companies and authorities who had implemented the most ridiculous regulations and policies – particularly those that made life difficult for others.

More recently, the successful British comedy

The Office featured the character Gareth Keenan, a fine example of a jobsworth. In the programme Gareth's job description is "Team Leader", a totally meaningless title. However, Gareth

Director of studies Leigh Dante (00 34 91 543 3573)

classes@hotenglishmagazine.com

subs@hotenglishmagazine.com

(by e-mail thereafter).

Art editor

Philip McIvo

Office manager Ana Pintor Córdoba (00 34 91 549 8523)

Credit control and administration 9-2

Office hours 9:30 - 6 pm (Spanish time)

Asssistant director of studies

Kate Browne (00 34 91 543 3573)

Editorial department and blog Martin Quinn, Amber Putnam, classes@hotenglishmagazine.cor

Peter Moore, Jenna Di Maria, Tyler Altes & Kjersti Teachman

Audio production

www.atxsound.com

Hot Staff

Managing Director Thorley Russell (00 34 91 455 0273) thorley@hotenglishmagazine.com Editorial Director Andy Coney (00 34 91 455 0273) andyc@hotenglishmagazine.com acts as if he is the boss and often orders people around. The US English equivalent of a jobsworth is a "company man". The American version of the series The Office has its own jobsworth character, Dwight Schrute. Both these men fancy themselves as tough guys (Dwight's hero is Jack Bauer from the series 24, and Gareth Keenan was in the Territorial Army). They particularly enjoy it when they are given small tasks that involve giving their colleagues orders. However, in the end, jobsworths are pretty sad individuals, particularly as their superiors don't respect them either. Have you come across any jobsworths recently? ©

GLOSSARY

mundame adj boring to go by the book exp to follow every single rule exactly to air vb to show on TV meaningless adj with no sense; with no meaning to fancy yourself as something exp if you "fancy yourself as a particular kind of person, you like the idea of you being that kind of person a tough guy n a strong, macho, aggressive man the Territorial Army n a reserve force of the British army – members often go two or three weekends a month next month in Cengilish Music special: Coldplay, AC-DC

Listening and reading exercises Phrasal verbs: food & drink Basic English: music (not so) Typical Dialogues: crime Cenglish

 Barcelona office (Hot English)
 M

 Carmen Soini: 696 108 245
 Di

 barcelona@hotenglishmagazine.com
 H

 Contributors
 G

 Dougal Maguire
 Cover artist

 Daniel Coutoune
 Cartonist

 Blanca San Roman Translation

 W
 V

 Craig Dewe
 Web marketing

Blanca San Roman Craig Dewe Sam Bones Write Marta Ispierto Marketina Fred McLaughlan Jane Grodeman Interviews Writer Paul McGann Writer lan Slater Proof reading Proof reading Marcie Lambert Laurent Guiard French depart. Anita Iglesias French proof reading Goltina Boniface Intern Sarah Cherif Intern Barbara Delucien Intern Neema Syovata Julia McQuinn Intern Intern Kejan Haynes Intern Jimsa: Mexico City 555 545 6645 Hungary Gabor Winkler & Peter Bokor info@hotenglish.hu Russia William Hackett-Jones william@hotenglishmagazine.ru

Printing Artes Gráficas Hono S.L. CD Production MPO S.A. Distribution by SGEL S.A. ISSN 1577-7898 Depósito Legal M.14272.2001 July & August 2008 Published by Hot English Publishing, S.L. C/Fernández de los Ríos, 98, 2A Madrid 28015 Phone: (00 34) 91 549 8523 Fax: (00 34) 91 549 8523 Info@hoteng/lishmagazine.com

What is Hot English?

A monthly magazine for improving your English. Real English in genuine contexts. Slang. British English. Functional language. US English. Cartoons. Humorous articles. Easy to read. Helpful glossaries. Useful expressions. Fun. Something for everyone. Readers from 16 to 105 years old. From pre-intermediate to advanced (CEF levels A2-C1). Ready-to-use lessons. Enatastic 70-minute audio CD. Great website with extra listenings and articles: www.hotenglishmagazine.com. All the www.hotenglishmagazine.com. All the English you'll ever need! Where can you find Hot English? In shops and kiosks all over Spain, and in our online shop. If you cannot find it in your local kiosk, please call and we'll organise it for you.

(english

Revista Hot English – versión online. Un año de suscripción = ¡Solamente 34 euros!

Hot English estará disponible a principios de cada mes en nuestro sitio web. Simplemente con tu código de usuario y tu contraseña, podrás descargar todos los ficheros que quieras leer y/o escuchar de nuestra revista Hot English.

iSe cargan ficheros nuevos cada mes! ¡Garantizado!
 Acceso inmediato a 13 revistas atrasadas*.

Descarga las páginas en formato PDF. Descarga los ficheros de sonido en formato MP3

Consigue tu código de usuario y tu contraseña online AHORA con nuestro seguro sistema PayPal en la página www.hotenglishmagazine.com o llama nuestro departamento de suscripciones (0034) 91 549 85 23

O envía un email a payments@hotenglishmagazine.com o sino envía el formulario de suscripción de que hay en la revista (Pág. 19).

*Las revistas atrasadas empiezan desde el número 65. El número de revistas atrasadas irán aumentando cada mes.

CURSOS DE INGLÉS - EMPRESAS/PARTICULARES

CURSOS DE INGLÉS

¿BUSCAS CLASES DE INGLÉS?

Hot English Language Services le ofrece un sistema profesional y motivador basado en nuestro método comunicativo: clases basadas en la actualidad que te garantizará clases interesantes, innovadoras y estimulantes. De esta forma, tendrás:

Más motivación
 Más diversión en tus clases
 Rápido progreso

ADEMÁS DE LAS HORAS LECTIVAS, TODOS NUESTROS ESTUDIANTES RECIBEN:

 > Revista Hot English cada mes
 > Acceso gratuito a la zona restringida de nuestra web (1,500 artículos, 500 audiciones) > Nuestro método: Teacher's Notes y Skills Booklets.

englis

ENGLISH M

DURANTE

1 AÑO

Y TODO ESTO A PRECIOS REALMENTE COMPETITIVOS

Llámanos al 91 455 0273 o envíanos un correo electrónico a (Madrid) classes@hotenglishmagazine.com (Barcelona) barcelona@hotenglishmagazine.com